

MANCHESTER CHAUTAUQUA

BEGINS JULY 3

DO YOU REALIZE HOW BIG A THING IT IS?

The Chautauqua Brings a week of joy at the very time of when joy is badly needed.

It Breaks the Monotony and brings a new set of energies into activity.

The Chautauqua hasn't so very much to do with the sordid side of life. Yet it flourishes best where land is high priced. Its message is, to the head and heart.

The First Day is a Big Day The Spanish Ladies' Orchestra is really one of the best things in music ever offered. Be certain to get in on the grand concert first afternoon.

The First Lecture is a Masterpiece. Judge A. Z. Blair speaks the first night. He is the plucky judge who disfranchised over 2000 citizens of one Ohio county for crooked work at the polls.

Then Follow Six More Days of surprise after surprise. Every day presents new phases of thought. Every day adds a new reason for the Chautauqua's existence.

Thaviu's Great Band is Coming back. It is bigger and better than ever. Forty splendid artists and the music will be simply sublime. Twelve Grand Opera Singers will accompany the band.

There Are Seven Musical Organizations as heretofore. Music, music, music. Such a lot of it! And in such rich variety!

Entertainers of Class Are Coming. Edwin R. Weeks and Company will set you going. The Riners are coming back. Oh, my! Shungopavi, the Moqui Medicine Man, too, with tricks to your fancy, and more, and more, and more.

Orators And Philosophers Too. Hear Oneal, the great preacher-lecturer--and Poole on China--and Parlittle, the funny philosopher--and Trefz, the business orator, and more and more.

It Is Time To begin To lay your plans. Chautauqua is on the way. Are you ready?

The People Now Realize that the Chautauqua has a vast influence for good. It is a necessity.

Remember the First Day Is a Big Day. That day is

Frank Albrook is home from Ames for the summer. Quite a number from this place are planning to attend the full season of Chautauqua to be held at Manchester. They plan to take tents and stay from start to finish. Mrs. Josephine Harris and daughter Helen went to Hopkinton Saturday evening returning Monday. Many of our people heard Thaviu's band last year at Chautauqua and are glad to know they will have the opportunity to hear them again this year. One day last week, Howard Angell pulled a pump on the old Davis farm west of Delhi now occupied by Thos. Kelley. At first he could not pull the pump and supposed some rods had worked out in the tubing. He made a hook and let it down in the casing about fifteen feet, catching hold of some roots which he pulled out. The roots at the top end were about the size of a lead pencil and run down over 30 feet. He pulled them all out in one piece which completely filled the tubing in the well. The roots with the exception of the main ones were fine as thread. The tree from which the roots came stood fifteen feet from the well and entered the well fifteen feet below the surface and run down over 30 feet.

EDGEWOOD.

The cold weather the first of the week proved very hard on small grain and corn. The corn in this vicinity has every prospect for a good crop. Very little replanting has been done in this section and much of the crop is being cultivated at the present time. Chas. Amling was a Saturday and Sunday visitor with relatives and friends at Elkport. Miss Katie McTaggart of Coz Creek is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. P. Funk. French returned to his home at Hopkinton, having finished his term of school here last Friday. Miss Anna Henessey of Strawberry Point was seen on our streets on Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robison mourn the loss of their infant daughter. They have the sympathy of their many friends. Miss Ella Funk returned home from Dubuque Thursday morning.

where she had been for the past week visiting friends. Several from here were at Strawberry Point Friday evening to attend the graduating exercises. Mrs. Hod Waldo and son Harry are visiting relatives and friends at Waterloo and Cedar Falls. Miss May Pilkington is visiting friends at Fayette this week. The Edgewood High school graduated a class of sixteen pupils at the closing of this year's school. The commencement exercises took place at the Opera House Thursday evening before an audience that filled the building. The stage was beautifully decorated with their class colors, ferns and pink and white roses, making the surroundings harmonious with the happy climax of a successful year. The program given was carried out in a very creditable manner. Immediately after the orations C. S. Todd awarded the class their diplomas. This has been another commencement exercise added to the long list but like the rest it will soon be forgotten, except to the members of the class, Thursday, June 6, 1913, will often return with sweet memories of their school days.

ONEIDA.

Miss Maud Earhart has returned from Ames where she has been teaching the past year. James Littlefield and Miss Rachel Harvey were married last Monday in Dubuque. They returned to Hopkinton Tuesday and have gone to house-keeping in the Woodward cottage on Main street. Miss Beatrice Parkhill returned on Saturday from Clearfield, Pennsylvania, where she has been teaching the past two years. H. E. Willard and wife of Waterloo visited last week with Mrs. Willard and family. Hugh Bullis went last week to Milwaukee to be with her mother during an operation for a growth on her neck through which she passed successfully. The Clio club has again offered prizes for the best kept back yard during the summer. There must be at least one tree.

Mrs. Albert McNeil of Monticello attended church here on Sunday. Word has been received of the death of Mrs. George Chambers at Regina, Canada. Particulars of her sickness and death have not yet been received. Her brother, Rev. William McCullough is seriously ill at York, Iowa. Mrs. Pearl Orcutt is visiting in Chicago. Mrs. Rosalie Cummines returned home the last of the week. She was accompanied by her daughter and her two children. LENOX COLLEGE. Ellery Reed made a trip to Oelwein Monday. Misses Frances Crabb, '09, Miss Alma Patterson and Albert Atchison, '09, and Una Trevor, '11, were here to commence the festivities of the week. The opening of commencement week was Friday evening by an address by Hon. Francis Hoard of Cedar Rapids, senator for Iowa county. On account of a rainy evening the audience was not large. The address, however, was fine. The subject was "Education", and was well worthy of a full house. We are sure those present enjoyed it very much and would all be glad to hear Mr. Hoard again. Saturday evening the recital of the departments of music and expression took place. Piano, eight hands, The Return, Misses, Copeland, Crabb, Danneman and Bort. The One Legged Goose. The Battle of the Strong. The Woods. Miss Gearhart (3) Onida. Miss Brokaw Solo--Hear You Calling. Miss Morrow. Miss Trevarthian. Miss Agnew. A Man With a Country. William Zeuch Piano solo--Lovely. Miss Amy Doan Solo--Japanese Maiden. Mrs. White One Good Time. Miss Wickwire Come Flirt Around. Ladies Chorus Sabbath morning the Baccalaureate sermon was preached by President Reed. The text was from the eighth chapter of Romans and the address was full of good instruction for those who leave college as well as for those who remain. Sabbath evening the address before the Christian associations was delivered by Dr. Rehder of Waterloo on the first eight verses of the sixth chapter of Isaiah. It was very interesting and will be long remembered.

RYAN.

(Last Week's Letter) Mrs. James Brazelton was in Manchester the first of the week. She will soon be a resident of that city, as she will move her household goods there this week.
