RESCUED FROM THE RIVER. Numa Jacquet, who lives near the county line in Hazel Green township, was rescued from the river Tuesday morning at the county line bridge.

Attempting to cross during the high water his team was drowned and the driver swept away with the wagon. He was fortunate in being able to grasp an overhanging limb from a tree as he was swept under it, and his shouts for aid brought neighbors to his rescue. Mr. Jacquet had started for Hopkinton to market three calves which he had tied in the wagon. He was fortunate in being able to reach town because of the water and ice over the flat, he changed his course with the idea of crossing at the county bridge line. The road comes on to the bridge from the west almost at an even grade, but on the east side the road drops several feet as it crosses the flat. When the river rises the water flows about the east end of the bridge with a strong current. Mr. Jacquet drove into the stream without realizing the depth or force of the water, and the wagon box floated away from the gears. He clung to the floating box until he was able to reach the tree and temporary safety. The team and wagon were submerged by the rushing waters and the horses drowned, the calves meeting the same fate. Mr. Jacquet's cries for assistance fortunately brought assistance from neighbors who live near the bridge, a rope was thrown out to him and he was brought safely to shore. It was a close call for him, and he is mighty thankful that he did not share a watery grave with the team and calves.—Hopkinton Leader.

THE DEMOCRATS OF IOWA.—Your state committee has opened permanent headquarters in the city of Des Moines. The object is to effect a perfect organization of the party in every county, township, town and precinct in the state and thus be prepared, when the presidential campaign opens in 1912, to carry on a campaign which will place Iowa in the democratic column.

Our greatest difficulty in the past has been our inability to keep the organization active and alert from one campaign to the next. Good working organizations have been built up for particular campaigns but after these campaigns, the organizations have entirely lapsed and fallen to a low state and the next campaign, about one half the period which should have been devoted to active campaign work has been required to rebuild the organization.

It is our purpose not only to remedy this matter, but to make the party organization a living, breathing, militant force, entirely worthy of the confidence which the voters of the state and nation have signified their intention to place in the democratic party at the next presidential election.

In order to accomplish this we must have the aid of every good democrat in the state; the work cannot be accomplished without great expense and patriotic sacrifice; and every one should bear his portion of the burden with the same eagerness and in the same measure that he would enjoy the approaching victory.

To these ends we call upon every democrat to aid us; send in your own subscription, and if you can do so, take up a subscription among your democratic neighbors and send to the undersigned at 401-2-5 Clapp Block, where a complete record of all aid received will be kept.

Democracy—Effectively Organized—Will Carry Iowa in 1912. Will You Help?

Very respectfully, N. F. Reed, Chairman, Democratic State Central Com.

YOUNG MAN KILLED BY TRAIN ON GREAT WESTERN NEAR ALMORAL.

Falling from a Great Western passenger train about five miles north of west of Dyersville, William Cahill, was ground to death under the wheels of the train Wednesday afternoon. Cahill was a resident of Dubuque, his home being at 1699 Maple street. He was 27 years of age.

Together with another young man named John Dentinger, also of Dubuque, Cahill was riding the "blind" passenger train No. 1, west bound due here at 12:32 a. m. on their way to Oelwein, where it is said they intended to join a bridge gang. When near Almaral Dentinger discovered that his companion was missing and getting off the train at Almaral, started to walk back in an effort to find Cahill.

Signal Men Find Body. In the meantime, the local crew of maintainers of the automatic block signal system, who had followed the train out, on a trip over the main line, came upon the mangled remains of the unfortunate man. Coroner Bowman of Manchester was notified and the remains were brought to Dyersville to the Millard & Lippert undertaking rooms. Cahill's body was badly cut up. One leg, was almost severed, as was also one arm. One ankle was crushed and he was also injured about the head and shoulders. It is thought that death was instantaneous.

