COLLAR BUTTON SAVED LIFE

Either Carpenter Had Remarkable Experience or He Had More Than a Shade on Ananias.

The ancient Carpenter held a small object between the thumb and first finger of his left hand and pointed at it impressively with the index finger of his right hand.

"For this little article," he exclaimed, "I wouldn't take a farm."
"As the ancient Carpenter is the acknowledged verisimilitude champion of the Curstone club, the other members gathered about him to hear his latest effort.

"Looks to me like a collar button," the fat plumber observed.

"And so it is."

"What is so valuable about it?"

"It saved my life once."

"How?"

"It was when I became lost in the Great North woods."

"Were you ever lost in the Great North woods?"

"I should say I was; for over two weeks and without a thing to eat in my knapsack."

"How did you manage to subsist?"

"That's where this trinket comes in."

"Indeed?"

The ancient Carpenter gazed affectionately on the little object in his hand as he replied, amidst breathless silence:

"Yes, the little bit of bone saved my life. For two long weeks I didn't have a thing to eat but collar-button soup."

The club members, as in one voice fervently exclaimed:

"Poor old Ananias!"—Youngstown Telegram.

DELAWARE

The funeral of Mrs. George Carroll, of this place, was held from the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Earl Skinner delivered an impressive sermon and a fine tribute to the life and character of a young person who had been highly esteemed by all classes during the short period of her life.

The pastor used for his text, St. Matthew 25:1-13 verses. A choir composed of Mrs. A. W. Sackett, Misses Edna Dawson, Vina and Cecile Kaster and Roberta Davis and Roy Hoovey and John Dawson sang hymns befitting the occasion, being "Beautiful Isle," "Saved by Grace" and "Abide with Me." The floral tributes were many and beautiful, contributed by the sympathetic and sorrowing friends of the departed friend and loved one.

The pall bearers were friends of the past years standing—George Yeldon, Elmer Manson, Ernest Yeldon, Bernice Davis, Gene Dawson and Henry Manson. Interment was made in Reswood cemetery. Miss Esther Orberg was born in Delaware, Iowa, February 16, 1891, and was called to rest on January 10, 1916, at the early age of 24 years, 10 months and 25 days. On February 17, 1915, she was united in marriage to Mr. George Carroll, after which they moved with Mr. Carroll's parents to their farm, near Sena, Michigan. During the month of August, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll came to Waterloo, where she was confined to her bed. On September 13, she was brought to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orberg, where she remained until her death. Those surviving to mourn the loss of a loving wife, daughter and sister, are her husband and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Orberg, three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Cline, of Waterloo, Mrs. Geo. Grapes, of Waterloo, Mrs. Geo. Grapes, of Waterloo, and Miss Margaret Orberg of this place; also five brothers, Edgar and Elder of Raymond, S. D., Lewis, Raymond and Lester, of this place. Mrs. Carroll was the fifth child of Mr. and Mrs. G. Orberg and has resided in Delaware the greatest part of her life; she was also a graduate of the Delaware High school in the spring of 1910. In the fall of 1911, she began teaching in a country school near Coggon, where she taught three successful school years. She attended the Methodist and Swedish churches. Mrs. Carroll was kind-hearted and was liked by every person and will be sorely missed by the community. Those from out of town who attended the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cline and baby of Waterloo, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Carroll and Mrs. J. Carroll of Greeley, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Orberg of Earlville, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shover, Mrs. Houston, of Coggon, and Miss Rose Smilk of Manchester.

Miss Rena Angell is unable to attend school in Earlville on account of sickness.

George and Mary Yeldon and Misses Ida and Hilma Manson autographed to Manchester, Tuesday.

The Ladies Aid society of the Swedish church were entertained by Mrs. Lars Hokenson at her home Thursday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance. All reported a fine time. Proceeds, $3.40.

Dr. Kresensky of Greeley, was a professional caller at the H. E. Hefner home Tuesday.

A. W. Hilmer of Dubuque, spent Friday with his brother, W. J. Hilmer and wife.

A company of the patrons of the Delaware Co-operative company are filling the ice house this week.

Charlie Brown and Albert Persson transacted business in Earlville, on Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Kaster of Manchester, spent the latter part of last week with friends and relatives in Delaware.
