

FARMERS INSTITUTE IS A BIG SUCCESS

SESSIONS WERE LARGELY ATTENDED IN STATE OF BAD ROADS AND THREATENING WEATHER

ABLE ADDRESSES ARE GIVEN

Interesting Exhibits of Corn, Canned Fruits, Baking and Poultry add to Success of Institute

The Delaware County Farmers' Institute this year easily ranks among the best ever held in the county. In spite of the unusually bad road conditions the sessions were largely attended and more than ordinary interest was manifested in the numerous discussions and various numbers given.

At the Thursday morning session Professor H. R. Smith, head of the Live Stock Exchange of Chicago, who is giving his full time to the work of eradicating bovine tuberculosis, gave a most interesting and instructive address on that subject.

Professor Smith believes that the elimination of the disease from cattle would mean its elimination from hogs and poultry and its very great lessening among human beings, as the hogs and poultry get it from cattle, and children under five years get it from contaminated milk.

Iowa Cattle Affected He explained the tuberculin test which shows that about ten per cent of the cattle in Iowa are affected, although 95 per cent of animals having the disease do not show it except by this test and the lesions found in a post mortem examination.

Thursday afternoon, C. F. Jenness gave a talk on methods of building up a dairy herd, suggesting three main points to observe in the purchase of stock: making sure of the animal's health; selecting an animal conforming to the dairy type; and securing an animal from heavy producing strains.

Senator James H. Trewin then visited with his old neighbors and friends and talked about drainage, both for the individual farm and for the drainage districts that may be created under our laws. He is always welcome to a Delaware county audience and added much to the pleasure and profit of the program.

President J. C. Nelman appointed committees on Resolutions and Nominations, and the afternoon closed with a valuable address on Orchards and spraying by H. E. Nichols.

The Delaware County Farmers Institute, which closed its sessions on Friday afternoon, went on record as actively supporting the campaign to eradicate bovine tuberculosis by the unanimous adoption of the following resolutions:

"Resolved: That a greater use of milk especially by children is essential to their health."

HELPING THE WARWIF CHILDREN.

Through no fault of their own, 3,500,000 helpless children in Central and Eastern Europe become wards of the world, and very many of them would have died of starvation before another harvest time had not this country undertaken to furnish them with food.

This is the only country that was not impoverished by the war. This is incomparably the most prosperous nation in the world, and it is not going to permit any European children to die of starvation this winter. Already two ships loaded with bacon and beans and flour and milk and other food stuffs are hastening to the rescue, and more will follow as fast as they can be loaded.

Hoover says that $30,000,000 is all that is needed, and that is less than 30 cents apiece for every person in the United States. Of course there are many who can't give and some who will not give, but there are enough who have given and will give to insure the necessary funds. And our kindness will be like bread cast upon the waters that returns after many days. The war wasted people whose children are saved from starvation by Americans will never fight America.

E. H. HOYT MENTIONED FOR IMPORTANT POSITION.

The following is taken from a recent issue of the Iowa State Republican, a publication recently launched at Des Moines in the interests of the Republican party. Mr. Hoyt's Manchester friends have not been informed as to his future intentions, but are pleased to know that he has received some very flattering offers.

"No less than four attractive offers have been made to Edwin H. Hoyt, former state treasurer, who quits office this week at the state house. Political gossip couples his name with a plan to have him appointed treasurer of the United States. The movement is fostered by republicans in many sections of the state, although Hoyt has made no move personally in the matter.

"Offers from several corporations have come to Hoyt recently. During his reign as state treasurer, Hoyt displayed marked ability as a public official, and as a business man. That he is no politician was manifest when he suffered defeat in the recent campaign. He was appointed treasurer by Gov. W. L. Harding in May, 1917. He did not indulge in personalities or what might be called 'hot campaigning' in the 1920 primaries, and lost the nomination.

"Hoyt is a native of Iowa, born in Manchester, Delaware county, in 1871. He attended Iowa College at Grinnell and Upper Iowa University at Fayette, graduating from the latter in 1891.

"He organized the Lamont Savings Bank, was a state senator during the thirty-third and thirty-fourth general assemblies. Mr. Hoyt has under consideration the several offers that have been placed before him. He has not yet decided upon his future business connections, but will do so within the next few weeks."

K. P.'S TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE.

Say, some of you young fellows who have not been able to break away from the worries and anxieties incident to the period of reconstruction and uncertainties of market conditions, and because of these worries have not had a real good laugh, just come to the Knights of Pythias hall on Thursday evening of this week, and you will surely get your full of fun. A real minstrel show will be put on, beginning at 8:30. The performance will be under the direction of "Sliver" Rann, world famous chorus director, and he will be assisted by such noted artists as "Doc" Bradley, "Shorty" Blair, Austie Brown, Frank Wilson, "Hummer" Commerford, Edward Hruby, "Gene" Williams, and a great big lot of black-faced chorus singers.

Knights from Edgewood and Lamont are expected to come in large numbers. Following the program refreshments will be served, and then for the real fun of the evening. Every K. P. is expected to invite a gentleman friend, and bring him as his guest.

