

LOCAL HAPPENINGS OF THE PAST WEEK

—Miss Margaret Ward of Ryan spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. M. J. Britt.
—Judge Geo. W. Dunham held a one-day session of court at Independence on Monday.
—P. F. McElliot was in Manchester recently on his way to Waterloo where he had business that called him there.
—Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Suckow were at Sioux City over Sunday, going there on Saturday morning and returning home this morning.
—Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Platt and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cary were guests several days last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sabin, at New Albin, Iowa.
—Miss Mary Burke, who has been spending a year with relatives in the west, has returned home, greatly improved in health, a fact her friends will be pleased to learn.
—Mrs. O. C. Clark was called to Sioux City last week on account of the death of her nephew, Sam Williamson, who died from Spanish influenza. Mrs. Clark returned home Sunday.
—The plasterers completed their work in the basement rooms of the congregational church building, and the concrete floor is being put.
—Dr. Edna B. Northey and her sister, Mrs. Blanche Bishop Peterson and little daughter, arrived in Manchester from Berkeley, California, Tuesday morning, and will spend some time in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop.
—Fifteen ladies perpetrated a neat surprise on Mrs. A. B. Carhart last Wednesday evening, as a farewell before leaving for Philadelphia, to spend the winter. The ladies brought with them a picnic dinner and a thoroughly enjoyable time was had.
—Mrs. A. B. Carhart left Sunday for Philadelphia, Pa., where she will spend the winter with her mother, and sister. On her way east she stopped off at Chicago, where she was met by her daughter, Miss Nina Carhart, a teacher in the schools at Whiting, Indiana.
—O. C. Clark is spending some time with his sister, in Des Moines. Mr. Clark's friends in Manchester regret to learn that he is not recovering as rapidly from his nervous breakdown as was hoped for, and that he continues to be in a serious condition.
—Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Jennings of Albuquerque, New Mexico, are the parents of a son, born November 11th. Mrs. Jennings will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Bertha Winnard, at one time a teacher in the Manchester schools.
—Rev. and Mrs. Winfield S. Hawkes of Caldwell, Idaho, came last week and are guests of their son, and his family in Manchester. Rev. and Mrs. Hawkes expect to spend some time in Manchester, the former preaching in the court room last Sunday morning, in the absence of Rev. W. J. Suckow. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkes had been spending some time in the New England states, their old home, and are on their way west.

—Miss Mildred Yoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Yoran, is ill with the influenza.
—The Ladies Society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. T. J. Matthews, on Wednesday, November 27th. Ladies, come prepared to sew.
—Mrs. T. N. Arnold expects to leave Thursday for North Platte, Nebraska, where her husband is manager of a branch house of a large wholesale corporation.
—The Golden Meadow Dairy which has been serving a large patronage with milk will continue to be operated the same as before, and no changes will be made because of the sale to be held next week. The sale is held simply to reduce the size of the herd of Holstein cattle.
—Miss Emogene Davis delightfully entertained twenty-four members of the Junior class of the Manchester High school at her home near Delaware last Friday evening. The Misses Rhoderic and Bloxham, teachers in the school, chaperoned the young people to the Davis home. Refreshments were served, and a highly enjoyable evening was had by the Juniors.
—The Woman's Exchange, advertised to take place in the Miss Younggreen's massage parlors on Saturday of this week, has been postponed until next Wednesday, the day before Thanksgiving and everyone is urged to patronize the ladies on that day. There will be lots of good things prepared for that Thanksgiving dinner. Among these articles will be bread, cake, pies, salads, puddings, cranberry sauce. All those who wish chicken should phone to Mrs. O. M. Phenice and give their orders. Remember, folks, that all the proceeds from the sale of these articles goes to help with the work of reconstruction hospital at Fort Des Moines, where hundreds of maimed American soldiers are arriving daily for treatment. Patronize the Exchange next Wednesday for the sake of the brave lads who knocked the conceit out of the Kaiser and his bunch of outlaws.
FOR RENT—Good house and barn, with large garden space. Inquire of C. M. Morgan. 48-1
FOR RENT—Modern residence on Liberty street. Inquire of Mrs. O. C. Clark. 48-1
LOST—Between Dundee and Manchester, on road leading past "Merryland" farm, a soil auger, three and one-half feet long. Finder please return to County Agent, Manchester, and receive reward. 48-1
NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATOR
State of Iowa, Delaware County, ss.—
Notice is hereby given, That the undersigned has been duly appointed and qualified as the Administrator of the estate of Nathan Patton, late of Delaware county, deceased. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment and those having claims against the same will present them, duly authenticated, to the undersigned for allowance.
WM. J. PATTON.
Dated Nov. 6th, 1918.

BY-GONE DAYS

Interesting News Items from The Manchester Democrat, Regarding People Who Had Important Part in Early Activities of the County.

