

J. T. BRIGHT CLUBS

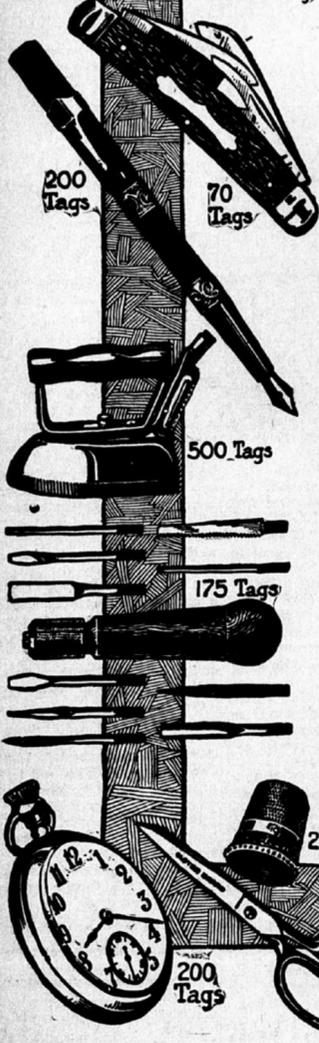

Try J. T. against any thick plug tobacco. The quality is there and you get a whole plug for 40 cents.

Save Your J. T. Tin Tags

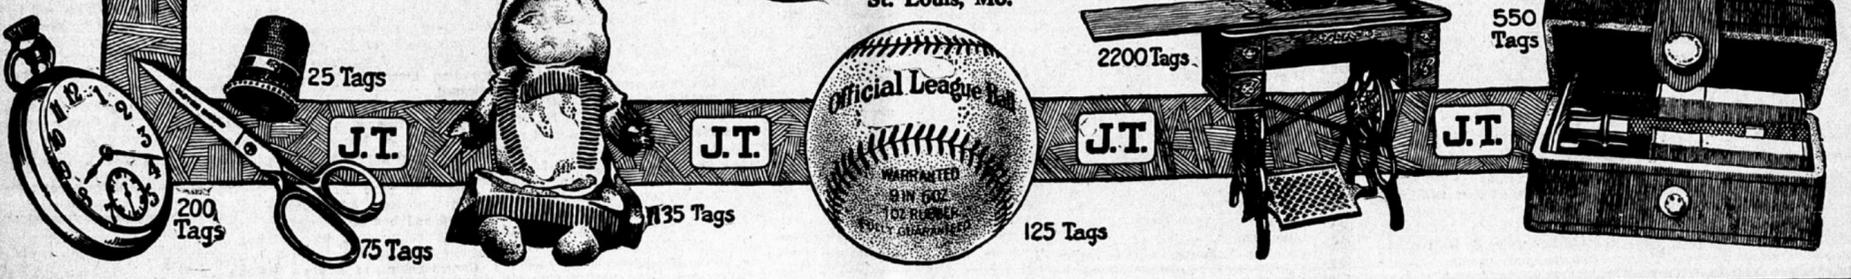

Some of the presents you can get for them are shown on the border. In obtaining presents J. T. Tags may be assorted with tags from Horse Shoe Tobacco and coupons from Velvet Smoking Tobacco and other

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. tags and coupons. Our illustrated catalogue of presents will be sent to you on request. Drop a postal today for this catalogue. Address:

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO. St. Louis, Mo.

(This illustration less than 1/2 actual size)

DIYERSVILLE

Dr. C. G. Rosell has returned from a couple days trip to Des Moines where he went to be present at a State Dental Convention.

Misses Leonilla Steger and Florabell Faba went to Dubuque Thursday to visit friends and attend the Graduation Exercises of the Dubuque Conservatory of Music, held at the Congregational church Thursday evening.

Miss Lena Duster of Cedar Rapids came to Dyersville Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late Miss Lena Dunbar, which took place Wednesday morning. Miss Duster remained for a couple days visit with her sisters, Misses Clara and Mary.

Miss Atala Schemmel left for Dubuque after a visit with her parents here and being present at the celebration of their sons wedding anniversary.

Dr. Jos. Leigh of Evanston, Ill., arrived here Thursday morning and remained until Sunday morning visiting his mother, Mrs. C. Leigh, who is very ill at her home here. Dr. Lloyd Leigh of Davenport arrived Sunday morning for a few days visit with his mother.

The many friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Stochermer will regret to learn that she underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Mueller Hospital, this city Wednesday, having been ill for the past two weeks. At this writing she is getting along nicely.