EARL JUNE INJURED

Earl June, one of the workmen employed in excavating for the east abutment to the new concrete bridge, was terribly injured one day last week, when a large pile of frozen earth and rock suddenly broke loose and rolled down the embankment, pinning him underneath. For a time it was feared that Mr. June had been injured internally, but a marked improvement in his condition is now noted, a fact his friends will be pleased to learn.

BUYING FOR NEXT YEAR

Gilmer Brothers and the managers of all of their stores in Iowa are at Waterloo this week, to meet representatives of eastern manufacturers of men's clothing and furnishings. Manufacturers of clothing and furnishings are all mighty glad to get in on the ground floor when the managers of the seventeen stores are in a city to lay their stock for the coming season. Their total purchases run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and every salesman is after his share, which is only natural.

DOING THE MERCHANTS AN INJUSTICE.

For several days stories have been going the rounds to the effect that numerous merchants of Manchester, in common with merchants of other towns, have been "fined for profiteering." We have made inquiry of a number of merchants, and we are at a loss to find a single one against whom even a complaint had been registered, much less a fine assessed. It is likely that the story had its inception at the time when representatives of the Revenue office were in Manchester two weeks ago to assist a number of persons in making corrections in their 1919 income tax returns, and in several instances additional revenue had to be paid. A case that was called to our attention was that of a merchant, in whose income tax report a slight error was found, and after two men had spent four hours each, they finally decided that the merchant owed Uncle Sam the munificent sum of $2.23 which the merchant gladly paid. Another instance is that of a business man who overlooked having the notary public before whom he acknowledged his report, place his seal on the instrument. It is also reported that a number of farmers were called onto the carpet to have some of their 1919 reports corrected. When one takes into account that making out a correct income tax return is one of the most complicated pieces of work that confronts the farmer and business man, the wonder is that not more mistakes are made. An error in making out an income tax report and being fined for profiteering, are hardly on the same thing, and those who are spreading the latter story will do well to first find out the true facts, rather than passing on a story that is without foundation. The ridiculous part of the whole affair is that these stories should be circulated at this time, when every fair-minded person knows that prices in general are on the down-grade, and that every merchant is obliged and willing to take his loss.

E. M. Hughes has been the chairman of the Fair-Price commission for Delaware county, he having been appointed to that position during the war. He feels, and rightly so, that those who are passing on stories about merchants being fined, are doing them a great injustice, and are doing it either from a malicious motive, or because they have not taken the pains to inform themselves.

WAY-HERMANN The ceremony, which united in marriage Miss Millie Edith Way, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Way of this city, and John E. Hermann, youngest son of William Hermann, of Coffin Grove township, took place at the Congregational parsonage Monday evening, January 24th, 1921, at 8 o'clock, and was read by Rev. H. L. Goughnour. The young people left on the night train for Sioux City and other points in western Iowa, where they will spend a few days with relatives and friends. They will be at home to their friends on a farm two and one-half miles west of Manchester, on the Hawkeye Highway, after March 1st.

The bride comes from one of the best families in this city and is a sensible and attractive young woman. For some time she was employed in the S. K. Myers Music House in this city. She is eminently fitted by home training and natural temperament to preside over the home that is soon to be established.

Mr. Hermann is a natural born tiller of the soil, and has rented the E. E. Moore farm near Manchester, where he and his bride will soon begin housekeeping. During the war he served his country with the 33rd Division, and spent a year overseas. During that time he participated in several engagements in which large numbers of his comrades were killed or wounded. He returned home after receiving an honorable discharge from the army on Decoration Day, in 1919. Since that time he has worked in the Brunswick Phonograph factory at Dubuque, and later took up the trade of the mechanic and worked in the Manchester Auto & Supply Company's plant for some months. After a year and a half of indoor work Mr. Hermann decided that life on the farm was preferable to that in the town and has decided to engage in farming. He and his bride will go to housekeeping with the best wishes of a host of friends.

JOS. HUTCHINSON SUBMITS TO OPERATION. Jos. Hutchinson submitted to a severe operation at St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, Tuesday of this week, and according to word received here today, he rallied from the ordeal nicely, and that every indication is in his favor. His many friends hope that he will soon be able to leave the hospital and return home a well man.

Mr. Hetzler and his wife have sold their farm, known as the William Newman farm six and a half miles southwest of Manchester and plan to spend some time in Illinois, in the vicinity of their old home. MANCHESTER NEARING GOAL IN FUND DRIVE

CITIZENS OF MANCHESTER RESPOND TO CALL OF HUNGRY CHILDREN.

WOMEN DO EFFECTIVE WORK

Less Than One Hundred Dollars Is Needed to Reach Goal for City

"THANK YOU." The receipt card issued by the European Relief Council contains a picture of a thin, emaciated little girl holding a bowl of steaming soup, and saying, "Thank You." The executive committee of the canvass that is being made for this cause in Delaware County desires to pass on this "Thank You" to the citizens of Manchester. The quota of $1570, which was Manchester's share, is just about raised. One hundred dollars more will put Manchester over the top, and $16 of this last hundred have already been promised. The canvass will be continued until the city's entire quota is secured.

