Saturday evening. Various amusements were indulged in after which an oyster supper was served at the conclusion of which all departed for respective homes very much pleased with the happy gathering. School will close Friday, December 23, for the holiday vacation and will convene again Monday, January 2. The ladies of the M. E. church held their annual bazaar last Thursday and an excellent display of fancy articles were displayed off during the day and evening and later a play. The production being entitled "Old Sweethearts" was rendered by a number of young ladies and gentlemen. The bazaar was a decided success both socially and financially. Too Pleasant to Be Proper. Reading in bed has long been condemned as a harmful indulgence. Now comes the London Lancet and says that it is no more harmful to read in bed than anywhere else if you have the light placed right and do not hold the book too close to your eyes. But reading in bed is such a pleasant thing that it really does not seem as if it could be right. TAKE CARE! Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." There's the Rub. "Died in poverty!" cried the philosopher, scornfully. "Died in poverty, did he, an' you expect me to sympathize? What is there in dying in poverty. I've got to live in it!"—Sporting Times. Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results, and restore the natural action of the kidneys and bladder. They correct irregularities. Where Living is Too Easy. Fat-headed men are the fruit of luxurious countries.—Herodotus. A SIMPLE SAFEGUARD FOR MOTHERS. Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continually. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes.

Marlin Whether you live in the city or country, you'll find no .22 caliber repeating rifle like the Marlin Model 1897. It's light, takes down and packs in a small space. The ammunition is inexpensive. The gun can be used with .22 shots for target, and is equally capable of handling .22 long or long-range cartridges without change of mechanism. On the large side it is a specialty. The short cartridge is sufficient for snarrows, squirrels and small game; and the long rifle cartridge makes the Marlin Model 97 a distance weapon for grouse, loons, hawks, etc. up to 200 yards. The "Marlin Book" of 128 pages, with handsome art cover, is full of up-to-date information for all gun-lovers and gives full description of all Marlin repeaters. Its price is 25c for a sample postpaid. 42 W. Water St., New Haven, Conn. The Marlin Firearms Co. Division of Salary. "What!" exclaimed Mrs. Flatfish. "You don't mean to tell me you pay a girl $10 a week for cooking?" "Oh, no," replied Mrs. Urbandale. "We only pay her $2 a week for cooking. The other $8 is for staying."—Chicago Daily News. Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at least tenain etao intaoi tooin again the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Law of the Household. Would we could the laws that should reign in households, and whose daily transgression annoys and mortifies us, and degrades our household life—we must learn to adorn every day with sacrifices. Good manners are made up of petty sacrifices. Temperance, courage, love, are made up of the same jewels. Listen to every prompting of honor.—R. W. Emerson. GET THE GENUINE ALWAYS. A substitute is a dangerous makeshift especially in medicine. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds quickly and is in a yellow package. Accept no substitutes.
