

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS & ITEMS

DELAWARE

(Last week's letter) Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Veldon are the happy parents of a little son who came to their home Friday, December 2. Saeley Kaster has again opened up the livery barn ready for livery business. Dell Zirtzman of Dubuque spent Tuesday with his parents. Mrs. John Brown is on the sick list at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zirtzman attended the funeral of Reuben Pinch at Manchester Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Spear were business callers in Manchester the fore part of the week. Walter Orberg of Earlville was in town Tuesday. A. W. Sacketa will move this week into part of Nettie Ball's house. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zirtzman attended Grange Lodge at Manchester Saturday. Mrs. Bartels and daughter visited relatives in Monticello Friday and Saturday. Helen Boots returned to her home in Monticello Friday night. Earl Wilfong accompanied her home. C. H. Maack was up from Earlville the fore part of last week. Jim Oakes is laid up with a bad foot having the misfortune of having the push car loaded with rails run over his large toe and breaking it and bruising foot badly. Mrs. Rob Davis of Manchester spent Friday with her children here. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bock of Earlville visited Friday evening at the Curtis home. Mr. and Mrs. Denure, daughter Annie and son, Jesse of Delhi spent Monday at the Jim Oakes home. Henry Maack was an Earlville caller Sunday. Low Davis and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Davis' brother, Albert Clemens and family in Earlville. Mrs. Mortinson and Mrs. L. Davis were Manchester business callers Friday evening. Mr. Hinkhouse of Hopkinton was in town Monday. All the churches are preparing programs and will observe Christmas. Ida Crosby spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Matthew in Earlville recently. Mr. and Mrs. Bond were Hopkinton visitors Friday. Pete Persson and A. W. Sacketa were business callers in Manchester Monday. Hod Coe and Ida Crosby were Manchester callers Saturday.

HOPKINTON

President Hinkhouse will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit morning and evening. The firemen held an oyster supper at the opera house Thursday evening. An auction sale of pies and cakes which had been donated was a feature of the evening. Wednesday evening the high school basketball team defeated the Delhi boys and girls teams at Hopkinton. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Oehler returned Wednesday evening from Davenport where they had been visiting in the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. McArthur. Will Edgar and family arrived recently from Regina, Sask. They will move to the Edgar farm across the river in a couple of months. Mrs. Clara Kragebrink and daughter, Viola are moving into the house with the former's mother, Mrs. William Beltz. The Kragebrink farm has been leased to Henry Wilson. Mrs. M. R. Doolittle of Milwaukee delivered two addresses Sunday at the Presbyterian church. The annual praise meeting of the Ladies Missionary Society was held at that time and the addresses were on Home and Foreign missions. Mrs. Doolittle was a guest of Mrs. R. A. Wallace during the week. Viola Kragebrink has entered Lenox College for the remainder of the year. She spent the first of the year at Epworth Seminary. The Hopkinton High School basketball team played Cascade at that place Friday evening winning the game 25-8.

EDGEWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pilkington autoed to Manchester Monday afternoon. The Commercial club were very pleasantly entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner by the Ladies club last Tuesday evening. Mesdames Flenniken and Hatch were in Strawberry Point Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Eischeid of this place and Mr. Ladage of Strawberry Point have bought a creamery at Cresco and expect to leave here January first. Mr. and Mrs. Eischeid were callers in Manchester, Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Holtz of Greeley spent Thursday with their daughter, Mrs. Will Boehm. The house on the Will Smith farm, north of town was entirely destroyed by fire recently. Quite a number from here autoed to Greeley Thursday night to attend the married folks dance. Mr. H. Waldo was a business caller in Strawberry Point Wednesday. Mrs. McClain spent the first of the week in the Albert Pilgrin home. Mrs. D. W. Newman was shopping in Strawberry Point last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Halstead Carpenter of Monticello spent Saturday in the Frank Denmore home. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Camp are enjoying a visit from the former's sister and five children, who arrived Tuesday evening from Dakota. Mrs. Vada Odell of Greeley spent Monday in the Abb Eaton home. Mrs. Elsie Ward left Wednesday evening for her home in Waterloo. Miss Otella Ferander of Greeley was an over Sunday visitor in town. Mrs. De Forest Alcorn and three daughters are here from Roscoe, N. Dakota visiting relatives and friends. Dean Alcorn, who had the misfortune to break an arm while cranking the car, is getting along nicely. Mrs. Aucutt of Manchester was canvassing our town Wednesday and Thursday. The Post Office inspector and a civil service officer were here last week inquiring into matters pertaining to the appointment of a new postmaster. Miss Mabel Dufley has closed her school near Arlington and came home Saturday night. Mrs. C. B. Madison was in Waterloo last week visiting relatives. Her sister's husband, Mr. Leonard has had to return to the hospital again for another operation. Mr. and Mrs. Lorena Plat of Manchester were calling on friends here Tuesday. Mrs. Eva Mellen spent Friday with her parents in Fayette. Mrs. Ethel Melle spent Friday with her parents in town. Mrs. George Ashline spent a few days of last week with her daughter Mrs. Hugh Rizer in Manchester. Mrs. Mayme Terry was a brief caller in Manchester last Saturday. Harry Martz has gone to points in Oklahoma and Texas where he expects to find work. Mr. Walton a nephew of Mrs. Whipple is visiting at Hotel Whipple. Mrs. James was down from Arlington last week visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boehm and little daughter were Manchester callers last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin and baby are spending a few days in the Zeke Martin home near Greeley. Mrs. Tim Wandell came last week from California for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Richardson from south of Manchester spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Doc Coolidge. Mrs. Alex Ferris is very ill at this writing. Dr. and Mrs. Hanson spent Thursday in Dubuque. Mrs. Brown and daughter, Myrl came up from Manchester Saturday morning for a visit in the Ralph Camp home. Mrs. Julia Nading returned to her home in Dubuque after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Lamphere and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Madison, and Mesdames, Blanchard, Flenniken and Gray autoed to Dubuque Friday. Mr. Eli Hindal came home from Des Moines the last of the week where he went to spend a few days with his children. Mrs. Clemens and daughter, Lila were in Strawberry Point, Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davis were calling on a relative in Strawberry Point last Saturday.

Mesdames Wiley, Amling and Miss Gallagher and Father Murtagh and others were in Strawberry Point Saturday to attend the annual dinner given by the Catholic Ladies. CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and effective cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of young children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief and is free from opium and other harmful drugs.

EARLVILLE

Robert Hunt a highly esteemed and well known farmer of Bremen township passed away at an early hour, Friday morning in Finley hospital Dubuque, from the effects of an operation performed a few days previous to his death. He was born in Bremen township December 7, 1846 and was the eldest of fifteen children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt. His father died February 16, 1839 and his mother passed away February 14, 1919. Robert Hunt spent his entire life on the farm and learned from his father the best methods of farming. Upon reaching young manhood he started farming for himself independently. On January 15, 1890 he was married to Miss Mae Sperring, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt operated a fine farm of 390 acres, three miles from Earlville. They reared a large family of children and by industry and thrift realized a handsome profit for their labors. Mr. Hunt was a kindhearted generous husband and father and entirely devoted to his family and home. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Leroy, Mrs. Ruth March, Mrs. Stella Robinson, Mrs. Olive Kramer, Mrs. Esther Schmidt, Mrs. Ethel Arnold, John Hunt, all residing near Earlville. James and Mrs. Edith Blinnings of Earlville, Ernest, Charles, Nellie, Gertrude, Harold, Ralph, Elva and Ella at home. Mr. Hunt was a member of the Mystic Workers. His political allegiance was given to the republican party and at one time he served as road supervisor and also held the office of school director for four years. His honesty and integrity commanded the esteem and friendship of all those who have been brought in contact with him. Besides his immediate family, Mr. Hunt is survived by the following brothers and sisters: George, Mrs. Nellie Sperring, Darley, William, Sydney, Mrs. Edith Arnold, Henry, Mrs. Elsie Tietze, Leslie, all of Earlville and vicinity; Mrs. Alice Goranson of Thompson, Winnebago County, James of Manchester, Mrs. Phoebe Malvin of Belle Fourche, S. Dak., Mrs. Eva Staehle of Minneapolis. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed at this writing. Word was received here Friday afternoon announcing the death of Mrs. Otto Muesel at her home in Delaware. Grace Hersey and Annie Ede spent Tuesday in Dubuque. The Parent-Teachers Association held a largely attended and interesting meeting in the high school auditorium

KILL THAT COLD

Take a hot cupful of BULGARIAN BLOOD TEA Increase the blood circulation, flush the kidneys, stimulate the liver, ward off flu, grippe and pneumonia. Sold by druggists and grocers everywhere.