Fell While Asleep. From what can be learned of the accident and according to the story told by his partner, it is supposed the Young Cahill had fallen asleep and by a sudden sway of the train fell beneath the wheels. Word has been sent to Dubuque by his relatives this afternoon. Dentinger the pal of the victim, remains within a half block of Cahill's home in Dubuque. He is greatly depressed and overcome as a result of the tragic death of his companion. It is said that Wednesday afternoon prior to his departure Cahill had been a palebearer at the funeral of a friend.

The young man is known to some Dyersville people, having been a member of the Hawke ball team and participated in games here in years past.—Dyersville Commercial.

OBITUARY. Herbert B. Cox was born at Scales Mound, Illinois, September 22, 1873. The family moved from there to Manchester in the early 80's and after a residence there of over twenty years came to Earlville, which had been the home of the deceased for about ten years. He had been in poor health for years, and on November 3, 1910, went to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the baths and other treatments. Thence he went to Oklahoma, where he worked awhile at his trade as printer, until rapidly failing health compelled him to return home. In his weakened state the trip was made with the greatest difficulty, but by the aid of fellow travelers it was accomplished and he reached home Jan. 29, 1911. Altho suffering a great deal during the past few weeks he seemed hopeful that he would soon improve in health, but said he was resigned and ready to go if it were God's and thus he passed away without a struggle Saturday morning, Feb. 11, 1911, at the age of 37 years, 5 months and 9 days.

He is survived by his widowed mother, Mrs. Anna G. Cox, three sisters, Mrs. Emma E. Cooper, Clinton; Mrs. Jennie G. Johnson, Estherville; and Mrs. Minnie W. Van Ande, Earlville; and four brothers, Walter W., of George; Edgar M., of Omaha, Neb.; Charles W., Mitchell, S. D., and Harvey W., of Estherville. All were present at the funeral except Edgar and Charles.

The funeral was held at the home, in charge of Rev. R. M. Wyant, of the M. E. church. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.—Earlville Phoenix.

SPEDDY RELIEF FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE.

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy."—Anders & Phillips.

Origin of "Yonkers." Patron Van de Donck, in the years after 1642, lived such a serene and robust life on his Hudson river estate that the Dutch villagers called his manor farm, "De jonkheer's land"—the gentleman's land; later compressed by the frugal English into "Yonkers."

Foley Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy for backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities. They are tonic in action, quick in results and afford a prompt relief from all kidney disorders.—Anders & Phillips.

Division of Salary. "What!" exclaimed Mrs. Flatheigh. "You don't mean to tell me you pay a girl $10 a week for cooking?" "Oh, no," replied Mrs. Urbandale. "We only pay her $2 a week for cooking. The other $8 is for staying."—Chicago Daily News.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD. But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says, "It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." No opiates, just a reliable household medicine.—Anders & Phillips.

London Barges Disappearing. The picturesque red-stained London barge, formerly so plentiful on the river reaches is slowly vanishing. The coasting trade in and out of the Thames has been so bad lately that barges have had to look elsewhere for a living.

REMEMBER THE NAME. Foley's Honey and Tar for all coughs and colds, for croup, bronchitis, hoarseness and for racking in gripe coughs. No opiates. Refuse substitutes.—Anders & Phillips.

Or a Strong Face. Even when a man knows he isn't handsome, he thinks he has a rather intellectual look.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

LAGRIPPE COUGHS. Strain and weaken the system and if not checked may develop into pneumonia. No danger of this when Foley's Honey and Tar is taken promptly. It is a reliable family medicine for all coughs and colds, and acts quickly and effectively in cases of croup. Refuse substitutes.—Anders & Phillips.

Where Living is Too Easy. Faint-hearted men are the fruit of luxurious countries.—Herodotus.

BACKACHE, RHEUMATISM, SLEEPLESSNESS. Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., says, "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had severe backaches and felt all played out. After taking two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills my backache is gone and where I used to lie awake with rheumatic pains I now sleep in comfort. Foley Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me." Try them now.—Anders & Phillips.
