

MISS MABEL SIBERT

Announces her formal opening of
SPRING MILLINERY
For Saturday Afternoon and Evening
April First

Special invitation extended for you to call.

No. 109—Franklin St.

Manchester.

THE LOCAL NEWS OF DELAWARE COUNTY

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS

HOPKINTON.

Miss Ross spent Monday and Tuesday in Manchester.
Mrs. Zollar returned Monday from an over Sunday visit in Monticello.
Mrs. Margaret Strane Laxon and little daughter, from Idaho, are at the home of R. E. Strane.
Mrs. Almada Reed has been quite sick the past week.
Mrs. C. S. Morton and son, Milan, have been visiting in Manila for a few days.
Mrs. Dell Platt Peterman and little daughter of Garvin, are visiting Mr. Platt and Mrs. Mollie Williamson.
Mrs. S. P. Carter was an over Sunday visitor at the home of her parents in Dubuque.
J. D. Morgan left Tuesday evening for a visit in Cedar Rapids, Nebraska.
The club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Parkhill on Tuesday of this week.
Mrs. Wheelock returned Monday morning from a two weeks visit with her sister in Dubuque.
The residence of C. H. Ricketts is being improved by the addition of a large porch in front.
Mrs. Thomas Tesar is quite sick. Her daughter, Mrs. Wragg, is here from Dubuque to assist in caring for her.
Charlie Wilson of Manchester was an over Sunday visitor in town.
Rev. C. M. Robb left Monday evening for Keokuk, Ill., where he will join a company of friends for a few days of duck hunting.
C. A. Peterson, manager of the Delaware County Telephone Co. was down from Manchester Wednesday.
The Iowa Implement Co., has a new bookkeeper, C. E. Greever, from Clermont, Iowa.
Miss Pearl Hegeter of Randolph, Nebraska, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. F. Stoddard.
J. W. Dornese of the Monticello express was a business caller Friday.
Mr. Henry Oehler of Dyersville visited his son last week.
Mrs. F. D. Joseph and children visited at the Joseph home in Hopkinton on their way from Manchester to their new home in Des Moines.
Miss Helen Cramer has returned from a visit at Rhodes, with his aunt, Mrs. Beady.
Miss Minnie Zech was an over Sunday visitor with her sister in Anamosa.
The collection taken in the Presbyterian Sabbath School for the famine sufferers in China amounted to about twelve dollars.
The friends of Miss Gates heard with regret of her death, which occurred Monday evening in Chicago, where she had gone for treatment. She was laid to rest at her former home in Oelwein. Mr. Gates, her father, Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Wilfong left here on Wednesday to attend the funeral.
Rudolph Gienappe and his sister, Minnie, left Wednesday for Crosby, N. D., to spend the summer on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borack.
The ladies of the Methodist church are preparing to serve an Easter dinner on Saturday before Easter Sunday. A troupe of colored singers will give an entertainment the same evening.
Howard Kirkwood is clerking in the Star grocery.
Mrs. Jaynes of Charles City was here last week trying to organize a lodge of Royal Neighbors.
The "lost special" which came through here Monday evening was visited by a large number of people. A lecture on the raising of cats was given in the first car to the men. The children were invited into the second car to learn what an important food cat meal was and were shown how it was prepared. In the third car the ladies listened to a lecture on domestic science and many helpful ideas were given. The senior class of the high school held a basket social in the opera house Saturday evening. The proceeds are to be used to defray graduating expenses.

B. M. Ferguson, who has been assistant in R. A. Wallace's grocery store, has bought an interest in the business and the firm will be known as Wallace and Ferguson.
W. P. Lord received word from Buffalo that Horace Tappan, who many years ago resided in Hopkinton, had suffered a stroke of apoplexy and was not expected to recover.
A company of grammar room scholars were entertained at the home of Miss Florence Hill last Thursday evening.
Mr. Strane of Minneapolis is visiting his brother, R. E. Strane and family.
A good steady rain all day on Sunday laid the dust and put the ground in fine condition but the blizzard and light snow which followed on Monday morning was not so acceptable to most people.
The aid society of the Presbyterian church meets Wednesday of this week with Mrs. Brooks.

BAILEY'S FORD.

Mrs. Thos. McCarthy and daughter, Phoebe, called at the home of Mrs. R. E. Grommon last Thursday.
Harry Conner had business in Manchester last Wednesday.
Chas. Grommon was in Delaware last Wednesday.
J. W. Hartman was in Delhi last Thursday.
Mrs. R. E. Grommon was shopping in Manchester last Friday.
Frank Sands had business in Manchester Wednesday.
Mrs. E. J. Hopkins and Mrs. J. W. Hartman were Delhi callers Monday.
We are sorry to report that S. Fisher is no better and the doctors say his recovery is very doubtful.
E. J. Hopkins has a valuable horse down with lock-jaw. A veterinarian from Monticello is treating it.
Jack and Lawrence Pulver spent last Saturday at the home of their sister, Mrs. Wm. Haasis.
Wm. Haasis had business in Delhi Tuesday of last week.

ONEIDA.

