

COLESBURG.

Rev. J. W. Whittier of Wood was in town Friday and his niece Miss Whittier accompanied him home for the week end. She is teacher of the 3rd grade of the C. C. S.

The Zion Missionary Society gave a farewell recently for Mrs. J. W. Holscher, before her removal to Earlville. The meeting was a surprise and was held at the Holscher home. A nice time is reported. Refreshments were served and Mrs. Holscher was presented with a nice gift.

Mrs. Harry Gull was hostess to the Ladies Aid Society of the U. B. church on Wednesday and served a sumptuous dinner. The ladies present quitted and pieced quilt blocks, and we suppose the men just gossiped.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Morten were agreeably surprised Monday evening when their friends and neighbors dropped in for a farewell party. The family will depart ere long for their new home near Springville, Erie county, New York.

Mrs. W. M. Lemen returned Wednesday from a visit at Dubuque, Anamosa and Iowa City.

Mrs. H. Hall and Miss Louisa Bristol are both numbered among the sick.

Mrs. F. A. Olinger was at LaCrosse Wisconsin, recently to attend the funeral services of her young nephew, a lad of thirteen years.

Joseph Brown's team took a lively sprint in the north part of town Tuesday evening. The team was hitched to a bobbed in which several young folks were enjoying a sleigh ride. The sled was upset and the occupants unceremoniously dumped out, luckily without injury. The horses continued to run and were finally stopped near the P. B. Bristol home.

Peter Bristol was a business caller at Edgewood the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holscher were given a farewell party Tuesday evening by the members of the Loyalty of the M. E. Sunday school and the M. E. choir. Ice-cream and cake were served as refreshments.

Mrs. J. C. Brown had her house wired for electric lights during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Raymond are the parents of a baby girl born, Feb. 10th. Grandpa Sam is wearing his new title with becoming dignity.

The sad tidings of the death of Mrs. R. M. Grimes of Burlington, California, were received by relatives here Tuesday. She had been seriously ill for about three weeks in a San Francisco hospital, suffering from a general breakdown of the system. Mrs. Grimes was a Colesburg girl, formerly Miss Anna Kneel, and was in her 72nd year. She was united in marriage with R. M. Grimes, October 19, 1870, since which time their home has been in the West. They visited Colesburg in October 1919, and last October celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The husband, three daughters, three sons, two sisters and two brothers survive.

J. W. Holscher and family have taken up their residence in Earlville, whither they moved their personal effects on Wednesday and Thursday.

Benjamin Brown had partially recovered from an attack of the quincy, when he had a relapse and was very ill for a time.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Kreumpel is ill with pneumonia.

Earlville and Colesburg, town teams played basket ball here Thursday evening. The score was 34 to 27 in favor of Colesburg.

The High school quintette went to Dyersville for a game Friday evening and were badly defeated.

Dr. C. H. Jacobs passed away at his home here at three o'clock Thursday morning, February 10th. Following a long period of ill health, due to a complication of disorders. He was the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jacobs and was born at Colesburg, Iowa, October 20th, 1865. The brother Frank died in infancy and the parents passed away many years ago. He received his education in the public schools of this city and Bayless Business College of Dubuque. He then completed the course in dentistry at the State University, Iowa city, and located in his home town. He built up a lucrative practice here, which he continued for about thirty years. He was united in marriage with Miss Effie Potts, December 26th, 1892, and his wife survives to cherish the memory of a kind and devoted husband. "Charlie" as he was familiarly known to his friends, was of a happy temperament, and even during the months of falling health always had a smile and cheery word. He was an enterprising citizen, and a loyal member of the following fraternities, Constellation Lodge No. 67, A. F. and A. M. Minnehaha Chapter No. 344 O. E. S., Colony Lodge, I. O. O. F. and the A. O. P. His passing from the home circle, the fraternal circle and the community has occasioned deep sorrow and regret. He will long be held in affectionate remembrance. The funeral services were held from the M. E. church Sunday afternoon and were largely attended. The Masonic service was used, both at the church and cemetery. Hon. C. E. Scholz of Guttenburg, was Master of Ceremonies, and delivered his lecture most impressively. Rev. W. Minor Lemen and a mixed quartette assisted in the services. The body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery and laid tenderly to rest amid the floral emblems of the fraternal orders he loved, and floral tributes tendered in sympathy by friends. Peace and consolation to his loved ones.

Funeral services for Mrs. John Hansel were held Monday with interment at Bethel. Her husband passed away less than a year ago. Three daughters and two sons survive.
