

SUPPLEMENT TO
The Democrat

Official Paper of County and City.
Subscription, 1 yr in advance, $1.50.

E. M. Carr, Hubert Carr, Wade E. Long, Fred W. Hermann,
Editors and Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 5, 1913.

DELHI.

Mr. and Mrs. Bevel Morgan and children of Waterloo visited relatives here the past week.

Mrs. M. G. Albrook returned from Council Bluffs Wednesday, bringing her son James with her. He has had a case of pneumonia while in Council Bluffs.

The play, Silas Warner, given Friday evening by the High school pupils was pronounced good and was well attended, considering the extreme cold night.

Mrs. George Furman and daughter Fern went to Hopkinton Friday night to attend a recital. While there they were guests of Mrs. Joslin and daughter M. Reed.

Mr. H. Rimmer is on the sick list, with La Grippe.

Nellie and Iris Moline were home from school at Dubuque Sunday.

Miss Nettie Stewart was a Manchester visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Stone is ill with appendicitis.

Mrs. Frank Geisel of Hopkinton spent Sunday with Delhi friends.

Miss Fern Furman went to Chicago, Illinois, Monday, to visit her mother.

Mrs. J. W. Swaine with Mrs. J. W. Swaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brockman are the parents of a little daughter, born Saturday, February 1.

Clay Keith of Hopkinton took mail route No. 1, out of Delhi, Saturday, February 1.

Mr. McCalley was called to Walker Wednesday by the illness of his son.

Mrs. George Kurton is seriously ill in the hospital at Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Willey and Mrs. J. E. Staager of Hopkinton were guests at Prof. W. T. Taylor's on Wednesday.

DELAWARE.

Misses Vina and Cecile Kaster and Mr. William Mason attended a party at the Frank Cramer home near Manchester Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Mortenson, Mr. and Mrs. William Benda and daughter Leola and Mr. and Mrs. P. Malmgren spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Larson and family.

Lew Maxwell returned home from Milwaukee Friday after a visit at W. F. Esler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pearson and family and Mr. Pearson's brother spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olie Pearson, near Oneida.

Mrs. Lewis Maxwell and Mrs. B. W. Holdridge of Delhi were passengers to Manchester Wednesday.

The ladies of the Larkin Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. H. H. Guthorson Friday afternoon.

Little Donald Coats of Delhi was the guest of his grandparents over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Angel and family spent Sunday at the C. Zirtzman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brockman of near Delhi are the parents of a daughter.

Harry Beddow of Dubuque spent over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Beddow.

HOPKINTON.

January gave us a cold farewell, after giving us mostly smiles for a month.

Harold Stead of Fayette was in town Thursday.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. Thomas Porter.

Mrs. Thompson expects to go to Delaware soon to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fear, who will return to her farm. The house will be occupied by Mr. Pierce of the restaurant.

Mr. Whipple, wife and little daughter of Littleport visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whipple.

The C. M. & St. P. Co. have been filling their ice house the past week.

Rev. George F. Coleman will be installed as pastor of the Covenant Church on Friday, February 7, at 1:30 p. m., a service which is open to the public.

Miss Bertha LeClere went to Monticello Wednesday.

The friends of Mrs. Orcutt will be pleased to hear that she is rapidly recovering from her operation for appendicitis.

C. F. Pettit of Howard, S. D., visited last week with his cousin, A. D. LeClere.

Ralph Milroy returned home on Thursday from a two weeks visit with his sister, Mr. Belknap, at Parmer, S. D.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet on Wednesday, February 5th, at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wallace, with Mrs. I. T. Wilson, leader.

Floyd Bowen, wife and baby were over Sunday visitors in Marion.

Miss Speed of Arlinton, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Truesdell, for a couple of months, left Thursday morning for her home and was accompanied by Mrs. Truesdell for a short visit.

A. C. Martin was a business caller at Arlington Tuesday.

The Monticello high school girls won the basket ball game last week, 10 to 7, and the Hopkinton boys won their game 34 to 32. A double game between the high school boys and girls of Monticello and Hopkinton.

The infant, seven months of age, of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heater was brought here from Dubuque for burial last Monday morning. Mrs. Heater was formerly Miss Edith Lamb of Hopkinton. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lamb and daughter.

Mason Lamb and daughter were up from Dubuque Monday.

