Cold weather continues. No rain for some time past and the farmers are taking advantage of the same. In nearly every field is to be seen a corn wagon and from early morn until late at night is to be heard the sound of corn banging up against the throw boards. Snow, the very first of the season, reached our neighborhood last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schacherer of Dubuque arrived here last Thursday for an indefinite visit with their sons, Frank, Joe and Ellis, also their daughter, Mrs. Henry Anton, of Strawberry Point.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Waldo were at Manchester Monday, where they attended the wedding anniversary of the former's brother, Henry Waldo, and family.

C. B. Madison, who has been in Dakota looking after land interests, returned home one day last week.

John Witte of Petersburg transacted business in our town last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Funk, Mrs. Amelia Miller and son John, of Lebanon, South Dakota, were Colesburg visitors Monday.

Miss Mae Wiley spent last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lucey and family.

Misses Beryl and Hazel Coolidge and two of their friends of Fayette spent Sunday and Monday at the Doc Coolidge home.

Clem Fangmann of Dyersville was seen on our streets recently.

Slyvan Bixby, who has been employed in a printing office at Lynnville, Iowa, for the past few months, returned home Monday. We understand that he took the teachers' examination last week.

Supt. Thos. R. Roberts of Elkader was a pleasant caller in our town last Monday.

Mrs. Haynes of Cedar Rapids spent last week with her sister, Mrs. John Funk, and family. She also visited at Elkader before her return home.

Mrs. Joe Thurn spent a few days of last week with her sister, Mrs. Mike Lucey, and family.

Mrs. John Peet, who has been living at Strawberry Point for more than a year, had her household goods brought back to our town last Thursday. She is living in the Duncan house north of the schoolhouse. The many friends of Mrs. Peet are glad to welcome her back into our midst.

Dr. Kirkpatrick and family left for their new home at Keota, Iowa, last Friday evening. For the past three or four years Dr. Kirkpatrick has been conducting a dental office at this place, and it is with keen regret that we chronicle his departure. Although we regret to see Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick leave our town we all join in wishing them the best of success in their new home.

On last Tuesday occurred the funeral of Benjamin Rosenkians, who died at his home in Manchester Sunday, October 23, after a lingering illness of consumption. The remains were brought to Edgewood last Tuesday morning for burial in the Platt cemetery north of town. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and two children. Sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved relatives.

On last Sunday, October 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Lillibridge occurred the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Clifford Scovel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. B. Soule at high noon. Both young people are well known in our vicinity, where they have resided since childhood. They will go to housekeeping on the Scovel farm northeast of town. The best wishes of their friends for their success and happiness through life accompany them to their new home.

A thin coat of ice was froze over the river on last Saturday morning for the first time this winter.

WHETHER you live in the city or country, you'll find no .22 calibre repeating rifle like the Marlin Model 1897.

For the city man it is a perfect companion for the vacation or outing trip. It's light, takes down and packs in a small space. The ammunition is inexpensive. The gun can be used with 22 shot for target and is equally capable of handling .22 long or long-rifle cartridges without change of mechanism.

On the farm the rifle is a necessity. The short cartridge is sufficient for sparrows, squirrels and small game; and the long-rifle cartridge makes the Marlin Model 97 a distinctive weapon for game, foxes, hares, etc. up to 200 yards.

The "Marlin Book" of 126 pages, with handsome art cover, is jam full of up-to-date information for all gun-lovers and gives full description of all Marlin repeaters. It's 25c for a 3-cent postage.
