

CITY COUNCIL

MET MONDAY

FAVORABLE ACTION TAKEN ON PETITION FOR IMPROVEMENT.

HUTCHINSON ASKS FRANCHISE

Council Grants J. E. Hutchinson's Request that the Proposition be Submitted to Vote of People.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held on Monday evening, with aldermen Cleveland Hyde, Graham and Cruso present.

The first matter to come before the council was the petition of J. E. Hutchinson asking that the question of granting him an electric light franchise be submitted to a vote of the people of Manchester at the city election to be held on March 27, 1911.

A petition was presented signed by property owners on Prospect street asking for an extension of the sewer on Prospect street east to New street.

Another petition was presented to the council signed by property owners on Union street asking that extensive improvements on that street be authorized.

The following is a list of new books which may be obtained at the library: Wright—Uncrowned King.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Christopher H. Achen and wife to Peter J. Achen. Land in sec 11, twp. 37, r. 3. Consideration, $1200.

LIABLE FOR THE COSTS.

Local hunters will be interested in what are the consequences if one who possesses a resident hunter's license, goes hunting without it.

FARMERS ATTENTION.

The Hockaday Lumber Co. announces in its ad this week that it can now save you a clean $100 on a silo.

COLONIAL DINNER AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. Church will serve a "colonial dinner" February 24, 1911 at 5:30 p. m.

COUNTY AUDITOR'S FINANCIAL REPORT.

County Auditor W. J. Davis has just finished the publication of the ninth annual financial report for the year 1910. The report includes a summary of all receipts and disbursements of the various funds of the county.

ORIENT AND ONWARD CHAPTERS UNITE.

On last Tuesday evening the Orient and Onward Chapters, O. E. S., were united under the name of Orient Chapter.

LECT-BEGINS NEXT WEEK.

The Lenten season begins next week March 1 with Ash Wednesday. Lent extends through the forty days between Ash Wednesday and Easter Sunday.

WOODMEN CHOOSE DELEGATES.

On Tuesday evening of last week Olive Camp, No. 89, Modern Woodmen of America, selected the following delegates and alternates for the county convention which is to be held on April 5, at which time delegates will be chosen to the state camp at Des Moines in May.

FORESTVILLE DAM OUT.

The high water of last week took out the dam at Forestville and put the mill out of business temporarily.

WILL AMSDEN IMPROVED.

His many friends are pleased to learn that Will Amsden is recovering nicely from a very severe attack of illness, which he experienced last week. We hope to see him about again in a few days.

NEXT NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE.

The next number of our lecture course will be next Friday evening February 24, by Alton Packard, cartoonist.

C. B. HARRIS TO BUILD.

C. B. Harris was in Cedar Rapids last week consulting with an architect over the plans for a new residence which he expects to build this season. It will be erected on the property owned by Mr. Harris at the corner of New and Prospect streets.

P. D. TROWBRIDGE DIES IN CALIFORNIA.

Capt. J. F. Merry received a telegram yesterday hearing the sad news of the death of his uncle, P. D. Trowbridge which occurred at Holtville, California, Sunday, February 19, 1911.

FARMERS ATTENTION.

The Hockaday Lumber Co. announces in its ad this week that it can now save you a clean $100 on a silo.

COLONIAL DINNER AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. Church will serve a "colonial dinner" February 24, 1911 at 5:30 p. m.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS HOLD MEETING

DELEGATES FROM FOUR COUNTIES HERE MONDAY.

HIGH OFFICERS IN ATTENDANCE

Woodmen Choose Delegates to County Convention. C. B. Harris To Build.

WOODMEN CHOOSE DELEGATES.

On Tuesday evening of last week Olive Camp, No. 89, Modern Woodmen of America, selected the following delegates and alternates for the county convention which is to be held on April 5, at which time delegates will be chosen to the state camp at Des Moines in May.

FORESTVILLE DAM OUT.

The high water of last week took out the dam at Forestville and put the mill out of business temporarily.

WILL AMSDEN IMPROVED.

His many friends are pleased to learn that Will Amsden is recovering nicely from a very severe attack of illness, which he experienced last week. We hope to see him about again in a few days.

NEXT NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE.

The next number of our lecture course will be next Friday evening February 24, by Alton Packard, cartoonist.

C. B. HARRIS TO BUILD.

C. B. Harris was in Cedar Rapids last week consulting with an architect over the plans for a new residence which he expects to build this season. It will be erected on the property owned by Mr. Harris at the corner of New and Prospect streets.

P. D. TROWBRIDGE DIES IN CALIFORNIA.

Capt. J. F. Merry received a telegram yesterday hearing the sad news of the death of his uncle, P. D. Trowbridge which occurred at Holtville, California, Sunday, February 19, 1911.

FARMERS ATTENTION.

The Hockaday Lumber Co. announces in its ad this week that it can now save you a clean $100 on a silo.

COLONIAL DINNER AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. Church will serve a "colonial dinner" February 24, 1911 at 5:30 p. m.

CHARLES HUSTED.

Mr. Charles Husted, aged 77 years and 4 months, died Thursday evening, February 16, at 8:30 at his home in Greeley after a long and painful illness with rheumatism.

