

IOWA NEWS BRIEFS

The house passed the Fackler bill having this end in view, and the same principle is likely to appear in other legislation.

As a result of a broken heart over the loss of his two sons caused the death of D. W. Wheelwright, a prominent physician of Boone recently.

Fire at Grand Junction destroyed the Buck & Frye livery barn. One horse valued at $2,000 was burned to death. Origin unknown. Total loss $10,000.

The proposition to change the present commission form of city government to the council manager form was voted down at Fort Dodge three to one.

For keeping and selling cigars contrary to law, Gust Brecht, proprietor of a near-beer saloon in Tama, was fined $25 and costs in a justice court recently.

Paul McMaster, a Tama boy is in the hospital in Casper, Wyoming, for several weeks as a result of exposure. It was necessary to amputate one of his feet.

The Mississippi river at Clinton recently was clear of ice, the earliest in the memory of river men. At no time during the winter did the ice become of sufficient thickness to cut.

By a majority of about three votes to two Iowa City decisively defeated the proposal to organize the city under the commission-manager form of government at a special election.

In a series of liquor raids federal prohibition agents in Dubuque county captured six stills, two of them the largest ever taken in Iowa, 300 gallons of moonshine corn whisky and 1,000 gallons of mash fermentation, the whole valued at $35,000.

Representative J. H. Anderson of Winnebago county and J. C. McClune of Mahaska county are leading a movement to permit the use of the primary road funds, including federal aid funds, for the construction of important bridges and culverts on secondary roads, if deemed desirable.

Mount Vernon showed some good passing in this period.

Mount Vernon went a head at the start of the last half and held a lead of about five points for the first 15 minutes. Manchester started fighting and Byam found the elusive hoop and tossed in three baskets in short order, these, with the aid of free throws and baskets by McKeag and Klaus, put Manchester in the lead and they stayed there for the remainder of the game.

Corell, Robinson and Klaus played good defensive games, while Byam led the offense.

Summary and line up:
Manchester Mount Vernon
Ryan RF. Miller
McKeag LF. Current
Klaus C. Tollman
Corell LG. Fordyce
Robinson RG. Batnam
Field goals: Byam 5, McKeag 3, Klaus 1, Miller 2, Current 4, Tollman 3.
Free throws: Klaus 2 out of 5, McKeag 7 out of 10, Tollman 1 out of 2, Lentz 0 out of 1, Current 0 out of 4.
Substitutions: Hockaday for Robinson, Robinson for McKeag, Lentz for Tollman. XX

BUCK CREEK CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL HELD NOT PROPERLY ORGANIZED

That the Buck Creek Consolidated School District was declared to be illegally organized was the judgment of the court signed Monday the 21st instant. The district as it was intended took in a large part of Union township and two sections of Hazel Green. The proposed school house was to have been built near the Buck Creek in Union township.

There was from the beginning considerable opposition to the formation of this school district and became more pronounced as the formation was completed and started to function. The legality of the organization was challenged by those opposed to it and resort was had to a court action. The judgment of the court finally disposed of the matter is as follows:

In the District Court of Delaware County, Iowa, December Term A. D. 1920.

The State of Iowa, ex rel Melvin J. Moran, County Attorney of Delaware County, Iowa, Plaintiff, vs.

Consolidated Independent School District of Buck Creek, in Delaware County, Iowa, et al, Defendants.

This case coming on for hearing the plaintiff represented by its attorneys, M. J. Moran, County Attorney, of Delaware County, and Carr & Carr and Edwards, Longley, Ransier & Harris, and the defendants represented by their attorneys of record Bronson & Tierney and Fred B. Blair, it further appearing that all defendants have been duly served with process and have duly appeared by counsel the court finds that its jurisdiction of the subject matter and of the defendants is complete.

TRIAL TO THE COURT: Upon the trial of this issue as made and the evidence introduced the Court finds the allegations of the petition to be true, and further finds that the defendant, the Consolidated Independent School District, of Buck Creek, in Delaware County, Iowa, not to have been legally formed and organized and that said pretended School Corporation has unlawfully exercised a public franchise within the State and that said defendant has acted as a corporation within the state without being authorized by law, the Court further finds that defendants, Clyde Thompson, Ray Dighton, Warren Winch, M. O. Smith and H. B. Sill have unlawfully exercised public office with this state, to-wit, that of school directors of said pretended school corporation, the Consolidated Independent School District of Buck Creek. Judgment is therefore rendered herein that the defendant Consolidated Independent School District of Buck Creek is in fact no corporation and that it be ousted and altogether excluded from any public right, franchise or duties, and that the other defendants be ousted and altogether excluded from the office of directors of said Consolidated Independent School District of Buck Creek, and that plaintiff have judgment for costs against all defendants.

E. B. STILES, Judge of the Tenth Judicial District of Iowa.

MANCHESTER DEFEATS MOUNT VERNON 27 TO 19.

In the worst exhibition of basketball seen on the local court this season Manchester nosed out a victory over Mount Vernon after being on the short end of the score for the majority of the game.

At half time the score stood 10 to 9 in favor of Mount Vernon. There was nothing to feature the first half, unless poor team work and basket shooting could be called a feature.

Clowns---and Relaxation

It was one of the world's greatest physicians, the famous Sydenham, who first went on record as opposing the use of drugs in the treating of disease. This was in the latter part of the 15th century.

Sydenham was about 400 years ahead of time. It has been only in the last few years that it has come to be generally admitted that drugs are mostly worthless.

When Sir Richard Blackmore asked Sydenham for a good guide in practice, the great physician replied that the arrival of a good clown would do more for the health of a city than the arrival of twenty asses laden with drugs.

Clowns! God bless 'em. That's what we need. Mankind needs laughter more than pills, powders and potions.

We need to laugh—to relax.

Relax. That's the secret of health. Nature will take care of repairing our body machine if we'll get the kinks out of it.

However, in this rushing, keyed-up age it's hard to relax. Impossible to KEEP the kinks out of the bodily machine. Laughter helps. In a quieter, more placid age, it might turn the trick almost entirely.

But—hurry, rush, bustle, bang, step lively—that's 'today. Bodily kinks are inevitable.

Right here is where the science of Chiropractic comes in. Chiropractic takes out the kinks. It removes the cause of disease. It adjusts the body to normal so that the bodily machine can function normally, nature intended.

Chiropractic is a cheerful science. Chiropractors' offices are cheerful. There's an atmosphere about them you'll like. In almost every one of them you'll see a sign which says, "Keep Smiling." The Chiropractor does. You're expected to. You WILL after you've had a few Chiropractic adjustments.

Live your life to the utmost. Get your body Chiropractically adjusted. And keep smiling.

P. S.—How long has it been since you've read Mark Twain? Or seen a good comedy at the theatre? Or watched Doug. Fairbanks' antics on the screen? Or laughed heartily?
