

RYAN.

From the Reporter. The residence of Phil Trainor, 3 miles south of town, caught fire at 12 o'clock Thursday night and burned to the ground. The fire started in the roof of the kitchen and had gained such headway before being discovered that the family barely escaped with their lives. The boys with the exception of the youngest, were awakened and got down stairs, but Mr. Trainor was compelled to rush through the burning flames to rescue the little fellow. The family escaped with but scant clothing and the house and nearly all the contents were consumed. Mr. Trainor's loss will exceed $2,000. He had but $500 of insurance, it being carried in the Farmers Insurance Co., of Cedar Rapids and the Capital of Des Moines. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Wm. Duffy, who is confined in Mercy hospital with typhoid fever, is reported as slightly improved. Ben Falconer has purchased a residence in Osgood and will remove from the farm in the spring. Chas. Praded shipped one car load of cattle and Mike Even two cars to Chicago Tuesday. Mike and Earl Pugh accompanied the shipment.

We understand that John DeVin recently purchased another half section of land in Osgood and expects to remove there later. Rev. John Collins of Manchester was a visitor here Monday with Father Malloy.

Chas. Peterson went to Chicago Monday evening for a few days visit with friends.

MEXICO REVOLT GROWS

UPRISING IN TUTXEPET DISTRICT BECOMING SERIOUS.

Insurrectos Have 2,000 Well-Armed and Mounted Men Ready for Advancing Federal Troops.

Oaxaca, Mex., Jan. 31.—According to reports published here the revolutionary uprising in the Tutxepet district of this state, adjacent to the Vera Cruz-Isthmus railroad is of more serious moment than was at first indicated.

Advices from the disturbed section say that the main body of insurrectos in the vicinity of the town of Tutxepet numbers more than 2,000 men, all well armed and mounted, and that they are constantly receiving recruits from the ranches and plantations of the states of Vera Cruz and Oaxaca. The federals that have been rushed to Tutxepet from Cordoba, Oaxaca and Vera Cruz during the last three days number 1,200, mostly infantry. The country where the revolutionists are operating is a tropical region and the task of routing them out of their rendezvous is a hard one.

The exhibits of agricultural products are quite extensive, and a number of prizes have been provided by the business men of Dickinson. The Dickinson experiment station also has a fine exhibit of grains and forage crop.

Numerous addresses are on the program, from which the farmers are expected to learn much of dry farming methods and results. Among the speakers are S. W. Ukenholz of Mandan, who speaks German, and Superintendent W. P. Snyder of the Hebron mining sub-station.

DOCTOR SLAIN; GIRL HELD

New York Physician Found Dying in His Drug Store—Woman Accused of Shooting Him.

New York, Jan. 31.—Dr. Daniel A. Cassella, a wealthy Genesee physician, proprietor of two drug stores and member of many social and charitable societies, was found dying on the floor of the back room of his store. There were two bullet wounds from a pistol found on the floor afterwards, straight through the center of his forehead. Madeline Bascopale, a pretty girl who was found huddled in a corner of the room when the locked door was burst open, is in the Tombs charged with having killed the physician, who died an hour later.

Dr. Cassella was to have been married this evening to Miss Catherine Hagelstein, daughter of a well-known Fifth avenue photographer.

FEAR PANAMA CANAL OPENING

Citizens of Southernmost City in the World See Danger of Losing Trade.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Anxiety is being felt at Punta Arenas, Chile, the southernmost city in the world, over the possible effects of the opening of the Panama canal on traffic through the Straits of Magellan, according to United States Commercial Agent John M. Turner, who has been touring Chile and Peru.

All vessels passing between the east and west have been accustomed to stop at Punta Arenas to coal. The town, which has a population of 12,000, paved streets, large stores and many public improvements, has thrived particularly as a result of the ocean traffic which may be diverted to canal.

YOUNG MEN

HOLD THE KEYS

ONLY THREE NOW IN RACE

Miller's Bill to Aid the Newspapers.—Legislative Mixup on Site for Panama Exposition—Iowa City Opposed to Five Mile Limit Law—Big Sums Asked by Board of Control.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 31.—The senatorial deadlock still holds on and there are but few signs of any break in the ranks of the various candidates for the Dulliver vacancy. As in the beginning Senator Lafayette Young holds the point of vantage in the contest, for though he cannot compel enough votes to insure his election by the legislature, he can prevent the choice of any other candidate by that body, and it is possible that in the long run he can force a special primary election.

From the first this has been the real hope of Senator Young. Going into the contest before the legislature with that 40 or 50 per cent. majority, he has been able, in the first place, to prevent a caucus of the republicans on the senatorial succession, and in the second place, to absolutely deadlock the joint conventions of the two houses which are meeting daily in accordance with the provisions of the United States statutes in efforts to effect an election.