Mr. L. Coye of Monticello has been assisting E. F. Main the past week.

Mrs. Wheelock was visiting in Monticello and Cedar Rapids last week.

We stated last week that Cliff Main had taken a position with the Manchester Press, which we will correct by saying it is on the Monticello Express. Mr. and Mrs. Main went to Monticello Friday to look up a house.

Chris Schuster and Henry Lewis have been among the sick ones the past week.

Ed boots and family are going to move soon from the farm on which they are now living south east of town to one near Monticello.

S. B. Lowe and brother visited last week in Independence with Mr. Midkiff and family.

The Christian Endeavor society observed Endeavor day on Sabbath evening in the Presbyterian church. Interesting talks along lines of young peoples work were given by Miss Orr and Mr. Aitchison. A history of the society by Miss Brooks after which Rev. Foster told of the work of the church for the young people.

Mrs. Charles Morgan went to Arlington Thursday.

The Reed Bros. open their shoe store the first of March in the Joseph building.

MONTI.

Mrs. Will Slatery of Masonville spent the latter part of last week with relatives here.

Mrs. Thomas Burke was a guest at the Dan Lyness home near Ryan part of last week.

Miss Nancy Monahan was a guest of her friend, Tessie Ward, Sunday.

Patrick McNany of Cedar Rapids was an over Sunday guest at his home.

Miss Mayme McGuier entertained her friend, Miss Fiester, of Independence the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor of Masonville visited Wednesday at Jas. Coleman's.

Willie Devlin visited relatives near Masonville part of last week.

Mrs. John Ca'lon of Winthrop was a visitor at Patrick Behan's last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burke of Paxton, South Dakota, visited at Will Baragary's the latter part of last week.

LENOX COLLEGE.

Miss Margaret Hartnes has gone to Cedar Rapids.

The Cascade students all went home Wednesday to attend the wedding of one of their friends.

Miss Stowe, who is to succeed Miss Mackenzie as director of the department of expression, arrived Tuesday evening.

Lenox college has a 2000 pound safe purchased of C. L. Dambacher of Dubuque.

A series of addresses to the students have been planned to be given at intervals during the rest of the year by professional men. These have heretofore been very interesting.

The recital Friday evening by the pupils of Misses Mackenzie and Miller was highly entertaining. The audience was not as large as it would have been had it not been so extremely cold. The program was as follows:

Waltz—Miss Amy Doan.
He Was Scotch and So Was She—Miss Elizabeth Hendee.

Spanish Waltz Song—Mrs. Willard Joslin.

Saunders McGlashan's Courtship—Lynn Probert.

Jim's Woman—Miss Cora Brooks.
Invictus—Norman Landers.

Marc Antony's Oration over Caesar—V. S. White.

Hunting Song—Miss Nellie Williamson.

Storing Miss on Ridge—Elery Reed
My Desire—Miss Mabel Crabb.

Miss Flutter's Advertisement—A Play in one Act.
Miss Flutters, Lady Principal—Miss E. Aitchison.

Margery—Miss Francis Erskaw.
Sue—Miss Myrtle Irish.

Dollie—Miss Winona Cummings.
Pupils of our in School.

Bridget, Malu—Miss Gladys Crammer.
Dick Severance—Postoffice dates James P. Doolittle of the houses of 1911.

Key, pastor of the Westminster church at Dubuque, will conduct evangelical meetings in the chapel during this week, from 7 to 8 p. m.

ONEIDA.

Ray Connel of Manchester spent several days with his brother, W. A. Connel, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Bushnell were shopping in Manchester Wednesday.

Mrs. Nellie Williams of Manchester spent Friday with friends at this place.

There were preaching services at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

August Garco has been on the sick list the past week.

The Iowa Dairy company, C. W. Ferris, and W. A. Connel have been busy the past week filling their ice houses.

Several from here are planning to attend the bazaar at Greeley Thursday, February 6th.

EARLVILLE.

Mrs. W. H. Terwer of Waterloo visited friends in town Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser were Dubuque visitors Friday.

Mrs. Rol Burrow and daughter Clara were Dyersville passengers on Friday.

Mrs. Herrmann Reth sr. visited in Manchester Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kavanaugh and Mrs. N. J. Klaus were Dyersville visitors Thursday and Friday of last week.

Mrs. Herbe Hamm was a Manchester passenger Friday.

Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Stella L. Gibbs to George Harris, which will take place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Stanley Wright of Cedar Rapids is visiting friends in town this week.

RYAN.

Peter Haight, who is employed in one of the stores in Hopkinton, spent Sunday with his sisters, Mr. Tarleton and Mrs. Towne.

W. H. Ward has almost entirely recovered from his severe attack of grippe.

John Smith is attending the automobile show in Chicago this week.

Daniel Lyness returned to St. Joseph's college, after being laid up with a broken arm since Xmas.

John Riley had business in Waterloo Monday.

Mrs. O'Hagan, who spent several weeks at the home of her sister in Cachee, Oklahoma, returned on last Tuesday. She speaks quite favorably of that locality.

Miss Phelan, who has been in Montana for several months, is home with her parents at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk and daughter of Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Hahsey and daughter Minnie of Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Byrnes and Mr. Frank Taylor of Lamont were here to attend Mrs. Lyness' funeral on last Wednesday.

Mrs. Gus Thompson and Mrs. Binger were shopping in Dubuque on Monday.

Miss Mae Coakley, who has been working in the Courier office in Waterloo, returned home for an indefinite period.

Mrs. Irvin McCloud spent several days at the home of her son Edgar in the country.

Mrs. Frank Taylor of Lamont were here to visit friends last Monday.

Mrs. John O'Brien spent several days in Dubuque recently.

Mike Morrissey has been quite ill with the grippe for the last week.

Father Malloy was visiting in Waterloo the first of the week.

Carl Lyness, who is attending school at St. Joseph's college, was in attendance at the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Lyness, on last Wednesday.

Miss Workman entertained the busy class of the Methodist church one evening last week.

ONEIDA.

Last Week's Letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hood of Cedar Rapids have been visiting friends in the past week. Part of town, and possession the first of Several from here attended a water show at Manchester Wednesday evening.

Mr. Loren Bushnell of this place and Miss Lulu Ross of Elkport were united in marriage at Manchester on Wednesday, January 22. They have gone to Waterloo and Oelwein to visit relatives, and after March 1st will be at home to their many friends on the Connell farm southwest of town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bushnell and daughter Suehla were Manchester visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Sara Cox was shopping in Manchester Saturday.

Floyd Peet of Edgewood was in town Saturday.

While on her way to attend an entertainment at the M. E. church Saturday evening, Mrs. Will Miller had the misfortune to fall on an icy walk and sprain her right arm.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Perry Haight Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Ladies please bring needles and thimbles to sew for the bazaar.

Miss Lela Burbridge of Manchester visited at the F. M. Burbridge home Saturday.

Walter Bowman drove to Maquoket Sunday.

Miss Anna Lillbridge of Greeley visited her friend, Miss Martha Mosler, Saturday.

MASONVILLE.

Last Week's Letter.

Rev. John Malloy of Ryan was a guest of Rev. D. Loneragan the latter part of the week.

Dennis Hollard of Charles City is visiting relatives south of town.

Miss Eva M'orney of Monti was a guest of her sister, Mrs. T. O. Ryan, the last of the week.

John O'Brien and wife and James Cummings and son Francis were visitors at Winthrop last Saturday.

J. J. Mulvehill of Minneapolis was a recent visitor in town.

Charles Jino and wife of Manchester were Sunday guests of relatives here.

Rev. D. Loneragan was a passenger to Dubuque last Thursday.

P. H. Ryan was a business visitor at Independence Monday between trains.

Frank Burke, a resident of Dakota, arrived here last Saturday for a visit among relatives and friends.

Mrs. James McCool of Holy Cross was an over Sunday visitor of relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. Joe Breitbrech of Monti made a brief visit with relatives Saturday, while enroute to Dubuque.

James Carmody and Will Murphy of Winthrop were business callers in town Wednesday.

Miss Ina Griffin of Manchester came home last week to care for her father, who has been quite ill.

Mrs. Havens purchased the Thos. Smith residence and will take possession in the near future.

Arthur Sherrer and wife of Monti attended church here last Sunday and spent the remainder of the day with friends.

Thos. Taylor and daughter Genevieve concluded a several weeks' visit among relatives here and left for St. Louis Thursday.

Will Ryan and wife, south of town, attended the funeral of the infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. David Brickley near Winthrop Sunday.