The Exacting Customer is Not a "Crank"

—not in our store. We like to wait on him and care for his wants so well that he will buy again from us. He has a right to kick if anything about a garment doesn't suit his fancy. He knows whether he wants long pants or short, cuff bottoms or plain, soft lapels or pressed, dark patterns or light, etc.

He has a right to kick and insist on getting just what he wants and the most for his money.

We are cranks, too—yes "siree," out and out cranks. We've built our reputation by insisting and getting the very best workmanship and fabric and fashion in the clothes we sell. That's why we stick to Hirsch-Wickwire Co's. celebrated hand-tailored line. We give two things for the price of one—good value and service—yet we don't ask fancy prices. This is looking for and now you know where to get it.

MAYOR WAS ENTHUSIASTIC.

In their tour year after year, the Salisbury Family Orchestra, which is to appear at the Central opera house on Monday and Tuesday, October 12 and 13, gets many words of praise, but one of the most valuable and one they prize very highly is a letter volunteered by Mayor I. S. Millard of Marshalltown, Iowa, who wrote as follows:

Marshalltown, Ia., Oct. 19, 1913. Professor Salisbury and Family, Care Orpheum Theatre.

It is with sincere pleasure that I tell you how much my wife and I enjoyed your entertainments given at the Orpheum. When I inform you that the matinee of Saturday afternoon was the only performance we missed you will believe me.

Among the many charming features of the entertainment I desire to refer to the solo, "Close of a Perfect Day," the performance of the first of the baritone solo, "Apple Blossom Time in Normandy." I feel guilty for having called attention to any particular feature in so marvelous an entertainment for each member is an artist of merit. My wife and I sat in our seats last night until the last sweet strains died away and regretting that it was the last performance. In your audience were many of the best families of our city, also many talented musicians who were more than delighted.

One thing that pleased us greatly was your untiring energy to please and faithfulness to duty until the last moment, and not a frown on one of your faces after giving three lengthy programs so close together.

Mrs. Millard and I hall with delight the fact that you are coming back to us again.

Very respectfully yours,
I. S. MILLARD, Mayor.
