JUDGE A. S. BLAIR ENTERS INTO REST

SUMMONS COMES TO PIONEER LAWYER AND JUDGE AT CLOSE OF USEFUL LIFE.

PRACTICED LAW OVER 30 YEARS

Bar Association of Delaware, Buchanan and Blackhawk Counties Pay Tribute to Veteran Jurist.

Judge A. S. Blair was born in the village of Perry in the state of New York August 24th, 1851. His parents, David and Margaret Blair, moved to Ohio some four or five years later, residing in Lorain and afterward Haron County; and in 1855 they removed with their family to Delaware County, Iowa, and resided upon a farm in the northern part of the county which still is in the family name, and is now the property of Miss E. Blair, the only remaining member of the family resident in this county. Here the father, David Blair, died in 1861, and the mother, Margaret Blair, survived him, passing away in Manchester, Iowa, October 10, 1896, being at the time in the 45th year of her age. Judge Blair was the second child in a family of nine children, of whom four still survive him.

Judge Blair spent his youthful days upon the farm amid the scenes and activities of the average farm boy's life. His earlier education was in the common schools of Huron County, Ohio, going later to Oberlin College and thence to Baldwin University at Berlin, Ohio, where he finished a more than ordinarily thorough course in literature and the sciences.

He began his study of the law as a student in the office of John R. Coburn of Norwalk, Ohio, in 1873, and was admitted to the bar in the spring of 1874 at a session of the Supreme Court of Ohio held at Berryburg, Wood County. During his attendance upon his college courses and his study of the law he taught school from time to time to pay his expenses, and after his admittance to the bar he continued teaching for a year, being then superintendent of public schools at Lexington, Ohio; but in the year 1875 he began his practice of the law at Prairie Du Chien, Wisconsin, May 5, 1887, he was married to Laura Blower, a young lady who had been a student in the school at Lexington, Ohio, while he was superintendent. They moved to Manchester, Iowa, in October, 1887, where they were an ideal home life until the death of Mrs. Blair on January 15, 1918, the Judge following his beloved wife to the great beyond but four years later, his death occurring last Friday, October 25th, in the 68 years of his life.

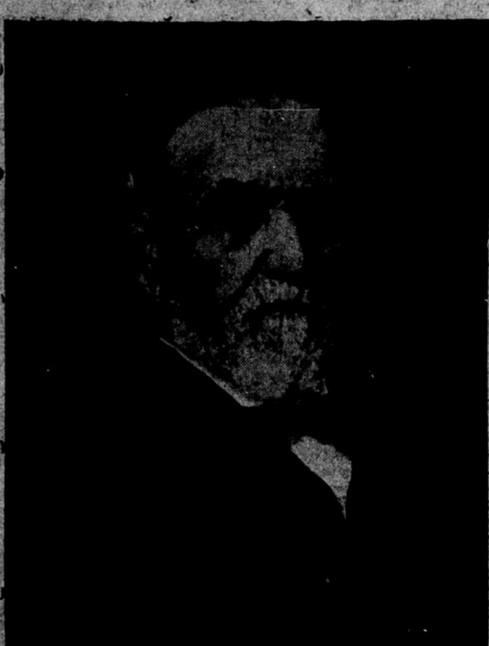

There are surviving his two sisters, Mrs. Carrie DeBell and Mrs. Emeretta Echlin, both now residing in California, and two brothers, John L. Blair of Los Angeles, California, and Miles E. Blair of Manchester, Ia.; also his daughter, Elsie M. Dunham, wife of Judge Geo. W. Dunham, of this city, and two sons, Chas. L. Blair of New York City, and Fred B. Blair of this city.

