BY-GONE DAYS

Interesting News Items from The Manchester Democrat, Regarding People Who Had Important Part in Early Activities of the County.

FORTY YEARS AGO.

September 17, 1879.

Abner Dunham had taken some of his Jerseys to the Monticello Fair and had received several of the first premiums.

General John A. Logan had passed through Manchester on his way to Waterloo to speak. H. L. Rana and R. W. Tirrill and others joined the party.

John Stewart was displaying to his fellow townsmen a silver medal awarded him by the Royal Agricultural Society of England. On one side was engraved the English coat of arms, with the motto: "God Guide Us," and around the border was the following: "Royal Agricultural Society of England, Mansion House Committee, 1879," and on the reverse side was the portrait of Queen Victoria, Queen Victoria, Patroness."

The Democrat had devoted a column and a quarter to the history and description of the Jones Woolen Mills. We note that the upper mill had been started in 1855 on a capital of $14,000 but his business grew so rapidly that the lower mill was then built and his capital had increased to between $75,000 and $100,000. Mr. Jones had ten wagons travelling through the country selling his goods.

September 24, 1879.

The Manchester Academy had opened for the fall term of school.

Mrs. C. Sanborn was to entertain the Ladies Society of the Congregational church and the gentlemen were invited for tea.

S. Allison, Sr., had fractured his right shoulder when thrown from a wagon.

A. H. Blake had been elected one of the vice-presidents of the International Dairy Association at a board meeting held in New York City.

A. C. Clark, the "creamery pan" man, had taken first premium at the Buchanan County Fair and at the Dubuque Exposition.

A fair was to be held at Wood's Corners on October 1st and 2d.

Dr. C. C. Bradley had gone to Cuba, New York, the home of his boyhood, for a rest.

Allen Loomis had sold his residence to Dr. Hines and had gone to Webster City to live.

John Norris of Delhi had been shot by an unknown person.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

September 20, 1859.

Miss Jennie Rudolph of Canton, S. D., was visiting relatives and friends. Postmaster Summersides was making extensive improvements on his residence.

Miss Isabel McIntosh had entered Des Moines College for special study.

Ed Lusk had gone to Chicago to resume his studies in Hahnemann Medical college.

Miss Harriet Amsden and Miss Bess Williston had entered Oberlin college. Invitations had been issued for the approaching marriage of Mary Myrtle Otis and Jerome Bertley Fish on Sept. 27th. Albuquerque, New Mexico, was to be their home.

Thos. Crouse and A. B. Hetherington had bought the Clarence House livery stock and were to continue the business.

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Dittmer had lost their two year old son, Carl, on September 18th.

In connection with the mention of improvements being made in the Delaware County State bank, the Democrat gave a brief sketch of the organization. We note that its first president was J. S. Belknap; vice-president, Chas. Paxson; cashier, Wm.

Knapp, Wm. Catron, H. M. Conger, E. N. Tomlinson, Chas. Burnside, Ray B. Griffin, W. H. Board, Thos. Toogood, and Chas. Paxson.

September 27, 1899.

R. L. Cheney, formerly a teacher in the High School, had stopped off enroute for Minneapolis.

Earl Toogood had gone to Madison, Wisconsin, to take an electrical engineering course in the state university.

The I. C. R. R. were selling tickets from Manchester to Chicago and return for half fare rates from October 2-9, the occasion being the laying of the corner stone of the new government building at Chicago.

Fred Ford had disposed of his stock of merchandise at Spencer and had returned to Manchester to be associated with his father in the management of the racket store.

The Manchester Co-Operative Creamery Company had manufactured 752,866 pounds of milk into butter for August, the test being 3.7 and the average price paid was 78 cents per hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pinch were the proud parents of a baby boy.

The first frost had come September 26. Traces of frost had been seen on the lowlands but not to injure vegetation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Preussner of Coffins Grove had celebrated the 30th anniversary of their marriage on the 25th.

First Advertisement.

Although the first periodical paper which contained news in England appeared in May, 1622, the first newspaper advertisement published does not seem to have been until nearly twenty-five years afterward. The advertisement related to the sale of a book "applauded by the Clergy of England."

Pleasures Coming Fast.

Merle was fond of bananas. When his father took him into his mother's room to see the new brother that had arrived the night before the child was given a banana as he left the door. "Gee," he cried delightedly; "a new brother and a banana, both the same day!"
