PRETTIEST BIRD IN WORLD

Quezal of South Guatemala Takes Beauty Prize Among Feathered Creatures.
What is considered the most beautiful bird in the world is the quezal of Guatemala.

HOW DUTCH FARMERS LIVE

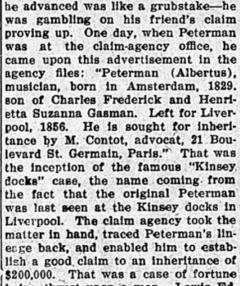

Cattle Invariably Are Housed Under the Same Roof as the Family.
The typical Dutch farmhouse is square, one-story, with a pyramid-shaped roof.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Oh! heart of mine, we shouldn't worry so!
What we've missed of calm, we couldn't have, you know!

THE ONLOOKER

Where's the "OLD TIME" BOY?
Where is the boy—the real boy—the boy that used to be?

—Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Moore have returned from a delightful trip to Ohio and places of interest in the east.
—Miss Josephine Thorpe and Bea Kearney expect to spend the latter part of this week with friends in Cedar Rapids.

—Mrs. E. A. Durey is enjoying a visit from Miss Vera Lund and Florence Ogg, of Chicago. They will remain here two weeks.
—Miss Ethel Gibson of Ryan, who has been attending summer school at Cedar Falls, spent Friday visiting friends in Manchester on route home.

—Mrs. C. H. Barrett of Vermillion, South Dakota, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sanborn, returned to her home Wednesday morning.
—Mrs. Albert Lusk and daughter, Lillian, who have been visiting Mrs. Lusk's daughter, Mrs. Lydia Haas, at St. Paul, returned home Monday morning.

—Miss Donna Kelsey, Grace Wolcott and Loretta Killen, who are attending school at Cedar Falls, spent the Fourth with relatives in Manchester.
—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drew returned Friday from their wedding trip, having visited many points of interest in the Rocky Mountain state of Colorado.

—The ladies of the W. C. T. U., Manchester union, will hold a picnic for the children of Manchester in the near future. The exact date will be published later.
—Glenn Smith and Wayne Smith autoed to Cedar Falls Sunday, and spent the day with the latter's sister, Miss Adah Smith, who is attending summer school there.

—Fred Hruby of Sidney, Nebraska, is visiting in this city with relatives, a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hruby. Mr. Hruby has the position of train dispatcher with one of the railway companies in that city.
—Unkind. "Bliggins thinks he is keeping his light under a bushel!" "Perhaps he is wise," replied Miss Cayenne; "his light is probably so small that it would go out if he let a draft get to it."

Built Up Big Business. The first jaunting car was established in Ireland in 1815 by a Milanese, Carlo Bianconi, who settled in Dublin and drove every day to Caher and back, charging two pence a mile; from this small beginning in 1837 he had established sixty-seven conveyances, drawn by nine hundred horses.

Crowded Manhattan. In one small portion of Manhattan, N. Y., is a population greater than that of Arizona, of Delaware, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont or Wyoming.

Natural Law Applied. "Seedless lemons are developed by grafting." So are the kind sometimes handed to officeholders.—Cleveland Leader.

Motors in West Africa. The policy of developing southern Nigeria by means of motor transport has resulted in the existence of several hundred miles of roads suitable for mechanical transport. Motor cars are used by several Europeans, and two native gentlemen in Lagos have recently acquired cars.

Misling the Point. Representative Tucker of Colorado, apropos of a tariff argument about sugar, said to a Washington correspondent: "Oh, well, those men don't see my point. They miss my point as badly as the old lady who her son's 'mother, a young man said, 'would you believe that it takes 5,000 elephants a year to make our piano keys and billiard balls!'"

Everybody Pretty Green. "It's no wonder that Cain turned out so badly," "How so?" "Neither his parents nor anybody else in the neighborhood had any experience in bringing up children."

Quinine in the Good Old Days. There is a whole lot of difference in the price of quinine now and 50 years ago. Then it sold for $5 and sometimes more an ounce. Now it can be bought for one-tenth of that amount. The 45 quinine was taken in syrup, baked apples, slippery elm or anything that would cover up the stuff and part disguise the taste.—Madisonville Hustler.

Realism in Babylon. "A great deal of fun has been poked at the realistic school of art," says a New York artist, "and it must be confessed that some ground has been given to the enemy. Why, there's been a picture of my notice a picture of an Assyrian bar, done by a Chicago man, and so careful was he of all the details that the towels hanging up were all marked 'Neubuchadnezzar' in the corner, in cuneiform characters."—Lippincott's Magazine.

A Definition. The dream is conversation arranged.—Lady Gregory.
