Get 'Em Repaired

Don't throw away those old shoes. They may look pretty badly abused but bring them to me and I will fix them up so you can get lots of wear out of them, and at a fraction of what a new pair will cost today. Help conserve the supply of leather by having your shoes repaired—it only means money in your pocket, especially if you have them repaired by a man who knows how.

I have the most fully equipped shop in the county and can give you complete satisfaction. Prices reasonable and nothing but the best of leather goes into the work I do.