Death came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunkel last Monday morning and claimed as its victim their beloved daughter, Miss Lena Dunkel, who for many months suffered from Bright's disease, and for the last fourteen months was confined to her bed. Although death came as a relief to the brave patient sufferer, it brought deepest sorrow to those who mourn her untimely death. Deceased was born in Southfork township near Worthington on August 29th, 1887, making her twenty-eight years of age at the time of her death. She received her education in the rural and parochial schools at Worthington. Her parents resided on a farm until she was nineteen years of age when the family moved to Dyersville, making this her home up to the time of her demise. Besides her grief stricken parents she is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Elizabeth, Mrs. Henry Mormann, Cascade; Mary, Mrs. J. L. Little of this city; Anna, Mrs. Wm. Lindermann, and Joseph, both of Fillmore; Katherine, Mrs. Thos. Brunkman, Worthington; Rev. Henry Dunkel, Dyersville; Nicholas of Worthington and Miss Emma who is at home. Miss Dunkel was a most estimable young lady whose passing away so early in life will be keenly felt by her score of friends. She was a devout member of the Catholic church and an ardent worker in all church work. She was a member of the Young Ladies Sodality, holding an office in this organization for a number of years.

RYAN

The funeral services were held from the home to St. Francis church Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The solemn requiem mass was read by her reverend brother, Father Henry Dunkel, assisted by Rev. Father J. C. Wisneke of Cedar Rapids as deacon, Rev. Father Thos. of New Vienna sub deacon, Rev. Father Goetzinger of Petersburg, master of ceremonies, Monsignor Geo. Heer of Dubuque delivered the funeral sermon. Other priests who were present in the sanctuary were Very Rev. Father Warning and Rev. Father Hoffman of this city and Father Leen of Farley. The pallbearers were Misses Mary Marold, Genevieve Smith, Mary Duster, Josephine Schermer, Thersia Gebhard, and Clara Duster. The members of the Young Ladies Sodality marched in a body. Very Rev. Father Warning officiated at the grave in the Catholic cemetery. Mr. Chas. Westermeyer has been engaged by Swift and Co. to continue the poultry business and succeed his father, the late Mr. Jos. W. Westermeyer, in the same office on West Main street.

Miss Monica Krapple, who went to Mercy Hospital, Dubuque, to undergo an operation for appendicitis, has returned home and has about recovered from the operation.

Mr. Horace Russel, of Modesto, California, arrived in Dyersville last week and visited a few days with her brother and sister-in-law, Atty. C. B. and Mrs. Russell. From here he went to Colfax for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Denkhoff, of Dyersville, and brother, Mr. T. F. Denkhoff, of Madelia, Minn. and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith of this city autoed to Monticello Tuesday where they visited relatives.

Mrs. Elizabeth Raker departed for Cresco last Sunday and will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bahning for a couple weeks. Mrs. Thos. Allen left Tuesday for DeWitt where she will spend a week with her son, Bert, and wife. Her daughter, Mrs. Fenton and babe, who have been visiting relatives in DeWitt will return with her.

Misses Catherine and Hattie Hoffman of Chicago arrived in Dyersville for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drexler and Mr. and Mrs. William Lappe.

The members of the Entre Nous Club gave a private dance in the Opera House last Monday evening, which proved to be one of the gayest social events of the season. Excellent music was furnished by Skeel's Orchestra and about sixty couples were present to enjoy the evening at dancing.

A benefit dance will be given in the Dyersville hall Wednesday evening by the Dyersville Band boys, the proceeds of which will be used for the upkeep of the musical organization.

HOPKINGTON

Mrs. A. H. Reed and Mrs. J. T. Brownell were in Anamosa Monday.

Mrs. R. A. Wallace visited in Cedar Rapids Tuesday.

Mrs. Julia Ricketts returned Monday to her home in Dubuque and was accompanied by Mrs. R. N. Hocking for a short visit.

Hiram Lee and Leroy Clark of Monticello attended the funeral of P. F. Westcott Monday.

Homer Brooks and A. G. Smith were in Dubuque Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Casteel fell down the cellar stairs Monday and was somewhat bruised by the fall.

Mrs. P. F. Westcott left Wednesday evening to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Swanson of Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bender of Wyoming, visited several days last week with their niece and nephew, Mrs. David Smith and J. T. Brownell.

F. E. Williamson is a delegate to the Republican state convention at Cedar Rapids next Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Campbell went to Iowa City Friday morning to attend the May Musical Festival. She will be a guest of Miss Nora Copeland.

Mrs. F. W. Brooks is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Finch at Onslow.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boots, who has been most of the winter with their son, J. R. Boots and wife, have returned to Charleston, N. D. Hopkington continued on page 9 Galley 9.

Dick Anderson, who has been employed in J. B. Schuster's barber shop for some time, is now working for J. R. Boots, in the place of Will Johnson, who left Tuesday for his home in Keokuk.

Mrs. A. K. Cramer left Tuesday for Akron, Ohio, to be present at the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. James Lewis.

Mrs. J. T. Brownell went to Wyoming Monday to see her mother who is ill.

Mrs. Ida Craft arrived Monday from Birmingham, Alabama, to be present at the funeral of her father, P. F. Westcott. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Westcott and daughter, of Cedar Rapids, were also here.

Mother's Day was observed at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches last Sabbath with appropriate sermons. Next Sabbath Children's Day will be observed in the Presbyterian church.

