

PIONEER RESIDENT CALLED BY DEATH

WILLIAM COOK PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN COFFINS GROVE TOWNSHIP SUNDAY.

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD TODAY

Services Held From Home and Interment Made in Oakland Cemetery.

The death of William Cook, one of Delaware County's old and highly respected citizens, occurred on Sunday morning, October 20, 1912, at his home in Coffins Grove township. Mr. Cook had suffered from heart trouble for some time past and had fallen rapidly during the past year. The funeral services were held from the home today (Tuesday) at 12:30 P. M. H. S. McDonald of the Baptist church officiated. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery.

William Cook was born in Nottingham

England, March 6, 1825. The deceased spent his boyhood days in England. On September 14, 1846, he was united in marriage to Mary Ann Frow. They came to America in August, 1849, locating at St. Charles, Kane county, Illinois, where they resided until 1853, when they came to Delaware county. They settled on the homestead in Coffins Grove township, where the deceased has since lived. The death of his first wife occurred in April, 1882. On February 26, 1884, Mr. Cook was united in marriage to Emily Coking in Manchester. To this union two daughters, Mrs. Susie McDonald of Brooklyn, Iowa, and Miss Lizzie, who is at home, were born, who together with their mother survive. The deceased is also survived by one brother, Richard Cook, of this county and one sister, Mrs. Jane Simpson, also of this county.

Mr. Cook has been a resident of Delaware county for nearly sixty years and he was a man of generous impulses and never forgot the hospitable ways of the pioneer. He held the office of school director and assessor for several terms. He was affiliated with the Baptist church. His neighbors and friends held him in the highest respect, and his life and character were lofty ideals for those who are to follow in his footsteps. The bereaved relatives are extended the sympathy of their many friends.

PERKINS' EMBARRASSING POSITION.

The write-up in the Earlville Phoenix of the speeches at the recent republican meeting in Colesburg contains the following paragraph: "Perkins said that the Democrats had left him in no embarrassing position on account of their failure to nominate a candidate for the state senate and therefore he felt free to make a campaign against other candidates of the opposite party." If Mr. Perkins is making a special campaign against the democratic candidates for county office, he is making the greatest political mistake of his life. If the republican candidates for county offices insist upon Mr. Perkins making personal attacks upon their democratic opponents, because they think he can safely do so, they are injuring Mr. Perkins more than anyone else. Mr. Perkins is not unopposed in this campaign and can ill afford to antagonize the democratic vote of this district.

TUCKER-TODD.

Manchester friends received announcements this week of the marriage of Miss Hazel Tucker and Mr. Everett Todd, which was solemnized in Minneapolis, Minnesota, on the 18th instant. Both Mr. and Mrs. Todd are former residents of Manchester, and their many friends here extend congratulations.

MRS. HELEN J. WILCOX.

The death of Mrs. Helen J. Wilcox occurred at the Channey Mead home north of Manchester Sunday, October 20, 1912. Mrs. Wilcox was seventy-two years of age. The funeral services were held from the Mead home today, Rev. W. H. Ensign of the Presbyterian church officiating. Interment was made in the Mead cemetery.

MRS. G. H. SUMNER.

Mrs. Isabel Crinklaw Sumner was born February 25, 1858, in McHenry county, Illinois, and was married at Marengo, Illinois, to Gullford H. Sumner on April 4, 1878. The following year Mr. and Mrs. Sumner came to Manchester and this city was their home for a number of years. While here Mr. Sumner studied medicine, taught school and did some newspaper work. Later Mr. Sumner entered the Iowa State university and became a graduate of its medical department. During these many years, Mrs. Sumner encouraged and helped her husband in his struggle to become a member of one of the learned professions.

Shortly after he graduated in medicine, Mr. Sumner engaged in the practice of his profession at Waterloo and thereafter that city became their home. In January, 1910, Dr. Sumner was elected Secretary of the State Board of Health, and Mrs. Sumner became Assistant Registrar of Vital Statistics which office she held at the time of her death, October 14th, 1912. Her zeal in the performance of the arduous duties of her position, and her desire to be with her husband and to assist him in protecting the people of Iowa from preventable diseases, undermined her health and before they were aware she had passed beyond the limits of recovery.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist church of this city on Thursday forenoon and her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the family lot in Oakland cemetery. Buried around and upon her coffin in the church were beautiful floral pieces. An unusual quantity of roses, lilies, caryanthemums and other flowers, evidenced the regard and affection of admiring friends. Dr. A. E. Keford of Des Moines, and Rev. E. H. Vallent, pastor of the First Baptist church of Waterloo assisted in the funeral services. The sermon was preached by Rev. H. S. McDonald, pastor of the Baptist church of this city.

Mrs. Sumner is survived by her husband, one son, A. D. Sumner of Waterloo, two sisters, Mrs. C. D. Clark of Evanston, Wyoming, and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh of Plankinton, South Dakota, and three brothers, James Crinklaw of Belvidere, Illinois, Angus Crinklaw of Montana and Geo. W. Crinklaw of Newhall, California, the latter being a half-brother. The immediate relatives present at the funeral services here were Mrs. Clark and her husband, Senator Cal D. Clark, the son, Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Vleck of Waterloo, parents of Mrs. A. D. Sumner, and Chas. Van Vleck, also of Waterloo.

Those who accompanied the members of the family to Manchester were the members of the board of health, Dr. Albert, assistant secretary, H. W. Greife, assistant secretary to the board of health, and W. A. Row of Des Moines; Dr. C. S. Chase, professor of bacteria and therapeutics state university, Iowa City; Rev. G. B. Crinklaw of Cedar Falls, a cousin of Mrs. Sumner; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fritz, the Misses Mary and Harriet Hughes, Mrs. M. E. Berry, Dr. N. H. Hough, and W. M. Freilson, all of Waterloo.

EXHIBIT OF FRUITS AND GRAINS FROM THE BLACK HILLS.

G. W. Miller of this city owns a large tract of land within a few miles of the Black Hills in Western South Dakota, and he has just returned from an inspection tour of his possessions in that part of the West. Mr. Miller brought with him on his return samples of the fruit, grain and alfalfa raised in that part of the country, and they are on exhibition in Strickland & Strickland's show window on Franklin street. Mr. Miller reports that wheat has averaged 25 bushels per acre in Chester county, South Dakota, this year, and that corn has ripened out there this year, and that alfalfa grows luxuriously in that section of the country. The samples on exhibition certainly support all that Mr. Miller says in reference to the products of this land adjacent to the foot hills of the mountains.

High Cost of Living Reduced. Did it ever occur to you that one of the big items in our cost of living is the fuel bill to keep us warm during the long winter months? You can not reduce it by buying cheaper fuel, but you must turn to a heater that PRODUCES MORE OF THE HEAT UNITS, of which a great portion have been wasted in our other heaters. WE ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEE that we will give you 25% more heat with 25% less fuel. NOW, DEAR FRIENDS, it would be folly for us to make such a claim were it not for the fact we have been fortunate in securing the agency of THE NEW MONITOR RADIATOR, THE WORLD'S MOST ECONOMICAL HEATING STOVE. On Wednesday, October 23rd, 1912, we shall have with us one of their representatives, who will demonstrate to you this new heater, and tell you all about it—why and how it surpasses all others, TO ALL THOSE who call at our store during this demonstration we will present FREE a souvenir for the daily use of the ladies at home. Yours truly, Hutchinson & Atwater The Up-to-Date Hardware Dealers.
