TWENTY REDS ARE CONVICTED

Lloyd and Fellow Advocates of "a Dictatorship of Proletariat" Guilty.

ALL GIVEN PRISON TERMS

Chicago Prosecutor Declares Jury's Verdict Will "Silence Sedition"— Says Revolutionary Use of the Strike is Made a Crime.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—William Bross Lloyd and his 19 fellow advocates of a "dictatorship of the proletariat" were found guilty of sedition by a jury in Judge Oscar Hebel's court.

All were sentenced to imprisonment. Some received jail sentences. Others—including Lloyd—were sentenced to the penitentiary, some for one year and others for an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years.

In addition to prison terms, Lloyd and two others were fined $2,000 and two were fined $1,000 each.

The defendants and the penalties inflicted follow:

Prison sentences and $2,000 fine: William Bross Lloyd, Winnetka millionaire, sergeant at arms at Communist Labor party convention, organizer, backer and leading spirit in the "movement." Ludwig Lore, New York, editor of Class Struggle; Arthur Proctor, Chicago.

Prison sentence and $1,000 fine: Max Deidacht, San Francisco, Cal.; member of the national executive committee; Jack Carney, Duluth, Minn., editor and publisher of Truth.

Indeterminate prison sentences: L. E. Katterfeld, Dighton, Kas.; brains of organization, national organizer; Edgar Owens, Moline, Ill.; state secretary; L. K. England, Moline, Ill.; member of state committee; Niels Kjar, Chicago, member of national executive committee.

One year in penitentiary: Samuel F. Hankin, Morris A. Stollar, James A. Meisinger, Charles Krumbain, Samuel Ash, Chicago.

One year in the county jail: Perry Shipman, Rock Island, Ill.; Dr. Oscar J. Brown, DeKalb, Ill.; Edwin Firth, Indianapolis, Ind.; Dr. Karl F. Sandberg, Niels J. Christensen, John Vogel, Chicago.

Will End Sedition. The verdict was received with great satisfaction by State's Attorney Hoynes and Special Prosecutor Frank Comerford. The latter declared it "a history making verdict," which would "silence sedition."

"It will serve notice on those who seek to foment unrest in this crisis of world reconstruction of what is in store for them," he said. "It shows that America will think her way out of the difficulties ahead and that advocates of violence will not be permitted to plunge us into chaos and civil war."

"The verdict convicts the movement as well as the men behind it, and establishes a precedent which makes criminal the meeting of men for the purpose of advocating the overthrow of the government."

Labor is Vindicated. "The unlawful mouthings of traitors are condemned. Organized labor is vindicated. They claimed union card carriers followed the red flag. Union men on the jury knew better. The revolutionary use of the strike is made a crime. The greatest enemies of organized labor in this country are the reds."
