COLESBURG
 Relatives here are in receipt of the sad news of the death of Mrs. Mae Moreland Emery, which occurred at the family home in Galesburg, Illinois, December 2nd. She is survived by her aged mother, Mrs. W. Moreland, her husband, Fred Emery and four children, Marguerite, Eunice, Earl and Dale. Death released Mrs. Emery from a long period of invalidism.

F. M. Brock has returned from Ryegate, Montana, near which place he operates a ranch, and will spend the winter at his home here.

Fred W. Klaus has been confined to his home by illness of late. He is on the mend at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vorwald of Lawler were called here to attend the funeral services of their nephew, Cletus Wernke.

Superintendent M. W. Sims and John A. Smith, President of the School Board, were at Cedar Falls the latter part of the week to attend a school meeting.

There was a game of basket ball at the local gym Friday evening between our High School quintet and the Dyersville town team. The final score was 52-20 in favor of the locals.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson of Rainbeck were recent visitors here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Hyde.

John Wiltale of Council Bluffs, Iowa is looking about among relatives and old-time friends here, and in the vicinity of Elkport, where his early home was. He will be readily recalled as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wiltale, pioneer residents of this section.

The Walker House will be taken possession of by the new proprietor, Manuel Wiltale, January 2nd, 1922. Mrs. J. W. Bush will move into the M. E. Dittmer house.

The proceeds of the M. E. church fair were around $185. A limited number of articles yet remain to be sold during the holiday season. The fair was very successful both in attendance and from a financial point of view. Friends responded graciously to the solicitations for food and sale articles, and the thanks of the M. E. ladies are hereby extended to all who aided in any way.

Mrs. P. D. Peck and Mrs. Alice Hyde are numbered among the sick in our town. Friends hope that both ladies may recover speedily.

Mrs. J. C. Brown went to Earlville Saturday in response to a message that her daughter, Mrs. Amy Powell, was ill, threatened with pneumonia.

Mrs. Stella Phelps has been at Elkport the past week making the acquaintance of her new grandson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jaster. Mrs. Jaster will be remembered as Miss Sylvia Phelps.

Edw. Hodges has been very sick with bronchial trouble, super-induced by a gripe. He is somewhat better at present, though still confined to his bed.

Mrs. F. H. Schenke and daughter, Lola of Greeley spent the week end with kin at Colesburg and attended the M. E. church bazaar.

At the declamatory contest held at the High School assembly Friday evening, Miss Bernita Grimes won first over all, and Freda Wessel second over all. Marguerite Lomen was first and Opal Phelps second in the humorous class. In the dramatic, Bernita Grimes was first, Ella Koenke second, while Rosella Mitzner and Lucile McDowell tied for third place. Miss Dorothy Keyes of Manchester and Rev. H. J. Lomker of this place, acted as judges.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wernke and children have been sorely bereaved in the recent death of their son and brother, Cletus Wernke. The young man, who was seventeen years of age succumbed to a brief critical illness from liver trouble, Sunday evening, December 4th. He had not been in his usual health for some time, but his illness did not become alarming until the Tuesday immediately preceding his death. Cletus was a Junior in the Colesburg High School, and was well liked by his teachers and classmates. In the home, he was a well beloved son and brother, obedient and kind, and the home is very sad because of his going away. Rev. D. F. Minogue had charge of the funeral services which were held from the Catholic church Wednesday morning. Interment was made in the Catholic Cemetery at Petersburg. There was a large attendance at the funeral, and a profusion of beautiful flowers. Profound sympathy is extended to the family in the loss of their loved one.

The buildings on the John Schrank farm with the exception of the house and chicken house, were burned Saturday night. We are without particulars as to the origin of the fire. Ted Hansel lives on the place.

I. L. Moreland and Howard Schrank were at home from their work in Dubuque over Sunday.

Now the time is here when gift decisions must be made and so many perplexing problems are still on most minds, but the answer can be found in this man's store. Don't struggle with such problems at home. Come where the multitudes of gift things are on display. Here are the beautiful things, the useful things—the comforts of life and all those giftable necessities that make such pleasing gifts.
