Miss Mayme Westmann has returned from a few days visit at Aurora. She was also a guest at the wedding of her cousins, Miss Mayme Westmann to Will Schindler and Miss Meta Schindler to Peter Westman. John Schlarman, who is attending Dubuque college, came home last Saturday and remained over Wednesday. He was present at the wedding of his sister, which took place Wednesday. Leo Schmitt, E. Cook and Chas. Ray of Farley, were here last Sunday afternoon to attend the foot ball game between Dyersville Eleven and Dubuque Braves. Mr. James Harris, who lives about a mile south of Dyersville, met with a very serious accident at his home Thursday morning. He was burning rubbish and a can of old gun powder had been thrown on the pile which exploded and struck him in the face, burning his face badly and seriously injuring his eye. It is feared the eye will lose the sight of the right eye. His many friends extend to him their sympathy and hope he will recover soon. John Albarg purchased a lot in east Dyersville from Sebastian Albarg and will erect a home on it in the early part of spring. The consideration was $1,000.

Royal Grinders TOOL GRINDERS have replaced the old fashioned grindstone and oilstones. Every mechanic should have one of these grinders. The ROYAL is equipped with an attachment for sickle grinding which fills the bill for the farmer. Let us demonstrate this machine to you. The price is so small that you cannot afford to take the time to grind your tools in the old fashioned way. The price of this machine is $6.50. Hutchinson & Atwater