Young Men "Stand-Pat." Senator Young is in daily conference with his loyal band of "stand-patters" and the declaration comes from their ranks today that they are more determined than ever to stand by their guns and force the adoption of the Harding special primary election bill. As stated in these letters previous to the taking of the first ballot on the senatorship, the final outcome of the contest is pretty sure to be, either a special primary, or an adjournment some time early in April without the choosing of a senator. This latter course would leave Iowa represented in the upper house of the national congress by Senator Cummings only.

The daily convocation of the members in the house chamber, and the daily responses to the tedious call of the roll, have become so monotonous and devoid of interest that very few visitors are seen occupying the galleries. The narrowing of the contest among the republicans to practically three candidates, Young, Kenyon and Funk caused a revival of interest for a day or two, but now it appears that the forces of each of these men have enlisted for three months, or "during the war." Each man has his following well in hand, and though there are changes daily from one to the other of a vote or two, there is no evidence anywhere of a general break up. It is declared by supporters of Senator Young that if a break up does come it will not be from the ranks of his men, and further, it is stated that a combination of all the votes of the opposition, which now appears extremely doubtful, could not effect an election. The average daily disposition of the 104 republican votes in the house chamber has been Young 34, Kenyon 34 and Funk 35. The votes which had been cast each day for a week for Byers and Franke were given free reins by these candidates, and have been divided in making up of the Funk and Kenyon strength. The cast vote of eight members has gone the other way for several days Garst has received the vote of Senator Cady Chase of Webster City only.

Majority of Quorum Can Elect. The general impression that it will be necessary for candidate for senator to receive 80 votes, a majority of one more than half the membership of the entire legislature, to be chosen senator, was dispelled in a statement issued by Lieutenant Governor Clarke, in which he quoted the federal statute to show that if a majority in either of the two chambers is in favor of any one candidate would elect him. A quorum of the Iowa legislature would be 80 votes and if such a contingency should arise only this number of members attended a joint convention can be seen that 41 votes might choose a United States senator. However, with the managers of the various candidates keeping close tab on their supporters as they have been doing up to the present time there is no chance that an election can be had from such a fractional portion of the body.

Would Help the Newspapers. Though Representative Chas. W. Miller of Bremer county has just sold his newspaper, the Waverly Democrat and retreat from the printing business, he has not lost interest in the welfare of the members of the profession. This was evidenced today by the introduction by Mr. Miller of a bill which will compel the city clerks of Iowa cities to publish in the local papers as official matter a summary of the proceedings of the city councils, together with a schedule of all claims allowed against the city. Mr. Miller expects to introduce a bill to compel the publication of the proceedings of meetings of school boards. He declares the public is entitled to much more information in regard to the transactions of city councils and school boards than they can secure under the present laws.

Divided on Exposition Site. The legislature is in a middle over the canal exposition houses at the site of the Panama exposition to be held in 1915. Very early in the session a concurrent resolution addressed to congress was introduced and adopted in the house declaring it to be the sentiment of Iowa that congress should choose New Orleans as the exposition city. This resolution was messaged over to the senate, but before the railroad committee of that body to which it was referred had acted upon it the railroad friends of San Francisco, the other aspirant for the canal exposition honors, rushed to the state house and presented their claims of the coast city so strongly, that finally the senate amended the house resolution by substituting San Francisco for New Orleans in the body of the resolution and sent it back to the house. Not to be outdone in neighborly courtesy the house called the resolution up and readopted it after amending the body of the amendment by striking out the words

San Francisco and inserting in their place the words New Orleans. Then back to the senate went the much amended resolution. The senate secretary has it nicely packed away now with a number of other matters awaiting attention. It is possible it will not be recalled for consideration by that body, as congress has already declared through its subcommittee in favor of New Orleans.

Against Five Mile Limit Law. The business men of Iowa City and others interested in maintaining the present status of the liquor question at that place, the same being of the "wet" variety, have been busy for several days past in endeavoring to convince the legislators that the Van Law five mile limit bill would be unfair and unjust. The five mile limit bill is an act which forbids the sale of intoxicating liquors within a limit of five miles from any of the educational institutions controlled by the state. The proposed law is general in its application, but in reality it would only affect Iowa City in practice. It is claimed fully 90 per cent of the business men of the university city have signed a remonstrance against the adoption of the law. They declare its enactment would bring about a state of disorder, the same as under prohibition times that would be impossible to control, and would be much worse than present conditions. Editor Brandt of the Daily Republican at Iowa City is one of the opponents of the law who has been active with the legislators. Efforts have been made to secure such a law in previous legislatures but without success. Saloons do not exist at either Ames or Cedar Falls where the other state schools are located.

