FOURTH CHAUTAUQUA CLOSED LAST FRIDAY

FOURTH ANNUAL ASSEMBLY WAS WELL PATRONIZED. THE PROGRAM PLEASSED.

TO HAVE CHAUTAUQUA NEXT YEAR

Bounties Paid Out by County Auditor
Davis Exceed $1,100 During
Month of June.

The final program of the fourth annual Chautauqua, conducted by the Redpath-Warner system, was given on Friday evening. The attendance has been larger than in past years and the entertainment was a success from every point of view.

The closing numbers of the program, given since our last issue were fully up to the standard of the opening ones. Krill and his band were the hit of the chautauqua, from the musical standpoint. Their music fairly thrilled two large audiences Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Both of the Thursday lectures were good. In the afternoon Edward Russell Perry of New York gave his views of the politics of today in a very entertaining lecture. Thursday evening Gilliam, the humorist, proved one of the favorites of this year's assembly. His lecture was of a humorous nature. He captured the audience early by his witty sallies and good humor and impressed all who heard him as a pleasing and clever entertainer.

Congressman LeRoy's speech Friday afternoon was one of the best heard here this year. He is an earnest and forceful speaker and he brought out his points with clearness and force. His discourse contained much political wisdom and sound advice on public questions. He was one of the favorites of this year's chautauqua. The musical part of the entertainment Friday evening was good but Floyd, the magician, was disappointing.

During the last days of the chautauqua superintendent Evans made a canvass for the sale of tickets for next year. Over four hundred were pledged and a committee of business men has guaranteed the sale of the remaining portion which insures the chautauqua for next year. The chautauqua is looked upon as a fixed institution here and everyone will be pleased to give it loyal support next season.

SNODGRESS SLAUGHTER SALE.

The bottom has apparently dropped out of the regular prices for clothing. The Snodgress Clothing company advertises a slaughter sale of clothing for one week from July 13th to July 30th, during which time they will offer everything in their store at prices far below what the goods formerly sold for. Remember this opportunity is open for one week only. This stock is absolutely new and everything is in this year's make and pattern.

This firm located here last spring with an entirely new stock and during this comparatively short space of time they have secured a firm foothold in Manchester in their line of business. You will get value received for whatever you buy at the Snodgress store. Pay it a visit during this big sale.

Pauley held the visitors to one hit until the sixth inning when they secured five hits and four runs. The feature of the game was the batting of Gitchell for the locals, who received a three-bagger, a two-bagger and a single out of four times to bat and the stealing of bases by Collins for the locals.

STRAWBERRY WINS ANOTHER.

On Saturday afternoon at the local ball park Strawberry Point defeated Manchester with a 4 to 1 score. Parke was on the mound for the locals and Sanders pitched for the visitors. Two hits and two errors in the third inning gave the visitors three runs. Dye, of the Point, received a home run in the eighth inning and Collins of the local team, received a two base hit.

WIN FROM STRAWBERRY.

Manchester defeated Strawberry Point at the latter place on Wednesday afternoon by a 4 to 2 score. Gitchell and Crabbe opposed each other on the mound. Gitchell allowed ten hits and Crabbe eleven. Manchester had one error and Strawberry had three. Newcomer, for the Point, received a home run and three base hits were made by Besser and Collins of the local line-up.

LOCALS DEFEAT ARLINGTON.

The locals defeated Arlington at that place on Thursday afternoon by a score of 1 to 0. Cobb was on the mound for Manchester and Garrison for Arlington, both allowing three hits. Manchester scored by Besser going to first base on an error and Ed Luense securing a three-bagger, which allowed Besser to score. Arlington did not get a man as far as third base.

JOHN MEADER.