This article of appreciation is being written by the one who was asked to line up the organization for the canvass in Manchester city. He is mighty proud of Manchester's record. Manchester hasn't turned a deaf ear to the cry of hunger that comes from the children abroad. Six months from now 157 children will be dancing as Europe's crops are harvested, who, if Manchester residents had not had a heart, would be dead or lingering in incurable disease because of undernourishment. The smiling, happy, full-tummy'd thanks of these 157 children are hereby passed on to all the generous-hearted persons, who gave contributions to save their lives.

The thanks of these children are hereby passed on, also, to those who worked to make the canvass a success. The genial gentleman who made the exceedingly thin soup that sold for $5.00 per plate, the persons who contributed the ingredients for the soup (especially the Water Company that contributed so lavishly), the ladies who sold the soup tickets and the ladies who made the house-to-house canvass, all these are given the children's thanks.

Those who have contributed may rest assured that, insofar as humanity it is possible, every penny they have contributed will be exchanged for food that will be given to starving children. Any who want to help toward Manchester's last hundred dollars may give their contribution to W. W. Matthews, in the Farmers and Merchants Bank, or to C. G. Yorlan, chairman of the committee. We ought to reach our quota since we are so near.

It is sincerely hoped that the residents of Delaware County who do not live in Manchester will do as well as the residents of Manchester have done. H. L. GOUGHNOUR.

LOCAL FACTORY HAS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

$128,000 WORTH OF ARTICLES MADE AND SOLD DURING YEAR 1920.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD MONDAY

Directors and Officers Elected for Ensuing Year. C. B. Baumgartner Re-elected General Manager

In the National Manufacturing Company, Manchester has a manufacturing plant which ranks well with the manufacturing plants of smaller cities and towns of Iowa, according to the report submitted at the annual meeting held in the director's room of the Farmers & Merchants State Savings Bank on Monday afternoon. According to figures submitted by the manager of the plant, there were made and sold during the past year approximately $123,000 worth of gates, corn cribs, hay and stock racks, feeders, posts, etc., and that about twenty men were employed during the year. The pay roll for the year amounted to approximately $25,000.

The National's plant is complete. During the past year a saw mill was installed, and enables them to cut their own lath for the manufacture of grain bins and corn cribs. Additional ground had to be purchased during the year, in order to handle the rapidly increasing business of the factory. At the stockholders' meeting on Monday the following directors were elected: C. B. Baumgartner, Dr. H. M. Bradley, A. M. Cloud, Fred H. Munson, Charles Lundell, M. J. Yorlan, Dr. E. G. Dittmer. Officers elected for the year are: President, A. M. Cloud; vice president, Dr. H. M. Bradley; treasurer, Fred H. Munson; secretary, Frank Lundell, general manager, C. B. Baumgartner.

During the past year the entire output of the factory was more than doubled over that of 1919, and a neat dividend was paid to the men who have invested their money in the local factory.

LECTURE AND ENTERTAINMENT AT SAND CREEK CHURCH.

Sydney L. Chandler will lecture at the Sand Creek church on Friday, January 28th, at 8 o'clock. He is professor of sociology at Cornell College and is an advanced student of social problems. During the season of 1920 he delivered 35 lectures on the subject of Chastaucau circuit in New York and in the New England States. He was educational director in the Sixth French Army during the last two years of the war. His duties took him into the heart of the front at Chateau, Soisson, on the Marne, at Ouris, Vesle and at Chemin Des Dams.

In the anti-Tammy campaign in 1913 he proved himself to be one of the best effective speakers against Tammy Hall. By his effectiveness it was possible to break down, for the time being, the power of the Hall force.

His subjects will be a discussion of how the world is "Getting ready for the next war." He will show how a complete catastrophe would occur if a war would follow the great crisis through which we have just passed. He will tell of the preparations for war and conditions threatening war throughout the world and will contrast the war forces of the world's most powerful nations. Such was the subject for fifty of his lectures last season and all advanced students of social problems who heard him, highly recommend him as an authority on all social problems.

A male quartet composed of members of the Cornell Glee Club will sing several selections preceding and following the address of Prof. Chandler. Harold Ballz, of Olin, first tenor, besides singing in the Glee Club is an accomplished pianist and pipe organist and studies music extensively at the Cornell College Conservatory.

A Merlin Sones, of Anamosa, second tenor, has had two years experience in the glee club. Clark Galloway, of Fort Morgan, Colorado, first bass; besides having sung four years in the glee club has done solo work as well as having for some time directed the choir of the Trinity church in Cedar Rapids.

Merrill Dryden, of Clarion, second bass; he has been for three years a member of the glee club and has had wide experience in quartet work. The quartet will sing some of the old favorites of the past, a few strictly modern selections and one or two humorous numbers. The program will be varied by a solo by Galloway. Coffee and doughnuts will be served to all after the program. A dollar and a half entertainment for the small sum of thirty-five cents.
