

REVIVAL MEETINGS BEGIN NEXT SUNDAY

STEVENS BROTHERS, THE CANADIAN EVANGELISTS WILL CONDUCT THEM.

BUSINESS MEN TO HOLD BANQUET

Local Booster Organization Making Plans For Big Event.

Revival meetings will be held in Manchester beginning Sunday evening, May 14th. They will probably last four or five weeks, and will be conducted by Stevens Brothers, who have recently held successful meetings at Independence and Monticello. Their campaign here, has been arranged by the ministerial association of Manchester, and the meetings will be held in a tabernacle to be erected on a site yet to be selected. These evangelists have been meeting with pronounced success of late. They have been carefully looked up by the ministerial association and their methods have been thoroughly approved. They closed a revival at Monticello last week which lasted five weeks, during which time they obtained 425 conversions. The interest of the church people there was well shown when they subscribed $1,200.00 for expenses, in a single day in voluntary offerings, and it was again exhibited in a marked degree when they gave the evangelists a free will offering of $144,000 for their work. In commenting on the liberality of the people, the Monticello Express says: "This money was given freely and ungrudgingly, and its subscribers are not among those who criticize the cost. They are not the ones who complain of 'shearing of the sheep'." The critics are largely those who neither 'put up' or attend the meeting.

H. L. Stevens is the pastor of a church at Toronto, Canada, and his brother, George, who is said to be a young man with the promise of great work in the future, has of late been a resident of Chicago. H. L. Stevens is accompanied by his wife, who has been a mission worker in New York City, and assists in the personal work among the young women as does Miss Jean Lamont, who is one of the party. Harry Storr, who resides in the state of Texas, is ministerial director, and will organize a large choir at the beginning of the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stevens are at Independence this week, where they will remain the guest of friends until the opening of the meetings here. George Stevens and Miss Lamont are conducting a short series of meetings at Quasqueton. Mr. Storr is paying a short visit to his family in Texas before the opening of the meetings in Manchester.

BOOSTER BANQUET.

At a meeting of the directors of the Dairy City Commercial Club held last Friday evening it was decided to hold a publicity or "get together" banquet, on a date yet to be fixed. Everyone who is in business here or who is interested in the expansion and development of the business interests of Manchester, will be invited to attend. One of the objects of the banquet is to get all of the business men of Manchester together for the purpose of arousing interest in the upbuilding of the city. Prominent speakers from abroad will be engaged to make addresses. Manager Grems has been in correspondence with Lucius E. Wilson, Secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce, who has expressed a willingness to come here and deliver an address before the local business men's organization. Mr. Wilson was until last year secretary of the "Greater Des Moines" committee which accomplished such flattering results for the capital city. The Detroit organization secured Mr. Wilson last year by offering him such an in-

IDENTIFY BODY FOUND NEAR GREELEY

IS THAT OF SAMUEL DEARTH, WHO ONCE LIVED NEAR EDGEWOOD.

ESCAPED FROM INSANE HOSPITAL

Survived by Family at Secor, Illinois, Where Remains Were Taken for Burial.

The town of Greeley was thrown into excitement last Wednesday, with the news that the body of an unknown man had been discovered in the John Schneider timber north of that place.

The circumstances surrounding the case are as follows:

About noon, John Lash was called on the telephone by John Schneider, who informed him that some strange cattle were in his pasture and requested Mr. Lash to see if they were his.

After dinner he started to investigate and while so doing, discovered the body of an unknown man lying in a ditch, partly covered with leaves. Mr. Lash immediately notified his neighbors, William Flemming and J. M. Milnech, who viewed the body, and notified Coroner Bowman and Sheriff Hennessy, who immediately went to Greeley. Coroner Bowman viewed the body and placed it in the hands of undertaker Taylor, who removed it to Greeley. The coroner summoned a jury composed of W. R. Crabb, V. E. Dow and W. A. Lang. Mr. Bowman and Dr. Kresensky made a thorough examination of the body for any marks of violence that might be visible, and with the exception of a highly discolored eye, there was nothing to show death resulted from anything but natural causes, and after hearing the evidence the jury found that death resulted from causes unknown.

After the coroner's inquest the authorities at Independence and Anamosa were notified, and an employee of the Independence hospital examined the body and was convinced the victim was Samuel Dearth, who was committed to the insane hospital at that place, in 1904. The body was also identified by a brother-in-law, Mr. Elliott, who lives at Edgewood. Mr. Dearth escaped from the Independence hospital at one time but was soon captured and taken back. He made his second getaway on March 22, 1911.

Mr. Dearth was formerly a resident of Edgewood, Iowa, and it is the opinion of those familiar with the case that he was on his way to his old home at Edgewood, Iowa. He is survived by his wife, who now resides at Secor, Illinois, and a son, Harry Dearth of Webster City. His son was in this city Sunday and took the remains to Secor, Illinois, Monday evening for interment.

BURTON CLARK TO RETIRE.

Burton Clark, the well known dry goods merchant of this city, announces that he will retire from business, having contracted for the disposal of his building, and the remaining portion of whatever stock he may have at the close of his sale which is now in progress. During the sale prices will be cut to a level that will not fall to move the goods. They must be sold in order that the arrangements already made may be carried out. The public is familiar with Mr. Clark's desire to retire from active business. Last winter he made arrangements with Cedar Rapids parties for the purchase of his business, and relying on the good faith of the purchasers announced his intention to retire from business. The purchasers failed to keep their contract with Mr. Clark, and he was obliged to continue in business until he had another opportunity of making an advantageous sale. He has now made definite plans for disposing of his interest in the store building as well as the stock. For further particulars of the sale, our attention is called to his advertisement in another column.