His acquaintances will always remember him as a man thoroughly interested and active in the life about him. He was a lover of children and of flowers. He was a large and sympathetic heart, quick to respond to the call of the poor and the need of humanity from whatever quarter it came. He was possessed of a fund of general information as to nature and the status and history of world affairs which to those favored with his close acquaintance and companionship, was a continuous surprise and pleasure, and he was to the last an earnest student, his mind eagerly seeking the further mysteries of knowledge. He was always active in public affairs, and all matters of public interest. He early attained and until his death held an enviable position as a leader in his profession and has had a part in presenting to and arguing upon the higher courts many principles of equity and justice demanding judicial recognition and interpretation. And the records of the courts and their decisions will ever bear witness to his activity and his legal acumen. Recognized by the members of his profession and by the public as one fitted to perform the duties and meet the responsibilities of the Bench he was chosen in 1894 to be one of the Judges of the District Court of Iowa, and held that position with recognized credit and ability until by reason of failing eyesight he felt it was his duty to resign which he did in the summer of 1906.

And now in his passing there remains with a host of friends the memory of his life and works as that of a frank, honest, dependable man who loved humanity and strove for justice tempered by mercy, and to the end of his life endeavored to do his whole part to make the world better and the path of humanity smoother because of his life.

He was in heart and thought a humble, God fearing man, and now as when first he expressed what more is loved mercy "but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God."

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at three o'clock from the home of Judge and Mrs. George W. Dunham on East Main street. Rev. W. A. Montgomery, pastor of the JUDGE A. S. BLAIR.

Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment was made in the family lot in Oakland cemetery. The members of the Delaware County bar, Attorney Trewin of Cedar Rapids, Hon. M. W. Harmon, R. J. O'Brien, and Mr. and Mrs. George Corlies, of Independence, and the following attorneys and court officials of Waterloo and Cedar Falls attended the services in a body: Judges H. B. Boies and Williams, of district court; Judge F. C. Platt, formerly an associate of Judge Blair in this district; A. J. Edwards, Alfred Lonkley, Walter P. Jenson, E. H. McCoy, J. T. Sullivan, E. J. Wanner, J. S. Tutbill, J. W. Arbutch, A. B. Lowrey, F. E. Farwell, G. E. Pihl, M. J. Butterfield, J. C. Murtach, H. E. Tully, G. W. Edwards and F. W. Edwards of Waterloo; W. H. Harner and J. B. Newman, of Cedar Falls. The latter was Judge Blair's court reporter. Fred S. Pettit, clerk of district court was also a member of the party.

At the conclusion of the funeral services the attorneys from Blackhawk, Buchanan and Delaware Counties assembled at the Court room, where an impressive memorial service was held. At this service a number of the attorneys from each bar association spoke eloquently of the life and the Judge Blair lived and the great services he had rendered the district during the half century of his active life. The following resolutions were read and spread of the record of the District court of this county:

RESOLUTIONS.
WHEREAS, the Honorable A. S. Blair, Ex-Judge of the District Court of Iowa for the Tenth Judicial District, previously thereto for forty years a practicing lawyer of renown, has been summoned by death to appear before the Supreme Judge of the Universe. It is fitting that our Delaware County Bar Association, of which he was the honored President continuously since its organization, memorialize in suitable resolutions for permanent preservation the many virtues and noble character of our esteemed brother.

RESOLVED: That his twelve years of service as Judge of this Tenth Judicial District for the years 1894 to 1906 inclusive, terminated only by his voluntary retirement because of impaired eyesight, merits commendatory mention for his faithfulness in the performance of all the onerous duties of his office. His thorough investigation of the legal propositions involved in cases tried before him, his careful consideration without partiality or prejudice, of every fact bearing on the case, and his maturely weighing all issues in his well poised judicial mind in the scales of his always active common sense, endeared him to the bar of his District and fittingly crowned his active services in his chosen profession.

RESOLVED: That, as members of the Bar of Delaware County, Iowa, we mourn the passing from our midst of the esteemed President of our local organization, who, for fifty years of his active life as lawyer and jurist, was conspicuously identified with legal issues determined in the courts of this county.

We treasure as precious memories his recitals of incidents of legal practice in the pioneer days, and therefore remember his enviable record for success in maintaining the rights of his clients and promoting the interests of justice.

He counted not, nor charged at high rates per hour, the time he regarded as necessary, and which he used thoroughly to prepare a case for presentation in court, but, at all costs of labor to himself, sought to be always equipped for maintaining successfully the cause he espoused.