The death of another old resident occurred last Saturday, that of P. F. Westcott, who has been in ill health but only confined to the bed during the last few weeks. The funeral was held at the home, Rev. W. H. Ensign having charge of the services. P. F. Westcott was born March 11, 1834 at Milford, Oswego County, N. Y. He was married to Frances Whitney in 1856 and came to Hopkington in 1861. Mrs. Westcott died in 1871, and in 1880 he was married to Cynthia Hamilton. Beside his wife there is one brother and five children left to mourn his loss. The children are: Mrs. Ida Craft, Birmingham, Ala.;

STRAWBERRY POINT

C. W. Borrett, Special Agent for the Hanover Fire Insurance Co., transacted business here Saturday. He was a guest of his sister, Mrs. G. W. Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Schmack and children visited her parents at Elkport Sunday.

Frank Brady was the victim of quite a serious accident Sunday. While driving the calves to their pen he was using a riveted strap and one of the rivets hit him in the eye. Although the eye ball is out quite badly the doctor thinks the sight is not injured.

Miss Marie Heubner was a Cedar Rapids visitor last Sunday.

A. L. Johnson of Los Angeles, Cal., was a business caller here Thursday.

Each Congregation church in Iowa will present the Ter-Centenary program Sunday, May 21st. At this meeting the plans will be discussed for the celebration of the Three Hundredth Anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims. The Pilgrims landed in 1620 and this anniversary will be in 1920. This special program will be held in the Congregational church here and we hope to make it a big day.

Mr. Frank Wiley of Edgewood and Miss Elda Shaw from near Wood were married in the St. Mary's Catholic church here Thursday morning. These young people are well known in this community and we wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Yoran of Manchester visited the latter's father, who is quite sick in the Minnie Clough home.

Dick Donath has returned home from Montana.

Mrs. Priscilla Trezona accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Anna Puffet, to her home in Selma, Kansas. Mrs. Puffet had been here attending the funeral of her brother, Earl Trezona, who was killed in an automobile accident near Gibson City last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harding are the proud parents of a baby girl born to them Monday, May 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Harris have returned to their home in Galena, Illinois.

The Thimble Society of the Congregational church presented their home talent play, "The New Minister" at the Opera House Thursday evening. It was very well attended and was reported very good by all present.

Edwin G. Pebler, who has been teacher here in the public school for the past three years, is candidate for the office of Auditor for Clayton County on the Democratic ticket.

Mrs. B. O. Smith and children have been in Oelwein visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Milton Knapp of Aurora has been here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hayes.

HONEY CREEK

Several from this vicinity attended the Plaza Theatre Monday afternoon and evening, where Lieut. Alfred Mohr, late of the German army, appeared with his famous war pictures. Mr. Mohr explained in detail which was very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dunham of Manchester were over Sunday visitors at the Wesley Barr home.

Henry Meyer went to Chicago Tuesday.

Several of the farmers planted corn the past week.

O. C. Lehman and wife visited in Lamont Sunday with friends.

Bert Shearff was in Wisconsin last week on a business trip.

The L. N. Donahoe family were recent Oelwein visitors.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William Northrup, a daughter on May 7th.

Mrs. Lindsay Barr was a Manchester visitor Tuesday.

Charles Necker purchased a carted to Aurora Sunday.

Will Scott returned home after spending the winter in the South.

Miss Ruby Sauerby visited in Iowa City last week.

B. T. Weeks and son, Lewis, autoed to Aurora Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Puffet were Lamont visitors Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harding, a daughter May 8th.

Garden seeds are showing up nicely considering the cool weather.

Edmund Hooker of Manchester furnished 100 per cent. to three different farmers in this vicinity, grown on his land in Manchester last year.

Mrs. Sherman Smith entertained a number of relatives and friends last Sunday from Edgewood.

Mrs. Carpenter and little son of Virgil, Ill. visited with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Rudy, a few days the past week.

ONEIDA

Mrs. J. B. Smith went to Delhi Saturday to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer moved to Earlville last week where Mr. Kramer has the contract for grading the school grounds. P. Haight and George Clute are helping him with the work.

Mrs. Kephart of Manchester is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Legg.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead, of Oelwein, were calling at the Charles Clute home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and Mrs. Kate Cox spent Thursday at the home of their brother, at Arlington.

Rector Bros. team became frightened Monday at a train while standing near the Great Western depot. They started and ran east till they were past Chas. Lillbridge where they were overtaken by an auto. No damage was done.

There was a musical entertainment in the school house Thursday evening given by Prof. De Mello. It consisted of music magic and ventriloquism. George and Lou Clute were at Dundee Thursday evening.

Several from here attended the ice cream social at Groeley Saturday night.

LAWS MADE FOR ALL

Laws are not made for particular cases, but for man in general—Johnson.

And a Sure Harvest.
The seeds of rust and decay bring a harvest of loss.

Real Fortunes of War.
"Pa, what are the fortunes of war?" "Stock dividends, my boy."—Detroit Free Press

The Latest Ditty.
"Father's pants will soon fit Willie" has been abandoned as a family ditty for "Sadie's skirts will soon fit mother."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Optimistic Thought.
The jealous feed on jealousy, yet never grow fat.

Optimistic Thought.
He who plays a trick must be prepared to take a joke.