Mrs. Clow came down from Minnesota Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Porter.
Mrs. Jane Matheson visited over Sunday with a cousin in Marion.
Mr. and Mrs. Berger of Monticello, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bacon last Wednesday.
Miss Lela Morrow left Thursday evening for Glenwood, Minn., for a few weeks visit.
Mr. and Mrs. David Smith visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Brownell at Delhi.
Miss Sarah Littlefield left Tuesday evening for Lincoln, Neb., where she will attend the university the coming year.
Mrs. J. D. Moulton left last week for Lebecka, Minn., to visit with her daughter.
C. S. Barker of Monticello, was in town Tuesday.
Rev. W. H. Ensign and R. A. Wallace attended Presbytery last week held at the Cono Center church. Mr. Wallace was elected a delegate to the meeting of Synod at Cedar Falls in October.
Mrs. Perry of Detroit, and Mrs. Moore of Ypsilanti, Michigan, who have been visiting their cousins, Miss Mary and W. P. Lord, have returned to their homes.

A. C. Ehrisman of Monticello, has bought the Cafe of F. G. Mathieson and has already taken possession and the display of good things to eat in the window certainly looked very tempting to hungry people.
Rev. L. A. Bradford will continue his work here for another year and Rev. Chas. at Buck Creek.
H. F. Shipton of Claremont, visited several days last week with his son, T. F. Shipton and wife.
J. D. Morgan was so unfortunate as to sprain his ankle last Saturday and is going with a crutch.
Roy Dunlap and Miss Georgie Keith were married last Wednesday at Buck Creek, by Rev. G. J. Challice. They will make their home on a farm near Masonville.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting with Mrs. Hill, Friday afternoon.
The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church entertained the young people's societies of the other churches and the Christian associations of the college Wednesday evening at a progressive social. Commencing at the church with a program, they went to the homes of Rev. Bradford, Rev. Ensign, Rev. Coleman and then to Clarke hall. At each place entertainment was provided. From Clarke hall they returned to the church parlors, where refreshments were served. About one hundred were present and enjoyed the pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill were over Sunday visitors at Independence.
The heavy rains all Saturday night raised the river to a mark not seen before for over thirty years. The flats east of the road to the bridges were covered with water up to the back yards of those who live on the hill north of them. A number of men were busy all Sunday morning driving their cattle, which were in the pastures, on the low lands, to places of safety. The electric light plant had to shut down, and only the tops of a field of corn could be seen. There is no loss without some gain, is an old saying, and old settlers say that the next year after such a flood brings enormous crops.
Miss Nettie Mullen has been quite ill the past week at the home of Mrs. Ellen Lux.
Mrs. N. A. Gearhart and little daughter were over Sunday visitors in Dubuque.
Mrs. Brooks visited her daughter in Edgewood last week.

LENOX COLLEGE.

The Athenian society held its annual reception Monday evening. Among the guests were the students now in attendance. Many old students and friends in town were also there. An entertaining program was given then the social hour and refreshments.

W. E. Zeuch, '15, George Hucker, '15 and Rae Melrose, '16, left early Monday morning for the east. Mr. Zeuch will enter Clarke university, Massachusetts, and the others go to Columbia university in New York City.
There will be a benefit concert in the college chapel Wednesday evening for the Y. M. C. A., given by Schilckrets Hungarian orchestra, which is making a trans-continental tour under the Redpath management.
Misses Marion Bollman and Mildred Joslin and Andrew Spence and Ralph Milroy enjoyed a trip to Anamosa Friday afternoon.
Miss Mary Doolittle came down from Delhi Friday evening.

Rev. G. S. Coleman took charge of Rev. Ensign's classes during his absence at Presbytery.
Prof. Laughlin and R. A. Wallace made an automobile trip around Cono and Walker Saturday in the interest of the college.
Misses Ester Agnew, '10, Marie Agnew, '12, and Vera Copeland, '13, are attending the state university at Iowa City.
Miss Margaret Copeland, of Oregon, '01, was a guest this week of Mrs. O. E. Melzer, '01, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Crawford.

The Clayonian society, entertained the students and many old members and friends Friday evening. A good program was given and other entertainment and refreshments. The annual receptions are the means of students becoming better acquainted with each other, with the members of the faculty and young people of town.

One at a Time.

The modern tendency in all grades is toward the development and elevation of the individual as a unit. It is the individual that counts in the business world, which has to do solely with the unit.