While strenuous in contending for his views, and striking hard blows to demolish all opposition, he was an exemplary lawyer in dropping from social relations the antagonisms of a legal contest while you were in the Ser-

HOME SERVICE SECTION AMERICAN RED CROSS

MISS WILLA RICHARDSON BEGINS WORK HERE AS SECRETARY OF HOME SERVICE.

HAS OFFICE IN COURT HOUSE

All Soldiers and Sailors Are Urged to Avail Themselves of Benefits Offered by Red Cross.

Miss Willa Richardson, who has been selected by the Delaware County Chapter of the American Red Cross to be the Executive Secretary of the Home Service Section of the Red Cross, returned from her six weeks course at Saginaw, Michigan, and has opened her office on the second floor of the Court house. During the six weeks that Miss Richardson has been at Saginaw she studied the work that is to be done by the Home Service Section, and is well posted on all of the problems connected with that branch of the Red Cross work.

The Home Service section of the American Red Cross is doing a noble work for the soldiers and sailors who have been discharged from the service, and who come up against hard problems in getting back into civilian life. It is not an organization such as the Associated Charities, but its work is largely confined to the welfare of soldiers and sailors and their families. The Red Cross stood by the soldiers on the battle fields of Europe, and is going to give every assistance to these men now that they are again entering civilian life. The Red Cross welcomes all soldiers and sailors home, and if any of the men have difficulties in adjusting matters incident to their army or navy career, they should call at the office of the Secretary of the Home Service Section of the Red Cross, and advice and assistance will be gladly given by Miss Richardson. The officers of the Home Service Section of the County Red Cross are as follows: Chairman, A. O. Stanger; Secretary, Mrs. E. M. Carr; Committee, W. H. Hutchinson, Mrs. Will Duttley, Mrs. Charles McCormick; Miss Willa Richardson, Executive Secretary.

Men who were in any branch of the service or their families, should see Miss Richardson if they are in need of any assistance whatsoever regarding such matters as:

Liberty Loan Bonds—If the Government has not as yet sent you your Bonds, we can assist you in securing them.

Mileage—Your travel pay should have been at the rate of 5c per mile. If you were not paid at that rate, we have the blank forms for requesting the additional pay and will take care of this matter for you.

Insurance—We can assist you in converting and regaining your Government insurance if it has not gone unpaid for more than 9 months. A new Physical Examination is necessary after your premiums have gone unpaid 3 months.

Compensation—If, when you came out of the Service, you were not in as good shape physically, as when you entered, we can assist you in getting compensation.

Vocational Education—If you are entitled to compensation, you should learn what Free Federal Vocational Education will mean to you in fitting you for the future.

Allowance and Allowance—We can assist you in straightening out and securing other.

Bonus—This means $50.00 to you; we can assist you in securing it.

Medical Attention—If your case is compensable, you are entitled to medical attention at the expense of the Government. Even if the cause for medical attention did not originate while you were in the Ser-

JUPITER FLUVIUS BEATS THE STORM KING.

Early last week the Storm King started from his mountain fastnesses in the far northwest with a larger stock of October winter than he has carried for upwards of a score of years. He started eastward as he always does, and last Thursday the weather man at Dubuque commenced to send out his notices that Jack Frost was on his way for Iowa and was due to arrive Thursday night or Friday. So confident was the weatherman that no power could prevent the coming of Jack Frost with ice and snow that he kept repeating his warnings for several days, but Jupiter Pluvius moved up from the south with a warm rain, and met the wintery blasts of old Jack Frost out near the western border of the state. Out in that vicinity the two forces contended for supremacy last Friday, Saturday and Sunday and Jupiter won so far as Iowa was concerned. The Storm King was obliged to turn northward from his usual path and last Sunday he passed through North Dakota and Minnesota leaving behind him a trail of almost record breaking October frigidity. The mercury fell to 9 degrees below zero in Montana, and Sunday it was ten degrees below zero at Bismarck, North Dakota. Monday night the mercury dropped to 25 1/2 degrees above zero here in Manchester, and that is the coldest it has been so far this fall in eastern Iowa.

Our fields are still green and our forests are still brilliant with the rich chromatic colors of the early fall.

ARMY CAMP IN CITY.