—TWENTY YEARS AGO. (November 23rd, 1898.)
Dr. E. T. Alford was visiting his sister, Mrs. Hubert Carr. He had been granted a furlough from his army work, being steward of the hospital in the Second division, 4th army corps, at Anniston, Alabama.
The first installment of winter had come on the 21st, accompanied by snow and a drop in temperature of 40 degrees.
Rev. Daniel Russell of Hancock, New York, was visiting his parents, in Manchester.
Jay Lillibridge and Miss Cora L. Given were united in marriage by the Rev. Henry Tuttle, on Nov. 17th.
C. O. D. Brown, the Dubuque grocer, had purchased the Cooley & Sons grocery store.
—FORTY YEARS AGO. (November 20th, 1878.)
Miss Verda Kelsey was just recovering from a severe attack of diphtheria. A. M. Sherwood had just started to travel for the Wait Manufacturing Company of Grand Haven, Michigan.
Mrs. Fred Newcomb had passed away, leaving a baby daughter one week old.
W. G. Kenyon had gone to Independence to take charge of the branch butter and egg house established there by A. H. Blake.
The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Bremner was celebrated at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Granger. As an expression of their friends' high regard for them they were presented with $50 in gold.
EDGEWOOD.
Mrs. Holtz has received word that her son George has lost his left leg by shell while in France.
Frank D. Beyer of Lime Springs was visiting home folks part of last week.
The W. C. T. U. met Wednesday with Mrs. F. Minkler.
Mrs. Eva Beckwith of Greeley attended the Cemetery dinner Thursday.
Bert Frenness made a business trip to Dubuque Wednesday.
Mrs. Jennie Bred and daughter spent last week in the R. C. Norris home in Strawberry Point.
Mrs. Dell Carlton left Tuesday for Chatfield, Minnesota, being called there by the death of her mother, Mrs. Nancy O'Connell.
Dr. Newman, wife and son, and Miss Mary Newman were over Sunday visitors at Iowa City, making the trip in their car.
A force of men are busy repairing the depot.
Miss Margaret Richards was up from Greeley Thursday calling on friends.
Miss Tabor spent the last of the week in Manchester.
Mr. R. C. Norris was a business caller in town Monday.
Jim Cross was a caller in Strawberry Point Monday.
Mrs. Agnes Smith of Strawberry Point spent most of the week with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Hanson.
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davis spent Sunday in Strawberry Point.
Miss Nellie Witt was visiting in Strawberry Point the first of the week.
Mrs. Ralph Witt enjoyed a visit last week from her son, John Hook, who is one of Uncle Sam's boys.
Miss Grace Welterlin has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Leroy Pilgrim, who is one of the S. A. T. C. boys at Mt. Vernon visited home folk over Sunday.
Mrs. Westwick of Arlington spent Monday in town.
Mrs. Brooks returned to her home at Hopkinton Tuesday evening, after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Blanchard and family.
Edgewood friends extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Platt of Manchester in the death of their only child, Alva Cary.
Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Gray and two children spent a few days the last of the week in Cedar Rapids and Iowa City.
Mrs. Ed Hanson spent Thursday in Strawberry Point.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ball of Dundee visited relatives here the first of the week.
Mrs. John Hamlett and daughter are visiting relatives at Armour, S. D.
A force of men from the Heener Hardware in Strawberry Point were in town last week installing a furnace in the Catholic parsonage.
Mrs. Harry Martin, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is but little better.
Miss Crabb of Greeley spent Thursday in town.
Morris Heener of Strawberry Point was a short caller in town Tuesday.
Frank Robinson made a business trip to Strawberry Point Friday.
Mrs. Sarah Huftalen, a member of the faculty at Upper Iowa was in Edgewood Saturday.
Dr. White was called over from Eldkader last Sunday to see Mrs. Neva Heener, who is improving very slowly.
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beyer and daughter, Mrs. L. Shaffer were callers in Manchester Wednesday.

FOR THANKSGIVING AND THE HOLIDAYS

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

If you need a suit of warm all-wool materials, an overcoat of generous weight, heavier underwear, shirts, neckwear—or anything else in correct dress for men and young men—you will find it here. Particularly, we call your attention to our

Hart Schaffner & Marx and Kirschbaum Clothes $25, $30, $35, $40 up to $50

And these days it is not alone a matter of looks, but of health, that makes it necessary for a man to be comfortably clad.

Your money does its greatest duty when you link it with our Chain Store Buying Power

Gildner Bros.

