Virtue and Riches.

"I cannot call riches," says Bacon, "better than the baggage of virtue. The Roman word is better, 'impedimenta,' for as the baggage is to an army so are riches to virtue. It cannot be spared nor left behind, but it hindereth the march, yea, and care of it sometimes loseth or disturbeth the victory."

Used-to Places.

One day my small niece was told to put a piece of paper in the scrap basket. She went to the wrong corner of the room and returned, saying: "Oh, silly me, I put it where the scrap basket used to be. I always go to used-to places."—Exchange.