The vacant lot just east of the Park Hotel had the appearance of an army camp several days last week. Eighteen regular army men from Camp Grant had been touring the state of Iowa recruiting men for the regular army, and moved from place to place with four large motor trucks, one "75" field piece, Red Cross ambulance, and an officers car. The unit was in command of a Major from the 6th Division and came here from Independence. On Monday they left for Dubuque to do recruiting work. The men pitched two good sized tents and several smaller ones on the vacant lot and had their kitchen outfit, the same as those used in the larger army camps.

... we will assist you in getting attention without expense.

Legal Advice—We are well equipped to give you this assistance without expense to you.

Leaving Lost Baggage—If you have not received your baggage since your discharge from the service, we can render you assistance in locating your property by corresponding with the various ports of entrance in this country.

ACCEPTS CALL OF MANCHESTER CHURCH

REV. H. L. GOUGHNOUR BEGINS WORK HERE SUNDAY, NOVEMBER END.

YOUNG MAN OF UNUSUAL ABILITY

Education in Temple University, Philadelphia, and Columbia University, New York.

Rev. H. L. Goughnour, for two years pastor of the First Brethren church of Waterloo, has accepted the call which the First Congregational church extended to him at a meeting of the church held Sunday evening, October 19th, and will commence his work here on Sunday, November 2nd. Rev. Mr. Goughnour will move his household goods to Manchester as soon as he can pack the same, and he and his family will occupy the parsonage, just east of the new church building.

Rev. Mr. Goughnour was born at Johnstown, Pa., his father's family living two miles from the city when the flood occurred. His father was engaged in business there at that time. Mr. Goughnour attended Ashland College at Ashland, Ohio, graduating from the preparatory school there. He received his A. B. from Temple University, Philadelphia, the school of which Russell H. Conwell is president. He completed his work for a M. A. degree at Columbia University, New York. He has been engaged in the ministry since he was twenty years of age, working his way through school by filling pulpits in various churches. In addition to student pastorates in Ohio he has served churches in Philadelphia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Waterloo, Iowa. The year before he came to Waterloo, he spent in Madison, Wisconsin, as a member of the faculty of the University. He served the First Brethren church of Waterloo a little more than two years. His pastorate there was pleasant and fruitful.

Mr. Goughnour is a young man of pleasing personality, and is an able pulpit speaker. He and his wife are deeply interested in young people and as a result of their efforts with the young people they had in the Waterloo church a large Sunday School and Young People's organization.

Rev. Mr. Goughnour visited Manchester some weeks ago, and met a goodly number of the members of the Congregational church, and business men of the city. In writing to the clerk of the church the first of the week he says: "I was very favorably impressed with Manchester as a town when I visited there, and was delighted with the people I met. The cordiality of the members of the Congregational church had much to do in my deciding to come here."

The people of Manchester generally will cordially welcome Rev. and Mrs. Goughnour and their son.

There will be special Reformation services next Sunday at 2 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. Eugene Melchert, Pastor.

L. L. COON TO LEAVE COUNTY.

L. L. Coon and his family, living a few miles northeast of Manchester will leave for Adams, Wisconsin, during the month of November, and intend making their home there in the future. Mr. Coon has sold his farm to Geo. Dichtmiller, of near Manchester, who gets possession of the farm next month. Mr. Coon will hold a public sale on the premises on November 10th, and will advertise the sale in The Democrat next week.

Friends of the Coon family regret to learn of their intention to leave the county, but wish them success and prosperity in their home.

RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE.

The Red Cross Membership roll call will be made from November 2nd to 11th this year, and every one will be given an opportunity to enroll as a member of the Red Cross. All it requires to become a member of the Red Cross is a heart and one dollar. Red Cross is a heart and one dollar. support of every citizen, the American Red Cross needs the list. Delaware county will be thoroughly organized for this drive and every adult person will be given an opportunity to join.

PYTHIAN SISTERS 30TH ANNIVERSARY.

Last Wednesday evening, October 23rd, being the 30th anniversary of the Pythian Sisters, Hypatia Temple No. 27 celebrated the occasion in a most pleasing manner.

