

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

HON. W. S. FRYOR, OF HENRY.

LIBERAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

HORACE GREELEY, OF NEW YORK.

B. GRAZIE BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

WE place these tickets at the head of our columns...

CAMPAIGN CLUB.

As the Congressional and Presidential contest has fairly opened...

COL. A. G. TALBOTT.

With feelings of inexpressible regret, we have heard that Col. A. G. Talbott has declined to be voted for...

The Idiots' Appeal.

A number of friendly tribes of Indians petition Gen. Grant to protect them from the ravages of the white men...

Who Comes Next?

One General E. M. Lee, has written a few reminiscences of the late war, and styles his book (our pamphlet) 'Four years in the saddle with Sheridan and Kilpatrick'...

The Race for Sheriff.

We have but two candidates for sheriff—Messrs. Saunders and Edmiston. There should a convention by all means...

To the Democracy of Lincoln County.

Those of you who have thought it worth your while to make inquiry in reference to the candidates for the office of sheriff of the county...

CRAB ORCHARD, June 24th, 1872.

W. G. SAUNDERS.

DEAR SIR: Yours of 19th inst. duly received and will say that I do not see the use of a convention...

The Appellate Judgment.

Is it true—can it be true, as we have heard, that Hon. J. W. Menzies has declared himself an independent candidate for the Appellate judgeship...

Letter from Horace Greeley.

New York, June 27. The Hartford Times, contains the following: 'Below we print an extract from a private letter to a gentleman in this State...

Who Comes Next?

One General E. M. Lee, has written a few reminiscences of the late war, and styles his book (our pamphlet) 'Four years in the saddle with Sheridan and Kilpatrick'...

Harvard College made Grant an L. J. D.

A few days ago, and our exchanges contain different opinions as to the meaning of the title as applied to Lincoln.

RACE AT LONG BRANCH.

Kentucky's Favorite, Longfellow Wins by Twenty Lengths.

TIME 4:34.

The race between the crack horse of the East, Harry Bassett, and Kentucky's favorite, Longfellow, for the Monmouth cup, for all ages, valued at $1,500...

A Trotting Park.

The trotting horse mania has seized upon nearly all Americans who handle horses, and it is a mania of the right kind...

POLITICAL.

Minnesota is wide awake for Greeley. The Liberals are organizing all over the State.

Virginia Democrats are more heartily.

in favor of Greeley than any Southern State.

Ohio Democrats speak out boldly for the "old white hat."

And so the leaves are at work everywhere.

Judge Davis, of Illinois, has unconditionally declined the nomination for the Presidency by the Labor Reformers.

The Democrats of Garrard county will hold precinct meetings to-morrow to select a candidate for Congress in this district.

Talk about few Republicans in Connecticut being for Greeley?

In one small town up there one hundred of them have formed a Greeley Club.

Next Wednesday is the day on which the Congressional convention will meet in Stanford.

Ample accommodations for all. So come on, friends.

Col. Sid M. Barnes, once the Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky, is now a Greeley elector in Arkansas, where he will do good service.

Theodore Tilton, one of the most ardent Republicans in the North, and one of the best newspaper writers, is out in all his power (and that is very considerable) for Greeley and Brown.

A few of the impracticables in the South say that the Baltimore convention should nominate Wm. Cullen Bryant, editor New York Evening Post, for President.

The Baltimore convention should do no such silly thing.

The New York World, one of the ablest of the Democratic papers in the country, but which for a time seemed determined to oppose Greeley, is now coming under the liberal banner in beautiful order, and will, doubtless, at the proper time, open his masked batteries on the Grant organs and under the banners of the old white hat.

A Trotting Park.

The trotting horse mania has seized upon nearly all Americans who handle horses, and it is a mania of the right kind. Far more profitable than horse-ball, or Regattas, the trotting horse is a valuable animal, and their production and training have resulted in most fortunes to many persons.

The Appellate Judgment.

Is it true—can it be true, as we have heard, that Hon. J. W. Menzies has declared himself an independent candidate for the Appellate judgeship...
