

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1872.

NOTICE. All communications, either of an editorial or business character, should be addressed to HILTON & CAMPBELL, No. 13, Broadway, N. Y.

Our names mentioned in an advertisement, subscription or job work, will not be published unless the advertiser has sent in the full amount of the bill.

James Cook is an authorized agent at Hustonville to collect for Job Work, Advertisements, as well as Subscriptions and arrears of money for the same.

Original poetry first for each word. It will be before the first word is written. We will not pay for blank space.

Local. We are opening to a fresh of matter, we are desiring to lay over several local items until our next issue.

Postively. We will not insert communications of any kind, without the name of the author or not published, but as a guarantee of good faith, the name of the author of an advertisement, will be published.

Wm. Wm. McKee Fox. This gentleman was in our town this week, and he declared himself a candidate for Congressional honors. Col. Fox is a gallant gentleman, a fine lawyer and ready debater.

Complimentary. We have received a complimentary ticket to the 6th grand fair of the Mechanics and Agricultural Association of Lexington, to be held at New Haven, commencing on Wednesday, April 24th, 1872.

Births. To the wife of Robert Fisher, of this county, on the 14th inst., a daughter.

Circuit Court. Our spring term of the Circuit Court convened on last Monday, Judge Fox presiding. A large number of Commonwealth cases have been disposed of, but only a few trials have been held. The court will probably adjourn about Friday next.

Religious. We learn from D. L. Stephenson, Esq., that a very interesting meeting is being held at the Hall's Gap church by Elder R. C. Gill, of Anderson county. The meetings are largely attended each day by members of all denominations.

Stanford Fair. We are requested by several of our citizens who are interested, to give notice that a meeting will be held in a few days to make preliminary arrangements for holding the Lincoln County Stock Fair. We are assured that it will be held at the same time as heretofore, viz. about the 23rd and 25th of July.

Beauties. Our town has three or four of the handsomest, in fact and truth, the most beautiful girls in the part of the blue-grass region, and if we should happen to give the names of those to whom we refer, we are of good taste and judgment would for a moment deny the assertion. Young, vigorous, sensible, and smart, how could any one deny this? We defy competition in our pretty girls.

Bevot. We presume the question as to where the first long-horned cow should be kept, may be decided as settled by the Free Association, in unwilling that Paris shall compete with Stanford, but in perfectly willing and anxious to show against Lancaster—provided that a delegation of fair Lancasters will visit Paris to determine the question. The INTERIOR JOURNAL is published at Stanford, Friday Cradock.

Personal. We notice in this week in attendance at court, the following head and good gentlemen: J. S. Vanhook, Hon. A. Hamilton, Judge Durkin, Wm. McKee Fox, R. M. Owsley, R. M. Burdett, Hon. G. W. Dunlap, R. P. Zane, Capt. W. G. Welch, R. M. and W. O. Bostley, A. A. Anderson and R. D. Lusk. There were about thirty attorneys in all present this term of court.

Married. On Wednesday evening, the 16th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, near Shelby Gap, by Rev. Chas. Taylor, the M. E. church, Mr. JAMES MILLER to Miss SARA CHENEAY.

On Thursday evening, 17th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Richard Lay to Mrs. Nancy Stuck.

The meeting of the Presbytery of the Assembly Presbytery at Stanford last week, was not very numerously attended, but the convention was, we learn, quite harmonious and pleasant. We give elsewhere in our paper a synopsis of the proceedings, which were furnished us by the kindness of the stated clerk, Rev. S. McWhorter. An A. A. Hogie presided last Lord's Day at 11 o'clock, A. M., in a large audience from the text found in the 7th and 8th verses of the 14th Psalm, "Thou shalt be as a flock of sheep, on the day of such meetings, of our various christian denominations, are always pleasant and instructive to our people, and we know that the delegates to them are kindly greeted and ever welcome. We regret that the crowded state of our columns prevents us from giving the proceedings of this Presbytery in full.

Calf Thieves. We have heard of many kinds of thieves this week,—horse, hog, sheep, etc., and now we are called upon to record a new species, namely, calf-thieves. Mr. Huben Williams, who owns a farm near our town, but who lives here and there as he could, with a view to getting up a show-bunch of two-year-olds for fall sales. A few nights since some thief or thieves, with the aid of the law, went to his place, and stole from him a number of calves, and took them to parts unknown, with the intention, doubtless, of slaughtering them for beef. There is a set of lawyers who live not far from town, who are willing to work as long as they can steal enough to eat. Doubtless some of these

FROM HUSTONVILLE.

THINK WE WILL. In view of the fact that you have recently had a Presbytery, and C. M. Clay, and have not Circuit Court, a railroad and a town clock, and expect soon to have a circus, it would be decidedly "wonderful" if it did not appear from the West this week. Therefore, we don't do it. Still, fair as we may venture to say, the speech of C. M. Clay, on Monday, seems to have struck one people generally. We hope the thing will do some good. Our people have gone to the Bible, and learned all about the folly of "stealing a God in a mortar." A bad speculation that! But please note the following:

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

On Thursday evening, by Rev. Burke, Mr. R. H. Lee to Mrs. Shuler, both of Lincoln county. This is no joke. It is another of the strange triumphs of Cupid. What an indomitable scamp he is! For seventy or eighty years he has been exhibiting his quiver upon the strong hand of Dicky without success, but, at length, pointing his arrow with the horn of a Durban cow, Dicky fell. Success to Cupid! R. H. was always an admirer of fine stock, and Cupid hit him "where he lived."

FROM TURNERSVILLE.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

On Thursday evening, April 11th, at the residence of the bride's father, in this county, by Rev. Harry Burk, Mr. Richard H. Lee to Mrs. Nancy Shuler.

FROM SOMERSET.

Unprecedented Blue in the Cumberland and Rockcastle Rivers. The late heavy rains have caused a great increase in the water of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The heavy rains of Monday morning and Monday night of last week were almost unprecedented in the amount of water that fell. Our small streams were converted into rivers, and our rivers overflowing the bottom lands, sweeping away fences and everything else that could be reached in their mad career. The following is a partial list of the losses:

The following is a partial list of the losses: The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.

The loss of the Cumberland and Rockcastle rivers, and the water has become a deep blue color. This is a very unusual phenomenon, and is caused by the presence of a large amount of fine sand and silt in the water.