Pure Air.

Pure air is blue, because, as Newton tells us, the molecules of the air have the thickness necessary to reflect blue rays. When the sky is not perfectly blue the atmosphere is blended with perceptible vapors, and the diffused light is mixed with a large proportion of white.

Not in Vain.

Did you ever hear of a man who had striven all his life faithfully and singly toward an object and in no measure obtained it? If a man constantly aspires, is he not elevated? Did ever a man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity, and find that there was no advantage in them—that it was a vain endeavor?

EARLVILLE.

Sarah Amelia Gibbs was born in Dubuque county, May 12, 1865, and died at her home near Earlville Sunday morning, June 10, 1917, aged 52 years and 29 days. Her mother died when she was three weeks old. Her twin sister, the only other child in the family died in infancy, and when she was sixteen she was bereft of the companionship of her father. She then made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbs, until her marriage January 22, 1890, to Rudolph Wendling of Earlville. To this union seven daughters were born, all of whom with the husband survive, also four grandchildren. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Congregational church in Earlville, Rev. A. Winfield Wiggins conducting the obsequies.

The large attendance at the funeral bespeaks of the popularity of the deceased, hundreds of friends being present to pay their last tribute to one held in the highest esteem. The memory of a loving mother will linger with the children and the husband will miss a true and faithful helpmate who has wrought so well. And a great number of relatives and friends are deeply grieved at her passing. The burial of this esteemed lady was made in Fairview cemetery.