TUCKER-BELKNAP.

Announcements have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Jane Ingram Tucker to Frank L. Belknap, formerly of this city.

GROMMONS-GATES.

On last Friday evening Miss Blanche Grommon and Mr. L. J. Gates were united in marriage at the Presbyterian manse by Rev. W. H. Ensign.

FORESTVILLE DAM OUT.

The high water of last week took out the dam at Forestville and put the mill out of business temporarily.

WILL AMSDEN IMPROVED.

His many friends are pleased to learn that Will Amsden is recovering nicely from a very severe attack of illness, which he experienced last week. We hope to see him about again in a few days.

NEXT NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE.

The next number of our lecture course will be next Friday evening February 24, by Alton Packard, cartoonist.

C. B. HARRIS TO BUILD.

C. B. Harris was in Cedar Rapids last week consulting with an architect over the plans for a new residence which he expects to build this season. It will be erected on the property owned by Mr. Harris at the corner of New and Prospect streets.

P. D. TROWBRIDGE DIES IN CALIFORNIA.

Capt. J. F. Merry received a telegram yesterday hearing the sad news of the death of his uncle, P. D. Trowbridge which occurred at Holtville, California, Sunday, February 19, 1911.

FARMERS ATTENTION.

The Hockaday Lumber Co. announces in its ad this week that it can now save you a clean $100 on a silo.

COLONIAL DINNER AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. Church will serve a "colonial dinner" February 24, 1911 at 5:30 p. m.

THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

WHAT MANCHESTER PEOPLE ARE DOING AT HOME AND ABROAD.

REVIEW AND FORECAST OF EVENTS

Items of a Personal and General Nature Picked Up About Town.

Special meeting of Manchester lodge, No. 165, A. F. & A. M., Thursday evening, February 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Matthews of Monticello were over Sunday visitors with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Lou Vond of Cedar Rapids visited here the latter part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Barna.

W. A. Collinge, of Boylston, Washington, visited in this city last week at the home of his father, Dr. A. J. Collinge.

E. A. Atwater arrived home Thursday from Deer Lodge, Montana, after a several weeks visit with friends in that city.

Miss Opal Camery, stenographer at the Dairy City creamery, was an over Sunday visitor with her parents at Oxford Junction.

The Dundee Savings Bank published a very creditable statement of the condition of that institution in another column of this issue.

Miss Arnette Works expects to leave in the near future for Walnut, Illinois to become a trimmer in one of the dry goods houses in that city.

Thirty-five couples attended the Woodman dance held at the Central Opera house Friday evening. All those present enjoyed the usual good time.

Miss Zoa Ericson, who is attending college at Iowa City, visited with friends in this city last week, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bronson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Maley of Dubuque are expected here tomorrow, for a few days visit at the home of the former's parents, Mrs. and Mrs. J. J. Maley.

Mrs. Edward Brown of Fallsdale, Colorado, is visiting with relatives in this city, a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Josie Cowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eller of Ames, Iowa, are visiting with relatives and friends in this city, guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eller.

Earl Davis, who has been spending the past three months at Wray, Colorado, for the benefit of his health, arrived in this city Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gildner were over Cedar Rapids visitors last week while in the Parker City. Mr. Gildner attended the seventh annual convention of the Iowa Retail Clothiers association.

D. Gilliland, who has been a barber at the Clarence House barber shop for the past year, has recently gone to Edgewood, where he formerly resided, and opened up a shop at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Squires, formerly residents of Delaware county and who have been living at Williamsburg, Virginia, for the last few years, are guests at the home of Jacob Pettion.

Burton Clark is planning extensive improvements on his residence property on Franklin street this season. He will vacate the house for several months while it is being entirely remodeled.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Severston and family left for Cedar Rapids Monday where they will make their future home. Mr. Severston will open a merchant tailoring establishment in the Parker City in the near future.

The ladies of the Congregational church will serve their annual Washington birthday supper Wednesday evening beginning at 5:30 p. m. in the church parlors. In connection with the supper there will be an apron sale. All are cordially invited.

Local duck hunters are killing up their firearms, as they say it will not be long before the ducks will be flying. Several persons living along the river claim to have seen several flocks of the birds during the past few days.

Miss Alma Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan of Masonville and Mr. George Havens, son of the late George Haven, were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal church in Masonville Thursday afternoon in Masonville by Rev. D. C. Perry.

The "home talent" entertainment given for the benefit of the Carnegie Library last Wednesday at the city opera house was enjoyed by a large audience. W. W. White, in a delightful talk, and in several novel whistling numbers, was generously entertained. The Masonic Male quartet—H. L. Rann, A. D. Brown, E. B. Stiles and T. N. Arnold—gave a number of much appreciated selections, and a review by Miss Palmer, of the High school faculty, contributed to the success of the delightful program.

Prof. J. R. Inman was an Oelwein visitor Friday.

Alton Dunham was a Lamont visitor Saturday.

Visit the Lyric Theatre and see some first class films.

F. D. Joseph was a business visitor in Hopkinton Tuesday.

A. D. Long left Sunday afternoon for Minneapolis on a business trip.

Chas. Curry of Independence visited with friends in this city Friday.