The sudden death of John Meader, formerly of Delaware, occurred at Beaver Park in Cedar Rapids on Tuesday, July 5, 1910, caused from heart trouble. The remains were brought to Delaware Thursday morning where interment was made in the cemetery at that place. A number from Manchester were in attendance at the funeral. The following is taken from the Cedar Rapids Gazette regarding the death of the deceased:

"John W. Meader, about thirty-eight years of age, residing at 202 South Third street, west, and a well known and popular employe of the Churchill Drug company, was found in a dying condition on one of the rustic benches in Beaver park by Park Superintendent Samuel Wood at 9:15 this morning. Coroner King was notified immediately and a search of the man's clothing failed to reveal a scrap of writing of any kind and, absolutely nothing to reveal the identity of the deceased, and it was several hours before it was known that it was Meader. All the circumstances and the condition of the body point to heart failure as the cause.

"Park Superintendent Wood noticed the man walk through the south entrance to the park about 9 o'clock this morning, and went down one of the paths toward the spring house. He appeared to be perfectly well at that time, although the superintendent noticed that he sat down on one of the benches for a moment or two, and then arose and went on through the park. About fifteen minutes later the superintendent happened to pass one of the rustic benches near the vine covered spring house, and directly opposite the said bench used as a playground by the children, when he heard a sound as of some one choking. Glancing around he saw the man sitting on the bench with his head thrown back, and although Mr. Wood ran to him as quickly as he could the man was dead when he reached him.

"Every effort was made by the coroner to discover some clue that would lead to the identity of the dead man, but at first without result. There were no papers, memorandum books, nor anything of the kind in his pockets, the only article found being a gold watch, a small amount of change, a pocket knife and a plain gold band ring which was on the ring finger of the left hand. The remains were taken to the Beatty undertaking rooms, and the efforts to identify the man were carried on by Coroner King and Detective McKernan.

"Mr. McKernan, with the numbers in Mr. Meader's watch as the only clue from which to obtain knowledge of the dead man's identity, went to the jewelry stores. The watch had been left for repairs by J. W. Meader. Returning to Beatty's, Mr. McKernan mentioned the man's name as John W. Meader. A glance at the city directory and immediate communication with the Churchill Drug company established the fact that the deceased was Mr. Meader, Messrs. Kinyon and Junkerman coming at once to the undertaking establishment and identifying the body.

"Mr. Meader had charge of the shipping department at the Churchill Drug company, and was having a new home built a short distance west of Beaver park. He was in the habit of reaching his work at the drug company very early in the morning, and after getting the work started necessarily, would usually go out to see how the workmen were progressing with his new home. He was missed from the drug company about 8:15 this morning, and it is presumed that he went out to his new home, and feeling ill had walked over into the park to rest for a time, and the attack of heart failure seized him as soon as he sat down.

"Mr. Meader had not complained of feeling ill this morning, but he was at times subject to very severe headaches. He had a host of friends in the city, particularly on the west side and was a popular member of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. He was highly respected by his employer and all his associates. As a friend and neighbor, there could be no one better. Mr. Meader is survived by a wife and son who were told of the tragic affair at noon, and it is needless to state were rendered frantic with grief. Funeral announcement will be made later."

SOME REALTY CHANGES.

A number of changes of ownership of real estate in the county have taken place during the past week. The following is taken from the Earlville Phoenix of last week regarding the transfers made in that vicinity:

Henry B. Wordeshoff sold his 160-acre farm to C. M. and D. F. Laxson, the consideration being $19,200 or $120 per acre. This farm is situated in the northeast corner of Oneida township and is one of the finest improved in this section. Mrs. Elke sold her 100-acre farm during the week to Joe Osterhaus. This farm was purchased last year from George Matthews at an even $106 an acre. Mr. Osterhaus paid about $106 an acre. Henry Ocker has sold his farm in Elk township, known as the Stonelodge farm home and received in payment a section of Dakota land which when reduced to a pecuniary basis would net Mr. Ocker about $135 per acre for his home farm.

—M. V. Newcomb and Wm. Catron of Earlville were visitors in the city Monday afternoon.