Wednesday evening. Many good talks were given by parents and teachers and a program of Folk Lore songs were sung under the leadership of Miss Wood. Dr. Bogard of Manchester was present and gave a good talk on the value and care of teeth which was illustrated by lantern slides. At the conclusion of the program a luncheon was served. Mrs. Paul Hackbarth departed Wednesday night for Rochester, Minn. where her husband is in the hospital. His condition does not improve very rapidly. John Clifton was a business caller at Delhi Friday. While out hunting the other day Glen Carty shot a mammoth jack rabbit. Charles Denton received the sad intelligence of the death of his cousin, Mrs. Fred Emery of Galesburg, Illinois. As Miss Mae Moreland, daughter of the late D. W. and Anna Moreland, she was very well known in Earlville which was her birth place. Many months previous to her death, Mrs. Emery injured her spine by a fall and since that time was unable to work. She was about 54 years of age and is survived by her husband, two sons, and two daughters, and her mother, Mrs. Anna Moreland all of Galesburg, Illinois. Mrs. Emery was a graduate of the Earlville high school and of Mt. St. Joseph's Academy of Dubuque and was a cultured woman of great beauty of character. Her father, D. W. Moreland preceded her in death, June 1921. Many friends in Earlville deeply regret her passing. W. W. Hockaday of Manchester spent Tuesday visiting friends in this place. Mrs. A. L. Prentice visited relatives in Manchester Thursday. Cards received by friends state that Mr. and Mrs. George Dickson are now nicely located at Miami, Florida and are enjoying the warm sunshine and flowers.

The High School Glee club gave an entertainment in the school auditorium Friday evening which pleased a large audience. The proceeds go toward purchasing music for the use of the club. Miss Mary Rourke of Farley who was teacher of Latin in the Earlville Consolidated school was compelled to resign because of poor health and returned home. She has been succeeded by Mrs. Irwin of Cedar Falls, who now is in charge of the classes. John Werkmeister spent Friday in Dubuque. The Alex Jenney Syncoptators of Dubuque played for a social dance in the opera house, Monday evening which was largely attended. Rev. Father H. J. Dunkel of Dyersville has received official notification from Arch Bishop J. J. Keane of Dubuque of his appointment to the pastorate of St. Joseph's church in Earlville. Rev. Father Dunkel has had charge of the Earlville parish since Oct. 22, 1911 as a mission, which duties he performed in addition to the work of assistant priest to Very Rev. Theo. Warning in the Dyersville church. Father Dunkel has the distinction of being the first charge of the parish as a mission, there were fourteen families members of the local church. By his untiring work the congregation has steadily grown and at the present time there are fifty families regular attendants at the church. Father Dunkel was ordained to the priesthood June 22, 1911 and read his first mass in St. Francis church, Dyersville where he had since labored. He is an eloquent speaker and one of the most popular priests in the arch-diocese. He is well known in Earlville and vicinity and will receive a cordial welcome by his many friends. He is succeeded at Dyersville as assistant priest by Rev. Father Lorenz. Mrs. Mary Brown of Omaha, was a late visitor at the home of her brother, Frank Powell. Joseph Stueve of Peosta, has purchased 40 acres of land in North fork township owned by J. J. Brunkan. Consideration $150 per acre. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gienapp are the parents of a baby boy.

