Popular Japanese Pickle.

An article of food universally popular in Japan is the Japanese pickle, made principally of garden vegetables, especially the large Japanese radish, Cucumbers, eggplant, small turnips, and greens of various sorts go to make up this apparently vital accessory of Japanese meals. It is made by pickling the various articles in salt with a taste of powdered rice, bran and some vinegar, and to most foreigners the taste and smell are alike objectionable.

DELAWARE

Our community was greatly saddened by hearing of the death of Miss Lottie Meader which occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Smith.

The funeral of Miss Charlotte R. Meader was held from the Methodist 2 o'clock. Rev. Carl W. Skinner delivered an impressive sermon and a fine tribute to the life and character of a person who had been highly esteemed by all classes during her residence in this vicinity. The pastor used for his text Job 7:6. A choir composed of Misses Ida Manson, Ina and Cecile Kaster and Edna Dawson sang songs befitting the occasion, being, "No, Never Alone," "Some Blessed Day," and "Face to Face." The floral tributes were many and beautiful contributed by sympathetic and sorrowful friends of the departed neighbor and friend. The pall bearers were Berney Davis, Roy Stone, George Yeldon, August Voel-schow, Frank Stoddard and Curtis Miller.

Charlotte Rosebel Meader was born in Greeley April 10, 1871; died February 8, 1916, at the age of 44 years, 9 months and 28 days at the time of her death. She was the eldest of a family of twelve children of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Meader, Mrs. Meader dying Feb. 18, 1900, leaving Lottie to care for the other children of the family, or being a second mother. About fourteen years ago, Mr. Meader and children moved to a farm near Spring Branch. About ten years ago Lottie went to the home of her sister, Mrs. A. L. Smith, where she resided until death called her. She became a member of the Methodist church of Delaware when at the age of sixteen, and was a good, faithful and christian worker, and for many years was one of the teachers in the Sunday school.

Those surviving to mourn her loss are her father, E. S. Meader, three sisters, Mrs. A. S. Meader of Delaware, Mrs. Hegwood of Los Angeles, California and Mrs. Patrick Dunlavy of Ryan, and four brothers, Will Meader of Manchester, Edgar Meader of Elkport; Charlie and Harry Meader of Volga City, besides a great number of relatives and friends. Sincere sympathy of the many friends is extended to the members of the family.

Those who attended the funeral from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Luke Scanlon and daughter Rebecca, Mrs. David Kennedy and son Robert, Mrs. David Scanlon, Howard Scanlon and Will Scanlon, Artigend, Retta and wife, Misses Artigend, Retta and Christena Scanlon, Mrs. Patrick Dunlavy of Ryan; Mr. and Mrs. Will Meader of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meader and son of Elkport, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Meader of Volga City, Mrs. C.