Control Board Wants Big Sum. Asking for an appropriation totaling $1,033,000, Senator Mattes, chairman of the senate appropriation committee, has presented his first bill to that body. This vast sum is for the various state institutions under direction of the state board of control. The amounts for institution asked for are as follows: Iowa Soldiers' Home, Marshalltown $16,000 Iowa Soldiers' Orphans Home, Davenport 44,900 College for the Blind, Vinton 13,900 School for the Deaf, Council Bluffs 32,700 Boys' Reformatory, Eldora 64,400 Girls' Reformatory, Mitchell 11,000 State Hospital, Mt. Pleasant 406,250 Asylum for Insane, Clarinda 88,500 State Hospital, Independence 175,500 State Hospital, Cherokee 117,700 Inebriate Asylum, Knoxville 8,000 Penitentiary, Ft. Madison 77,400 Reformatory, Anamosa 39,100 Land 50,000

Abandon Homes In Terror. All the towns within a radius of fully 20 miles have suffered damage from the rain of mud and stones, which still continues. The native population in all directions are abandoning their villages and heading to the hills in terror. The activity of the volcano follows a period of many years' quiet. The eruptions were accompanied by three heavy earthquakes and followed by 90 lesser shocks. Frequent explosions are heard and huge smoke columns rising above the crater are visible from this city.

Muddy Rain Falls Steadily. The sky was cloudless and there was no wind, but the muddy rain fell steadily. Mount Taal rises 1,050 feet in the center of Lake Taal, a body of water not more than 15 miles in circumference. It is 34 miles from this city. The observatory authorities believe that Manila is in no danger, but there is some alarm among the natives, who recall the destruction caused by Mount Mayon, the other volcano of Luzon, in 1877. So far, however, Mayon has shown no threatening disturbance.

Investigations of the bureau of science report that with the first violent eruption of Taal on Saturday the volcanic island appeared to sink five feet and the waters of the lake, rising, swept the shores a mile inland, carrying away the bamboo abacaka and catching a score of natives. Others living in the vicinity had taken warning and fled at the first rumblings of the volcano. The towns of Taal, Lomery and Palsay seem to have suffered most. Crater is an Old Offender. Mount Taal is the second volcano in importance in Luzon and has been the scene of eight violent disturbances preceding the present one since 1709. It has been more or less active from time immemorial. Its most destructive eruptions occurred in 1754 and continued for six months, causing much loss of life and enormous destruction of property. There were less serious outbreaks in 1808 and 1873.

AGED MAN BOUND TO DIE Slashes Wrists and Throat With Razor, Then Plunges Into Bath-tub and Drowns Himself. New York, Jan. 31.—Adam Miller, sixty-two years old, of Union Hill, N. J., committed suicide in an unusual manner. He slashed his wrists and throat with a razor, besides inflicting seven other wounds in vital parts of his body, and then dropped into a bathtub full of water. He was drowned when found by his thirteen-year-old granddaughter. Shortly thereafter George W. Steffen, thirty-five years old, of Weehawken, an old friend of Miller's, upon hearing of the latter's death, went up to his apartments, attached one end of a gas tube to his mouth, and ended his own life.

WAVE KILLS 300 IN PHILIPPINES Tidal Disturbance Follows Eruption of Volcano Taal. CAUSES PANIC IN LUZON Five Villages Are Destroyed—Many People Are Burned by Molten Masses.

Manila, Jan. 31.—An American school teacher who has traversed the west shore of Lake Taal telegraphs that five villages have been destroyed by a tidal wave and that not less than 300 persons have been killed in that vicinity. Many were burned in fires started by molten masses. The disaster is due to an eruption of the volcano Taal, in Batangas province.

THREE DIE IN FLOODS WOMAN AND CHILDREN DROWN IN RAPIDLY RISING WATERS. Entire Ohio River Valley is Menaced by Heavy Rains—Damage Will Be Heavy.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 31.—The entire Ohio Valley is threatened by a flood of unusual height. Already a number of persons have been drowned and heavy damage caused, and the situation is considered exceedingly grave by river experts. Three persons were drowned in Dirty creek, near Centerville, O. Mrs. John D. Rose, her son and granddaughter, Mary Gilliland, were on their way to the funeral of a relative when they were caught in the high water and all drowned. The bodies of Mrs. Rose and her granddaughter were recovered, but that of the son is still missing. All the creeks and rivers in that section are on a rampage as a result of the heavy rains of the last thirty-six hours. Heavy rains for forty-eight hours and the generally high temperatures of the last week have caused the more important tributaries of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers to put out much more water than was anticipated. In this city and vicinity every possible precaution is being taken to prevent damage, sewer gates being closed and pumps of high power being installed in large buildings to keep basements free when the flood is at its height.
