—Cal Martin was at Independence last Thursday to attend the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. Emma Potter, who formerly resided in this city. Mrs. Potter was the mother of Mr. Edward Raymond, formerly of Manchester.

—The Misses Pearl Mutschler, Gladys Welterton and Lydia Haug, and Messrs. Everett Leighton, Clarence Jones and Percy Davis attended the play, "The Birth of a Nation," at Waterloo last Thursday evening.

—A. R. LeRoy left this morning on a business trip to Louisiana, and from there he will go to Los Angeles, California, for a few weeks' vacation. His mother, Mrs. M. F. LeRoy, and sisters, Misses Dora and Alma LeRoy, are spending the winter there.

—Mrs. W. H. Norris and Mrs. E. B. Stiles were at Independence last Friday to attend the funeral services of their uncle, Mr. Seth Peck, who died at Laurel, Mississippi. Mr. Peck was one of the early day settlers of this county, at one time residing on a farm south of Manchester.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts of Strawberry Point were in the city last week, and left last Friday for San Francisco, to spend the winter months. They will also visit Los Angeles, San Diego, and other points of interest before returning home in the spring.

—Charles Hruby of the government fish bureau, spent a few days in Manchester last week. Mr. Hruby left on Saturday morning with the fish car for Washington, D. C., taking a large consignment of game fish from the local hatchery, to be deposited in the streams between this point and Washington.

—Mrs. A. B. Terril, who left here early in December, to spend a short time with her sister in Lincoln, Neb., and with friends at Denver, Colorado, is now nicely situated in Lane Apartments, 1812 East Republican street, Seattle, Washington, where she will make her home among old time friends and relatives.

—Mrs. Benjamin Harms has fully settled the claim she had against Charles Kellogg, of Oneida, which arose out of an automobile accident, which occurred last summer. Mrs. Harms was driving on the road east of Manchester, and was run into by Kellogg, who was on the wrong side of the road. Kellogg has paid the full amount of damage done the car belonging to Mrs. Harms and the matter is now closed.—Monticello Express.

—Joseph Hutchinson and his family have been wrestling with the genuine, old fashioned grip during the past week.

—The High School Normal Training teachers' examination will be held in the County Superintendent's office at Manchester on January 19, 20 and 21, 1916.

—Ned Seeds went to Ames last week to spend a few days among his college friends, before going to Schenectady, New York, where he will complete his course in electrical engineering.

—Readers of The Democrat should not overlook the changes of advertisements of H. R. McDonald, A. J. Andrews, Oba Lyman and McKeag Brothers. Their announcements are of special interest this week.

—The Snodgrass Clothing company, states in its advertisement that there are only a few more days left in which to secure bargains in seasonable goods. The company's advertisement appears on page eight of this issue.

—The regular teachers' examination will be held in the County Superintendent's office at Manchester, on January 26, 27, and 28, 1916. All applicants for this examination must show either twelve weeks Normal Training or six months teaching experience.

—Every farmer reader of The Democrat will be interested in the suggestion made by the Manchester Lumber company as regards improving the "living conditions" of the Iowa farm mortgage lifter—the pig. They have something to say about Sunbeam Windows which cannot help but interest the farmer.

RECORD RUN MADE ON GREAT WESTERN.

The Chicago Great Western made a record run from Minneapolis to Chicago recently with a special train carrying the Princeton Triangle club. The distance of 435 miles, with all necessary stops, was covered in exactly nine hours and fifty-four minutes. This achievement equals the time made by the fast mail trains, which do not carry passengers on the shorter roads, and is two hours faster than the best regular passenger schedule on any line to the twin cities. The Great Western special train consisted of five cars and left Minneapolis at midnight, arriving in Chicago that forenoon.—Chicago Daily News.

BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY.

H. E. Williams, of near Dundee, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace, M. E. Blair last Thursday, and was bound over to the grand jury at the March term. Mr. Williams is accused of having stolen chickens from the premises of a neighbor, Mr. Loper. The preliminary hearing attracted a large crowd, the court room in which the hearing was held, being crowded to the doors. A number of witnesses for the state were examined. Mr. Williams waiving examination. The defendant was placed under bonds in the sum of $500.

HONEY CREEK.

Neighbors and friends numbering thirty-five, gathered at the H. B. Bailey home Monday evening to spend a few pleasant hours with them before their departure to their new home at Alpena, S. Dakota. The evening was pleasantly spent, after which refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were presented with a set of silverware and also a purse of value. F. J. Legg, in a few well chosen words, presented the gift.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sudorff, a daughter, Jan. 2nd.

The ladies of the Larkin club met with Mrs. Earl Quittmeyer Thursday afternoon.

Miss Maud Hall has returned from Dubuque.

Charles Newberry has returned from his trip to the Pacific Coast.

Clarence Baldrige returned to Iowa City, where he is attending school.

The funeral of the late John White was held from the home Saturday morning. The Rev. Rombold, of Lamont, preached the funeral sermon, and a large audience of friends and neighbors and relatives were present. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, carrying their message of love and esteem. We will all miss our true friend and neighbor, Mr. White, who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him, and deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their great sorrow.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ordoerfer, of Strawberry Point, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Maria, to Mr. John Frederick of the Point, the Rev. Fuehr of St. Sebald, officiating, in the presence of a few relatives. The bride was attended by Miss Leta Feulner, and Miss Hilma Frederick. Walter Frederick and Fred Nodurft, acted as best men. After a wedding dinner was served, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick left for St. Paul, and other points. After their return they will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm near Arlington. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. J. E. Hilliger. Congratulations.

Mrs. John Billhorn's mother is not very well at this writing, which we are sorry to report.