A sumptuous banquet was served at 6:30 followed with toasts by Mrs. A. W. Stearns, Mr. A. M. Cloud, Mrs. C. M. Morgan and Mrs. F. P. Cary; Dr. H. M. Bradley acting as toastmaster.

The dining room was decorated with Halloween lanterns and other trimmings appropriate to that occasion and there were over one hundred members present.

The program for the evening was as follows:
Piano Solo, Military Polonaise, Chopin
Berceuse from Joselyn Godard
Mrs. C. M. Morgan.
Vocal Duet, "Love, Here Is My Heart"
Ebbes and Silens
Mrs. Robert Harris, Mr. Martin.
Reading, The Wooden Arm—Original
The Model Husband—Original
Miss Margaret Stanger.
Reading, The Poppy and the Pink
Katy Old.
Miss Lois Pyle.
Farce, "The Charmed Circle", by members of Hypatia Temple.

HOGS BRING GOOD PRICE.

The sale of Duroc Jersey hogs held by George Banta last Saturday afternoon brought out a fair sized crowd of buyers despite bad roads and weather. Some were present from quite a distance and one of the bidders sold went to John A. Satterlee of Independence, a prominent breeder of Buchanan county, Orvis Miller, north of Manchester, paid the top price of the sale when he gave $101.00 for a gilt of March farrow. She was a striking individual that elicited many compliments from the breeders attending the sale and was from a litter of sixteen pigs of which all but three were raised and ten of which were sold in the sale last Saturday. F. Keenan of near Masonville bought the highest priced boar at $98 and J. C. Nieman bought a litter mate at $60.00. Both animals were of superior merit and might easily have sold much higher to conservative buyers. The offering of boars averaged $50, which was satisfactory to Mr. Banta and certainly were bargains for the purchasers.

The Pythian Sisters will hold their next regular meeting Wednesday evening, November 5th.

Congregational.

The newly called pastor, Rev. H. L. Goughnour, will begin his work in Manchester next Sunday. All members and friends of the church are urged to attend the preaching services both morning and evening. Sunday School at 10 A. M., followed by the preaching service at 11 A. M. Evening preaching service at 7:30.

AN ARGUMENT FOR GOOD ROADS.

N. E. Davis of this city, and a farmer of southwest of Robinson, demonstrated what a farmer is able to do with a modern farm motor truck. On Thursday morning Mr. Davis took one of the Oldsmobile trucks which Herman Little has been selling here for some time, and drove to the McGuire farm, loaded ten fat hogs in the truck and started for the Corn Belt Packing Company's plant at Dubuque, and it was just four hours from the time that they left the farm until one of the hogs had been slaughtered. Mr. Davis stated that they had not the slightest difficulty in hauling the ten fat hogs over the country roads. If it takes only four hours to haul a load of hogs to Dubuque over a highway that hasn't been in such a deplorable shape as the Hawkeye Highway is between Manchester and Dyersville at this time, how long would it have taken Mr. Davis to make the trip had the highway been paved? Farmers of Delaware County should bear in mind that Waterloo, Cedar Rapids and Dubuque all have up-to-date large packing plants, and if the highways to these cities were paved so as to permit the hauling of heavy loads at all times of the year, they would be in a position to watch the markets closely and haul a load of hogs or grain to these markets when the time was propitious.

Forty years ago or more when the pioneer settlers of this county wanted a market for their grain they were obliged to take two days to make the trip to the Sageville Mill a short distance north of Dubuque, and two days for the return trip. Certainly the Motor car and truck have eliminated distance to a very great distance. A large number of the counties in Iowa have already voted to pave their primary road systems, among these counties being Buchanan, Blackhawk and Linn, counties through which the main highways pass from Manchester to Cedar Rapids and Waterloo. From the standpoint of real economy the farmers of Delaware County cannot afford to waste time and money building dirt roads on the primary system. Enough money has been wasted years to have made a good start towards putting in a pavement that would have lasted for many years, and given the people a road that was passable the year round.

If we had paved roads across this county it is safe to say that a large per cent of the produce raised on Delaware County Farms would find its way to the larger markets on motor trucks just as the farmer's hogs were taken to market when they were ready, not when the railroads were ready to haul them, or the big packers to buy them.

