

ELECTION AFTER-MATH IN DELAWARE COUNTY

COMPLETE LIST OF ALL SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES FOR TOWNSHIP OFFICES

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT VOTE

The next number of the Manchester Lecture Course next Wednesday Evening.

The board of supervisors have completed the canvass of votes for Delaware county and the results as announced last week remain unchanged. The official count revealed a few minor changes in the pluralities. Carroll lost ten on the count leaving his official plurality at 550. Kehoe gained 31, making his plurality 344. Davis gained 10, raising his plurality to 313. There were changes of one or two votes in some of the other offices.

The vote in the county on the question, "Shall there be a convention to revise the constitution and amend the same" was 1220 "Yes" and 1411 "No." The "No's" have it by a majority of 191 so far as Delaware county is concerned. In the city of Manchester the people voted on the question of granting new franchises to the Manchester Light, Heat & Power Co. and the Hoag Electric Light, Heat & Power Co. Both companies received a majority in favor of granting new franchises. The vote concerning the Manchester company was 264 "Yes" and 154 "No," and for the Hoag company 268 "Yes," and 135 "No."

Below is given a complete list of all successful candidates for township offices in the county. The law requires that every candidate for any office voted for at any general election shall within ten days thereafter file a sworn statement showing all sums of money expended in aiding or securing his election. But two candidates, Graham and Kehoe, have as yet filed statements.

$10,000 BEQUEST FOR COUNTY HOSPITAL

WILL OF JAMES CORRELL GIVES DELAWARE COUNTY LARGE AMOUNT.

CONTEST IS IN SIGHT

District Court Convenes Again Next Monday, Several Important Cases.

Delaware County may have a $10,000 hospital for the deaf and blind through a bequest of James Correll, who died about five years ago. The members of the board of supervisors of this county, county auditor Will J. Davis and assistant county attorney E. C. Perkins went West Union this morning to look after the interests of this county in the estate which is being probated in Fayette county.

It is understood that Mr. Correll in his will gave to his wife who has an invalid the use of all of his property as long as she lived. They had no children and upon her death a few weeks ago at the hospital at Cherokee the will was offered for probate.

The estate is valued at about $20,000. There is a small bequest to a distant relative and the remainder is equally divided between Fayette and Delaware counties for the purpose of erecting a hospital in each for the deaf and blind. Some of the heirs of Mr. Correll have served notice that they would contest the will and the rights of this county in the estate are not as yet definitely determined. Many years ago Mr. Correll lived at Greeley, where some of his relatives now reside.

MISS MILDRED BROWN ILL.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown were summoned to Oberlin, Ohio, Sunday evening, by the illness of their daughter, Mildred, who is a student at Oberlin college. Word was received here this morning that her illness had the symptoms of typhoid fever. She is now in a hospital at Elyria, Ohio, a short distance from Oberlin. Her many friends sincerely hope that the illness of this estimable young lady will not be serious.

NEXT NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE.

The next number of the Manchester Lecture Course will be by the Chicago Glee Club on November 23rd. This club has been on the entertainment platform for the past thirteen years and for the past ten years has been the same personnel. From press notices they appear to have been favorites wherever they have been. The repertoire of this Glee Club is probably more extensive and varied than any similar organization. The trombone quartet, first introduced to the Lyceum by the Chicago Glee club and used only by them is said to be one of the most artistic and pleasing novelties ever presented. One of the club, Mr. Dixon is an impersonator of rare ability. His impersonation of the Hoosier character is said to be among the best bits of characterization on the platform.

Season tickets for the balance of the course will be on sale at the State Savings Bank for $1.75. Single tickets 50 cents. The entertainment will commence at precisely eight o'clock p. m.

John J. Burke is a Waterloo visitor today.

Isn't it about time the pavement in Manchester had another sweeping?

Edwin Larson of Delaware, Iowa, had his right hand frightfully mangled in a corn shredder last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Conger, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Conger, were visiting with relatives and friends at Dubuque over Sunday.

Those from here who attended the "Flower of the Ranch" at the Gedeny Opera House at Independence Monday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williams, James Burns, Floyd Kling, Ola Lyman and Thos. P. Madden.

Al J. Thorpe, who is employed as clerk in one of the hotels at Waverly, Iowa, visited with relatives and friends here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Light of Oneida, who have been conducting a general merchandise store at that place for the past several years, have opened a factory for the manufacture of gloves and mittens at Edgewood, Iowa.

The Democrat is a day late this week on account of a balky engine. It simply went on a strike and refused to arbitrate.

A dance will be held at the K. P. hall next Thursday evening.

