COMING AT CENTRAL OPERA HOUSE Friday Evening, April 2, 1915 MANCHESTER, IOWA

ROWLAND & CLIFFORD'S BIG NEW LA SALLE OPERA HOUSE (CHICAGO) MUSICAL COMEDY-TANGOGUESUE SUCCESS

SEPTEMBER MORN

BOOK AND LYRICS BY ARTHUR GILLESPIE, MUSIC BY AUBREY STAUFFER, DANCES BY VIRGIL BENNETT, STAGED BY FRANK TANNEHILL, JR.
ALL FUN DELIGHTFUL COMPANY 50
MUSIC TANGUES OF
SUPERB CHORUS EFFECTS, BEAUTIFUL COSTUMING
The biggest of all Laugh Show Hits with Ticking Tunes—A great company and dazzling ensembles is Rowland & Clifford's latest out of the ordinary production.
The story goes with a hurrah as Rudolph Plastic, a would-be artist, who claims to have painted the celebrated Chaba picture called "September Morn" (but who in reality cannot paint the side of a barn and do it well) continues to get himself in tight places. His antics go with a thump and a splash. An actress claims to be the original model of the popular picture and she instructs her press agent to boost her as the real "September Morn" who was not afraid to bathe in the open or the lake or whatever it was. The dodging of Rudolph and the actress creates no end of joyful lines and situations. The story is funny throughout, and at intervals the big musical numbers are introduced by a bevy of dancing experts who are seen in the latest Tangoes, Maxtates, and famous Hesitation waltzes, which are dreamy and decidedly popular at this period.