AUTO THIEF IS CAUGHT AT LOGAN

SHERIFF'S OFFICE NOTIFIED THAT HOAG CAR IS LOCATED AND MAN HELD.

SHERIFF TO BRING MAN BACK

Gives Name as Roy Alken, and Is Said to Admit Having Taken Car at Globe Hotel.

The Sheriff's office was notified Tuesday afternoon by telegram that a man, who gave his name as Roy Alken, had been arrested at Logan, Iowa, and is charged with stealing the William Hoag Ford car at the Globe Hotel corner last Friday evening. The car which Alken drove into Logan has as the serial number the exact number which Mr. Hoag had on his car, and the engine number corresponds with that on the engine in the Hoag car, save for the last number in the serial, and this discrepancy, the officers say, is easily possible in transmitting by wire serial and engine numbers.

It is said that the man admitted taking the car at the Globe hotel corner last Friday night, so that there can be little question but that the right man is held for the theft.

Mr. Hoag and Deputy Sheriff, H. F. Dutton left Tuesday night for Logan to identify the car, and take charge of the man. If Mr. Hoag finds that it is his car he will drive it home, while Mr. Dutton will bring the thief back on the eight o'clock train this evening.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY.

Justin McCarthy, one of the trusted and reliable employees of the United States Fish Cultural station at Spring Branch, died at his home last Wednesday night. Mr. McCarthy had been in his usual good health up to the day before his death, and on Wednesday evening he called on one of his neighbors and seemed to be feeling as well as usual. Thursday morning, when his grandson called him he received no response, and upon entering the room discovered the lifeless form of his grandfather.

Funeral services were held at the home last Friday afternoon and interment was made in Oakland cemetery. Rev. H. F. McDonald had charge of the services.

Mr. McCarthy was born in Kane County, Illinois, and was 59 years of age at the time of his death. He came to this county in early life and for many years was engaged in farming at Spring Branch.

He was united in marriage with Libby Packer on March 9th, 1884. Mrs. McCarthy passed away at Spring Branch April 1st, 1917. During the past few years he has been in the employ of the Fish Bureau at Spring Branch, and was one of the trusted and faithful workmen employed there.

Mr. McCarthy is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Flisk of Manchester, and Mrs. Anna Chastell, of Arkansas; and five brothers, John McCarthy of Kansas City, Mo.; Sylvester McCarthy of Waterloo, Iowa; Samuel McCarthy of Independence, and Thomas and Michael McCarthy of this city.

Mr. McCarthy's unexpected death brings profound sorrow to the sisters and brothers, and the grandson, who has made his home with him for some time, and in their sorrow they have the profound sympathy of many friends.

HALLOWEEN DANCE AT ARMORY.

One of the big social events of the season will be the dance given at the new Armory on Main street on Friday evening of this week. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the dance is putting forth special efforts to decorate the hall in the season's colors, and arrange other details for the convenience of the people who will attend the dance.

Donnelly's orchestra of Anamosa will furnish the music. Dancing will begin promptly at 8:00 in the evening and cease at 1 o'clock. There will be no time lost for the supper hour, since provision is going to be made to serve lunches in the armory from 10 o'clock until all who wish lunches are served.

Tickets to dance, $1.00 plus war tax. All spectators, 25c plus war tax. The check room will be in charge of a competent man who will look after your property.

Come to the Armory on Halloween evening for an evening of pleasure.

Methodist Church.

Sunday services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Morning topic: "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go"; Communion Address. Evening topic: "The Man with the Automobile" or "Reckless Driving on Life's Highway. Other services as usual."

LITERARY DIGEST ISSUED WITHOUT COMPOSITORS.

The possibilities of publishing a magazine without the use of typesetters became apparent when a copy of the issue of October 18 of the Literary Digest, just off the press was exhibited. The entire magazine, comprising 80 pages, is printed from plates made by photographing the original typewritten copy.

The new form in which the Literary Digest appears is the result of an attempt to print a magazine by dispensing entirely with the need of setting type. Each page is in effect a photographic copy of the original article as written on the typewriter.