Iowa's Largest Clothiers Get To Know Us

The minutes of this meeting were read and approved.
a. K. Cramer, clerk of Hopkinton precinct
W. R. Reeve, clerk of Hopkinton precinct and janitor service
Farmers Supply Company, fuel for election
H. L. Main, room rent
C. R. Rath, judge of Richland and return of ballots
H. C. Spangenberg, judge of Richland
F. W. Meyen, judge of Richland
J. L. Gilbert, clerk of Richland
J. E. Burroughs, room rent for election
James Rogers, judge of Earlville precinct and return of ballots
O. J. Spilhaus, judge of Earlville precinct
Albert Volt, judge of Earlville precinct
B. F. Faust, clerk of Earlville precinct
F. J. Seger, clerk of Earlville precinct
Masonic and Town Hall Company, room rent and storage
T. W. Delaney, judge of Milo
H. D. Claus, judge of Milo
J. F. Sheppard, judge of Milo
Glenn E. Pajon, clerk of Milo
George S. Banta, clerk of Milo labor and return of ballots
H. E. Carrothers, judge of Prairie and return of ballots
C. E. Lyman, judge of prairie
W. J. McMahon, judge of Prairie
Earl Buschnell, clerk of Prairie
William Welch, clerk of Prairie
Nick Offerman, judge of North Fork
Fred Hackbarth, judge of

Table with 3 columns: Name, Amount, and Precinct. Lists various individuals and their contributions to election expenses.

The War Is Over

We have just received a carload of Manny's Best Wheat Flour, and can sell same at $3.00 per sack, and you need not buy substitutes, either. We also have a carload of shorts and bran.

The Farmers Commission Co. W. J. Davis, Manager.

Heating Stoves

Just now we have a good stock of heating stoves and ranges in all the popular sizes and covered by a wide range of price. When our assortment is broken we are not sure that the factory can fill our orders promptly. We urge all our customers to buy now while we have the line to choose from.

Hutchinson & Atwater

Advertisement for Claude Wright, a photographer. Text includes 'YOU SEE YOURSELF Reflected in a mirror—a perfect likeness. OUR PHOTOGRAPHS Reflect your likeness just as perfect with the added DISTINCTIVIDUALITY Of our own inimitable lighting effects. Claude Wright "Quality Photographer."'

Advertisement for Farmers & Merchants State Savings Bank. Text includes 'THE BANK FOR ALL THE PEOPLE INDIVIDUAL SERVICE TO FIT YOUR NEEDS HOW STRONG ARE YOU? PHYSICALLY, a man is no stronger than his weakest spot. Financially, he is just as strong as his surplus. A man's earning power is good, only so long as the season is favorable or he has the ability to compete with a younger man. If you have a surplus drawing interest in this bank, outside conditions do not affect the returns. Farmers & Merchants State Savings Bank Manchester, Iowa SAFETY COURTESY SERVICE'

BOARD PROCEEDINGS

Manchester, Iowa, November 11, 1918. State of Iowa, Delaware County, ss.—
Be it remembered on this 11th day of November 1918, the same being the date fixed by law for the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors the said Board met at their office in the Court House at Manchester, Iowa, all members being present.
The following resolution was adopted:
BE IT RESOLVED, that one half of the cost of the maintenance of Rebecca Patterson at the asylum at Independence be paid from July 1st, 1918 and continued during her care at said hospital by Delaware county.
To the Board of Supervisors of Delaware county, Iowa.
The Delaware County Agricultural Society, a duly organized corporation of Delaware county, Iowa, hereby represents that it owns in fee simple, grounds in said county, at least ten acres of which are free from encumbrance, and have thereon improvements exceeding Two Thousand Dollars in value, and therefore petition that a sum of One Thousand Dollars be appropriated from the funds of Delaware county, Iowa, to aid in the operation and maintenance of said corporation as authorized by Sec. 1659 of Code Supplemental Supplement 1915, November 11, 1918.
THE DELAWARE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.
By E. W. Williams, Secretary.
A motion was made, seconded, and carried that the above petition be granted. This meeting adjourned to meet as a Board of Canvass at twelve o'clock noon.
The Board of Canvass adjourned until nine o'clock Tuesday November 12th, 1918.

SLEEP AND REST.
One of the most common causes of insomnia and restlessness is indigestion. Take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper and see if you do not rest better and sleep better. They only cost a quarter.—For sale by A. C. Phillip.
NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATORS.
State of Iowa, Delaware County, ss.—
Notice is hereby given, That the undersigned have been duly appointed and qualified as administrators of the estate of W. A. Lang, late of Delaware county, deceased. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment and those having claims against the same will present them, duly authenticated, to the undersigned for allowance.
E. P. LANG.
F. H. LANG.
Dated Nov. 19th, 1918. 48w3.
DELAWARE COUNTY FARM BUREAU FARMERS' EXCHANGE.
FOR SALE:
1.—Pedigreed Poland China spring gilts, 20, spring boars 15. Price $50.00. Big Bob breeding.
2.—Registered Angus Bull, age 13 months. Price $200.00. A bargain.
3.—White Wyandotte cockerels—well selected.
5.—Fifteen fall and 40 spring Duroc pigs of extra size and quality; sired by Our King Orion 239929, Spoor's $1,000 hog. Also by Royal Gano 212727 and March Monarch 229241, all of the best breeding. Herd all double treated and immune.
WANTED.
1.—200 feeders hogs.
Phone or write County Agent, Manchester, Iowa.