Earl and Emil Lentner of Near Petersburg while out hunting the other day captured a Badger. The boys received a good bounty for the hide. John Hunt who was seriously ill with pneumonia has so far recovered as to be about his house again. His relative, Fred Scheyer of Dubuque is assisting in the farm work. W. C. Garard of Dubuque, gave a lecture in the town hall Sunday afternoon taking for its theme, "Millions now Living Will Never Die." The lecture was given under the auspices of the International Bible Students Association. An oyster supper and program was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Carpenter Thursday evening and was largely attended. The proceeds were given to the Almona Missionary Society. The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion Post met on Friday afternoon and filled a number of Christmas boxes for disabled soldiers in hospitals in Iowa. Mrs. John Boyington of Alden spent a few days visiting her sisters, Mrs. W. W. Taylor and Mrs. Rudolph Wendling. Mrs. Lewis Gibbs had the misfortune to fall down her cellar stairs and was painfully injured. Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Lewis and Elizabeth Glendenn which took place on Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Lewis.

POOR MAN'S DOCTOR THOUSANDS GET WELL

Millions of people who despaired of ever regaining their health are loud in their praise for the Famous Bulgarian Blood Tea, which assists nature to produce such a vitalizing effect upon the human system. It is the poor man's doctor because it is simple to prepare and its cost is very small. It relieves constipation, stomach, liver, kidney and bowel ailments. Taken steaming hot it helps break up a cold quickly and guards against influenza, pneumonia or other sickness. Bulgarian Blood Tea is sold by druggists everywhere.

A Big Christmas Gift

FOR $1.00 A Savings Account AND A Liberty Bell Bank BUT IN THIS GIFT is represented far more than just a savings pass book and a unique home safe. The Savings Account opened by you will give the recipient a start on the road to thrift. The Liberty Bell Bank will assist in building up this account and be a constant reminder of the independence the owner is saving for. $1.00 Opens a Savings Account and Obtains a Liberty Bell Bank. Security State Bank MANCHESTER, IOWA.

CHICHESTERS PILLS

DIAMOND BRAND. The relief that Dr. King's New Discovery gives from stubborn colds, and oncoming new ones, grippe and throat-torturing coughs has made it the standard remedy it is today. Time-tried for fifty years and never more popular than today. No harmful drugs. You will soon notice the relief in loosened phlegm and eased cough. Always reliable, and good for the whole family. Has a convincing, healing taste with all its good medicinal qualities. At all druggists, 60 cents. Dr. King's New Discovery For Colds and Coughs. The Results of Constipation are sick headaches, listlessness, sallow skin, waste matter in the intestinal system. Correct this health-undermining condition by taking Dr. King's Pills. 25 cents. All druggists. PROMPT! WON'T GRILE. Dr. King's Pills.

The CENTRAL PHARMACY for Christmas Shoppers. Gifts They All Like! Those who are discriminating in the art of giving will give useful gifts this year. No matter how impersonal or intimate your gift is, it can be found here. We can supply you in gifts for anyone you might think of, from the Baby to Grandma and Grandpa. French Ivory at 33 1/3% Discount! At this particular time we have a number of Articles in French Ivory which were purchased early in the season and which we found too large or expensive for this year. ON THESE WE ARE GIVING A DISCOUNT OF 33 1-3 PER CENT WHILE THEY LAST. Don't Forget Your Greeting Cards, Books, Perfumes, Cigars and Candies. A. C. Philipp The Store With The Christmas Spirit.

The Buick Universal Joint is Automatically Lubricated

As the arrows indicate, oil from the transmission case constantly flows in and out of the universal joint housing. This automatic oil flow keeps the universal joint fully lubricated at all times without any attention on the part of the car owner. This Buick feature is invaluable in keeping the Buick universal joint a trouble-free unit.

Table with Buick Sixes and Buick Fours columns, listing models and prices.

MANCHESTER AUTO & SUPPLY CO. Authorized Buick Service Manchester, Iowa. WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

ACHES AND PAINS-SLOAN'S GETS 'EM! VOID the misery of racking pain. Have a bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy and apply when you first feel the ache or pain. It quickly eases the pain and sends a feeling of warmth through the aching part. Sloan's Liniment penetrates without rubbing. Fine, too, for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, sprains and strains, stiff joints, lame back and sore muscles. For forty years pain's enemy. Ask your neighbor. At all druggists-35c, 70c, $1.40. Sloan's Liniment Dr. Hobson's Rheuma Ointment