Frank Keiser was an over Sunday visitor with friends at Cedar Rapids.

Miss Mattie Becker departed for her home at Lamont Sunday for a few days visit.

Attorney A. M. Cloud and Sherm Harris were business visitors at Monticello Wednesday.

Read what the Snodgrass Clothing company has to say in their advertisement this week.

Miss Gladys, and daughter, Miss Gladys, visited with friends at Cedar Rapids Saturday.

I. M. Gibson, national lecturer for the American Nobles, was a business visitor in the city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams were over Sunday visitors at the home of the latter's parents.

The post office and banks will be closed tomorrow (Wednesday) in observance of Washington's birthday.

Visitor Kachelhoffer of Ackley visited in this city Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Snodgrass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Merry have returned from an extended trip through the south, including a visit to the resort cities of Florida.

Adrian Nugent of Cedar Rapids visited with friends and relatives in this city the latter part of last week a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilson.

W. N. Snodgrass was in Cedar Rapids the latter part of last week and while there attended the seventh annual convention of the Iowa Retail Clothiers association.

Word was received here Friday of the death of Enoch Allen, which occurred at the Soldiers Home at Leavenworth, Kansas. Mrs. Enoch Allen of this city departed for that place Saturday to attend the funeral.

County Clerk Graham issued the following marriage licenses during the past week: L. J. Gates and Miss Blanche L. Grommon; L. Keenan and Anna Hogan; Cortland Appleby and Miss Alice Green; Henry C. Martin and Miss Ella March.

The Home Missionary societies of the churches of Manchester will hold their annual union meeting on Thursday, February 23, at the Presbyterian church, at the hour of two o'clock p. m. An interesting program has been arranged for this meeting, to which all are invited.

Attend the annual bazaar which will be held at the Central Opera House on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. On tomorrow evening the romantic play, "The Weeping Willows" will be given. Thursday night will be the "big night." Carpenters orchestra will furnish the music. Friday evening the music will be furnished by the same orchestra.

A surprise kitchen shower was tendered Miss Bernadette Kearney Monday evening, complimentary to her approaching marriage to Mr. Joe Paul. Those present were Misses Minnie Halsey, Bessie Thorpe, Jessie Maley, Donna Kelsey, Josephine Thorpe, Lucille Schaffer, Rita Sharlock, Agnes Kearney, Margaret Kearney, Ethel Logan, Mary Welch, Oona Barnd, Loreto Killense, Abbey Howard, Nele and Rose Sullivan.

Judge Ransier has prepared certain rules of procedure for the guidance of those engaged in the trial of the Waterloo saloon case. The saloon men were beaten by the board of supervisors of Black Hawk county and the case is before Judge Ransier on appeal from the decision of the board. The Judge has appointed F. B. Blair of this city to prepare schedules of the contested names and report the number that come within the rules fixed by the court.

CELEBRATED PIANIST COMING.

The Carnegie Library association of this city has arranged for a piano recital at the city opera house on Friday evening, March 3, to be given by Giuseppe Fabbrini, one of the noted Italian pianists. He has recently come to this country from Italy and is staying with friends in Dubuque for the purpose of learning the English language. He has very generously offered to give his services gratuitously for a recital at Manchester for the benefit of the Carnegie library. The association is very fortunate in being able to secure the services of this finished artist and lovers of music will not fail to hear him upon his appearance in Manchester. Referring to his public appearance in Dubuque the Globe-Journal of last Sunday says: Giuseppe Fabbrini, the Italian pianist who has had Dubuque music lovers under the spell of his art since his arrival here, a few weeks ago, will give a recital at St. Joseph's college auditorium on Monday evening, February 27. In his first public appearance here a short time ago Fabbrini was practically unknown to Dubuquers, but after the performance his fame soon went the length of the city so enthusiastic were the people who had heard him play. It is expected that a great many will attend on the night of his appearance at the college.

ADVANCE SALE

OF Rugs and Carpets

The new spring patterns in rugs and carpets are arriving daily, and we can show you a larger and more complete line than ever before. We want you to come in and look these over. We can fit a room of any size and will guarantee absolute satisfaction.

BROWN, The Furniture Man

Sells Cedarine Furniture Polish.

Bread is the Staff of Life.

Good Bread Makes Home Happy. We receive Daily a basket of PIPER'S HOME-LIKE BREAD and we know that if you will give it a trial you will be a daily customer for it. Remember it is a fresh basket every day at 4:30 P. M.

A. E. PETERSON.

The Grocer.

Announcement

To Our Customers Who Use BOLTS

While getting our stock in shape for the early spring trade we have added a full line of square headed machine bolts. 100 different lengths and sizes. Remember this when getting ready for spring work.

Hutchinson & Atwater

Gota Cough, Cold or Headache

If so, get a bottle of Our Own White Pine with Tar 25c A box of Excelsior Colic Tablets 25c Or a box of A. & P. Headache Tablets, 10c and 25c

THEY ARE GREAT REMEDIES AND WILL GIVE SATISFACTION

Anders & Philipp

Central Pharmacy