The marriage of Albert Maley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Maley of this city, and Miss Martha Kinella of Dubuque was announced at St. Raphael's Cathedral at Dubuque on last Sunday morning.

Henry Mast, who was a resident of Delaware county for a number of years, has had more than his share of trouble during the past month. He was stricken with typhoid fever about a month ago but recovered, and no sooner had he recovered from it when three of his children were stricken, two of the children dying, having been sick only a few days. Next to contract the disease was his mother, Mrs. Minnie Mast, the fever carrying her off in a few days. Last Saturday morning relatives here received word that his twelve year old daughter had died with the fever. Mr. Mast's other two children are in a hospital in a very serious condition.

Remember the Thanksgiving ball at the Ryan town hall.

D. B. Allen is on the sick list. May his recovery be speedy.

The City Charity Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison on Prospect street on Friday afternoon of this week.

Max Joseph, the Chicago horse buyer, announces in his ad in another column that he will buy horses at Manchester Friday, November 25.

Mrs. Mary M. LeRoy and Mrs. Sattie Hill of Streator, Illinois, arrived in the city Monday evening for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Le Roy.

Gildner Bros. call attention in their ad this week to their tailoring department. They have just secured the services of an experienced man who will have charge of the dry cleaning and pressing. Read their announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sherwood left today for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. M. E. Hoag, who went to Charlotte, Michigan, last week for a short visit at the home of her son, Chas. Hoag, will join Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood in Chicago tonight and accompany them south. Mrs. Hoag will also remain in the south during the winter months.

Robert Barr marketed 20 hogs Monday which brought him $546.26. They averaged 382 pounds in weight and brought $1.55 per hundred. The best offer he could get for this same bunch a few days before election was $6.50. Mr. Barr says that those who have given the republican party the credit for the high price of hogs during the past few years should now credit up the democratic party with a half dollar advance since election.

Earl A. Davis left Monday evening for Denver, Colorado. It is likely he will conclude to locate there or at some other point in that state. His family will join him as soon as he finds a permanent location. Earl has been in the employ of The Democrat for the past three years and is a faithful employee and our best wishes accompany him wherever he may go. He is seeking a change of climate for the benefit of his health.

BILLY SUNDAY IS COMING

Noted Evangelist Will Hold One Meeting in Manchester in Near Future.

THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

WHAT MANCHESTER PEOPLE ARE DOING AT HOME AND ABROAD.

REVIEW AND FORECAST OF EVENTS

Items of a Personal and General Nature Picked Up About Town.

Rev. William A. Sunday, better known as "Billy" Sunday, the noted evangelist, will probably be in Manchester for one afternoon meeting some time within the next three or four weeks. Mr. Sunday is now holding a series of meetings at Waterloo and has promised, it is understood, to come to Manchester before he closes his work there. He will be here on some week day afternoon, returning to Waterloo on the evening train in time to conduct the evening meeting there. The coming of Billy Sunday to Manchester will arouse great interest. He is the most advertised evangelist in America today and has met phenomenal success in his work. Opinions differ as to the man and his methods. Manchester people will have an opportunity of hearing him and judging for themselves. The date of his meeting here will be announced as soon as it is fixed.

DEATH OF JAS. RETHERFORD.

James Retherford was born in Hancock county, Illinois, March 10, 1819, where he lived until the death of his father, Jno. Retherford, which occurred in 1833, after which time he went out to make his own way in the world. In 1834 he went to the mines at Platteville, Wisconsin, where he worked for two years going from there to Jo Davis county, Illinois, where he remained two years. He then came with his uncle to Delaware county, Iowa, on July 1, 1838, being one of the first settlers in what was known as Dickson settlement near Colesburg. On October 1, 1846 he was united in marriage to Miss Nancy Maria Bragg. She departed this life on October 1, 1847, just one year after marriage. On March 14, 1849 he was married to Miss Catherine Bragg, who lived to the good old age of 73 years passing away on April 22, 1904. This union was blessed with seven children: Emily Jane, Joseph Samuel, John William, Jas. Monroe, Samuel Thompson, Mary Marinda and Martha Maranda, three of whom are living, James and Martha of this place and Mrs. Marshall of Virginia.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Franklin C. Platt will hold court here next week beginning Monday, November 21. The remaining business of the October term will be taken up at this time. The trial jury will be here on Monday next and it is probable that several criminal cases will be tried at this term of court. It is understood that several parties against whom indictments were returned by the October grand jury will demand an immediate trial. Three other cases are for trial at the present term: Barr vs. Barr, State of Iowa vs. Glen Danford; and State of Iowa vs. Arthur Mangold.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION.