Mrs. Copeland spent Sunday with relatives at Edgewood.
Mrs. M. J. Joelyn is at Silver Creek helping care for her brother, who is very sick with rheumatism.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dunham and Mrs. and Mrs. J. B. Howe and daughter, Lailie, went to Manchester on Wednesday evening to see Laurant, the magician.
Mrs. W. I. Miller of Earlville and Mr. Harry Richardson of Dakota visited at the Geo. Cox home Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins of Stanley visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jenny, several days the past week.
Mr. J. B. Dunham was an Arlington visitor Tuesday.
Mrs. Fred Moster and Miss Grace Strickland of Almor were in town Saturday.
Mrs. Breckon went to Manchester Saturday to see her sister, Mrs. Lee, who is very sick with little hope of her recovery.
Mrs. Mjner of Lamont is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hempstead west of town.
Mr. Frank Burbridge had a new windmill put up Saturday to replace the one that blew down Tuesday.
Mr. J. U. Rector has been quite sick the past week. Dr. H. A. Dittmer of Manchester is doctoring him.
Mr. Chas. Hann of Lamont, Iowa, was in town Saturday.
Mrs. Chas. Ferris and daughter, Jeanette, left Sunday for Excelsior Springs, Missouri.
Mrs. Mertz and daughter, Illa, of Manchester, called on friends here Saturday.
Harold Dunham of Manchester was in town Saturday evening.

THORPE.

Mrs. J. Retz of Arlington spent several days at the A. O. Snows home.
H. O. Wiltsie and son, Luther, of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
Mr. and Mrs. Cornwall spent Saturday evening at the J. Chambers home.
The measuring social held at the Frank White home Friday evening was well attended.
D. D. Sarks called on his daughter Mrs. H. A. Kane of Edgewood Friday.

day.
Mrs. E. Fleier and sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

LENOX COLLEGE.

Norman Landers Jr. entertained a number of college friends Monday evening in honor of his friend, Charles Soutter of Cedar Rapids, who was a guest in the Landers home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

DELHI.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. White went to Earlville Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Carpenter.
Mrs. Henry Florence moved to Dundee Saturday, where she will make her home for the present.
Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bancroft visited relatives in Anamosa last week.
E. Penningroth visited friends in Bennett, Iowa, last week.
The Rebekah lodge initiated two new candidates last Tuesday evening and served supper.
C. H. Furman was in Waucoma Wednesday.
F. A. Doolittle transacted business in St. Paul last week.
Mrs. Jaynes of Charles City was the guest of Mrs. G. R. Angell last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gustafson of Janafala, Iowa, are parents of a son born March 20.
Miss Margaret Thompson's mother and aunt from Center Junction visited her Friday.
The school exhibit Friday was fine and was much credit to both teachers and pupils. The program was also excellent.
Saturday will be pay day for the Silver Spring Creamery company. They will pay 28 cents per pound for butterfat for February milk.
H. H. Porter and family left Wednesday for Roundup, Montana, where they will make their future home.
George Hinde went with them to assist Mr. Porter with work on the ranch.
EDGEWOOD.
Spring weather is the order of the day in this locality. Several of the farmers have begun spring work.
Miss Mayme Menge spent Saturday of last week at the home of her Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bixby were at Delhi last week to attend the Spangler dinner which was given at the County Poor farm.
Miss Helene Hesser spent Saturday and Sunday of last week with friends at Fayette.
Edwin Peet was a Tuesday visitor at Strawberry Point.
J. J. Schacherer visited his brother Edwin at Manchester Tuesday. He also attended to business matters.
Mrs. Verd Coolidge enjoyed a visit

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

with her sister, Mrs. Harding of Lamont have been spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dalsey.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Goodrich and children of Manchester spent Wednesday at the D. Sarks home.
J. Faust was a business caller in Manchester Thursday.
A dance will be given at Thorpe hall on Friday night, April 14. Supper will be furnished by the Royal Neighbors and music by Martin's orchestra. All are cordially invited to attend.

from her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacherer returned home from Dubuque Monday afternoon, where they had been to visit their father. He has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be removed to his home. Every hope is now being entertained for his speedy recovery.
News the many friends of Mr. Schacherer will be glad to learn.
Den Lucey is visiting with relatives in this community.
Miss Lou Denamore, a student of Cornell, is spending her vacation with home folks.
Chas. Robinson and little daughter were Tuesday visitors at the Point.
Wm. Schnack transacted business in Dubuque last Tuesday.
Dr. Steele returned to his home at Armour, South Dakota, last week after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this community.
Several from here attended services at the Catholic Church in Greeley last Saturday.
Ike Hammond spent from Saturday until Monday with his friend, Henry Prune of Dubuque.
Clyde True still remains in a critical condition at his home here suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has numerous friends here who hope for a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Will Davis was a Strawberry Point visitor Tuesday.

with her sister of Dubuque last week.
Rev. E. L. True of Truman, Minnesota, was called here last Tuesday by the serious illness of his brother Clyde.
Mr. and Mrs. Louie Menge were Strawberry Point callers Tuesday.
The Misses Maude Wheeler and Blanche Smith, both students of Upper Iowa university at Fayette, spent Sunday of last week with home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Steele were Saturday evening passengers to Cedar Rapids.
Messrs. Ellis and Joe Schacher