

THE ADDITION.

Plans and Purposes of the New South Side Addition.—Elegant Location for New Homes.

The conveniences to be put in—Inducements offered to purchasers.—Where is Ottawa to grow?

Last Friday evening after the FREE TRADER went to press the papers were signed conveying about 83 acres of land on the south bluff to a syndicate of Ottawa capitalists and business men. The syndicate is composed of Messrs. E. C. Allen, T. D. Catlin, D. Hapeman, D. B. Snow, D. A. Cook, Thos. E. MacKinlay, John Hilliard, James Milligan, Jr., W. C. Riale, Baldwin & Price, T. C. Fullerton, C. B. Hess, D. J. Price, Mrs. D. J. Price, James Briggs, David Basore, J. E. Scott, J. E. Porter, J. N. Shuler and Mrs. H. C. Green.

The property purchased was that of Mr. E. W. Schreeb, situated on the south bluff, east of the principal line of residences. It is really composed of two tracts adjoining each other—one on a triangular tract with the long point east, extending and widening to the west and lying upon the brow of the bluff. This is densely wooded and is about 40 feet higher than the level of the mineral spring grounds. The other portion of the land purchased is a rectangular tract extending south from the first described tract. The first mentioned piece contains about 20 acres and the other 63. Two streets running north and south will be laid out upon the larger portion of the ground. Water mains will be laid from the Caton works and sewer pipes laid down the center of each street.

A meeting of the members of Mr. Snow's law office and appointed an executive committee consisting of D. A. Cook, James Milligan, Jr., D. Hapeman and Thomas Fullerton. The committee then elected James Milligan, Jr., as trustee to hold the title to the real estate owned by the syndicate. D. B. Snow, president; E. C. Allen, treasurer and Thos. E. MacKinlay, secretary.

The above are the principal facts, names, and figures connected with the new enterprise. The plan of the syndicate is to afford new citizens and young men a chance to get good homes cheap. The question is, "Where can Ottawa grow?" It is conceded by every one that it is growing and is bound to grow. If it goes westward it must grow into a sand bank or hollow out a hole in the solid rock. On the north bluff the property is owned by men who are abundantly able to hold it and intend doing so. The east side is pretty thoroughly populated already; so why, it is asked, will not a large share of the next few years growth of Ottawa go to the south side? The gentlemen of the syndicate think it will. Improvements will be made upon the land immediately. One thousand trees will be set out and the streets laid out and gravelled. The lots will be 60 feet by 120 and the streets 80 feet wide.

It is the plan and intention of the syndicate to sell these lots at fair prices and on easy terms, but to keep the neighborhood as free as possible from any undesirable features. For example, no lot will be sold unless the purchaser will erect a house to cost $800 or upwards. No deed will be given except with the written condition that no liquor shall ever be sold upon the premises. It is not desired to encumber the purchaser with rules and regulations, but the neighborhood will be kept in every way good, and pleasant, and desirable, if it be in the power of the syndicate to keep it so.

The prices at which these lots will be sold have not yet been announced, but it is stated that the prices will be low and terms easy. The new citizens of the better class, the most intelligent class, are wanted up there on the new addition, and young men who are just wanting homes; all these are the people whose wants this new addition is intended to supply. In some respects it has the advantage over the addition over at the organ factory. It is further removed from a portion of the business of Ottawa, of course, but then it is also further removed from the factories and the smoke and soot of the railroads.

It is reasonably certain that the lots on this new addition will be sold as soon as they are surveyed and the prices are announced.

The Toboggan Slide.

"How about the toboggan slide?" enquired our reporter of Thomas E. MacKinlay one afternoon this week. "What are you going to do about it this winter?"

"Toboggan slide?" said Mr. MacKinlay. "Yes, sir, we are going to have a slide."

"Where are you going to build it?"

"If Mr. Gleim will let us we'll build it on the same ground we did before, only face it the other way. Then we'll build it with two slides instead of three, so as not to have it so awfully expensive. We lost about six hundred dollars on the slide last year, but it was only because it went out with the freshet. I think that tobogganing is going to be just as much of a craze this winter as ever before. I don't think there is any doubt but that the slide will pay this year."

"How soon do you think you'll begin operations?"

"About the middle of November."

"The same club as before?"

"No. There will probably be six or seven into it. We had too many last year."

"Who is going in this time?"

"I am going in, and Al Schock, and I don't know who the others will be. We are going to have a slide though, sure."

Prof. Willis' dancing school opened very favorably to the prospect of a very pleasant and instructive term. The children's class met Saturday afternoon with a goodly attendance, and at the class for adults, on Monday evening of this week, there were thirty present.

Extra trains have been the order of exercises on all the railroads this week. Every body has been going to Chicago.

Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ottawa city council met at the council rooms on Pig Tail alley last Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. Present, Aldermen Burke, Corcoran, Dinneen, Hull, Hayne, MacKinlay, Maher, Pritchard and Weil. Alderman Titus and his Honor, the Mayor, were absent. On motion of Alderman Weil, Alderman MacKinlay was called to the chair.

Petitions were the first business in order. They were presented and read by the clerk as follows:

Petition of D. Hapeman and others for traveling on the Bloomington road from the centre line of Sec. 13, Town 33, Range 5, to the city limits. Referred to street and alley committee with instructions to report at next meeting the expense of such improvement.

Petition of Alderman Weil and others for the paving of the alley from Court street through to Columbus street, stating that the cost would be $225, of which the property owners there had agreed to pay $125. Referred to street and alley committee.

Reports of committees were next in order. Alderman Weil, of the finance committee, reported, presenting monthly reports of the city clerk, the marshal, and the treasurer. On motion of Alderman Weil, the reports were accepted and ordered published.

Alderman Dinneen, of the sewerage committee, reported that the drainage tile had been laid on Christie street, according to instructions at the last meeting. Report adopted.

A communication from Mayor Allen was read, stating that he had suspended the city marshal for thirty days, and had appointed Thomas Brennan to act in the position of marshal during that time. The action of the mayor was approved by the council.

On motion of Alderman Burke, the city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance, and submit it at the next meeting, requiring the county of LaSalle to lay a good sidewalk around the court house. This motion was carried by a unanimous vote of the aldermen present.

Alderman Pritchard, of the license committee, presented the liquor bond of William Plummer, with Joseph Futterer and Samuel B. Fry as sureties. The bond was approved.

Alderman MacKinlay, of the special committee to confer with the county board regarding Mrs. Hickling's donation of a town clock, reported that he had obtained permission from the committee on public buildings, of the Board of Supervisors, through the chairman, Mr. Griffin, to erect a suitable tower upon the court house, at the expense of the city.

William S. Armstrong presented to the council a statement that some land of his, a strip including part of lots 3, 4 and 5, in block 9 was now being used for a public street, and that he intended to fence it in. Matter referred to the building and sidewalk committee.

A statement was read from Mayor Allen, that he would be absent from the city for some weeks and recommending the election of a mayor pro tem. On motion of Alderman Weil, Alderman Thomas E. MacKinlay was unanimously elected mayor pro tem, to act during Mr. Allen's absence.

Alderman Hull moved that the council authorize no more improvements on streets until the improvements now under way should be completed. Carried. Alderman Dinneen moved, as a sort of appendix to the above, that the street and alley committee be instructed to complete these improvements as soon as possible. This was also carried.

On motion of Alderman Corcoran, a sidewalk was ordered built over the culvert on Courtney street, south of Allen Park.

On motion of Alderman Dinneen, amended by Alderman Weil, the sewerage committee was authorized to build a watering trough on Norris street, near the entrance to the Driving Park, and that the cost be taken from any balance now left by the sewerage appropriation.

The finance committee reported the bill of James Conners for $24.40 for burying nuisances. The claim was allowed.

The pay roll for improving Joliet street in Allen's addition was presented by the finance committee without any recommendation as to their payment. On motion of Alderman Maher, the bill, amounting to $211.25 was ordered paid.

The Ottawa highway commissioners presented a bill for half the expenses of work done on the Prairie Grocery road, the half being $41.34. Referred to street and alley committee, with instructions to pay the bill if found correct.

Alderman Weil, of the finance committee, stated that a tax warrant was issued Sept. 7, to pay the August bills, and that more tax warrants must be issued to meet the bills ordered paid at this meeting. On motion of Alderman Hull the finance committee was authorized to issue a tax warrant for $700 to pay a balance due to P. N. Shiply on a sewer contract.

The monthly bills and claims were read by the clerk and ordered paid. The council then adjourned.

Vicinity Items.

LaSalle has gone back to roller skating for amusement.

The Seneca Record says passenger trains on the K. & L. road have been discontinued.

Miss Agnes Burke, of Ottawa, has accepted a position as trimmer for Mrs. J. V. Carroll, at Streator.

Mr. Charles Dvornick and Miss Dorothy Purcy were married at Utica on Sept. 18th, by Rev. Chas. Boaz.

Rev. D. B. Turney of Peru has removed to Lincoln, Ill., where he will have charge of the M. E. church.

It is rumored says the Gazette, that Chas. E. Handlet will remove to Utica and resign the management of Starved Rock.

The doctors of LaSalle insist there is no diphtheria in that town, much less an epidemic as claimed by the Peru News.

Schueler Bros., hardware dealers, of LaSalle, have made an assignment to Hon. J. P. Trenc; liabilities, $1,823.40; assets, $1,089.54.

The workmen in the Coleman Hardware Co. foundry at Morris have gone out on a strike to resist a cut in wages from $2.25 to $2.00 per day.

Joliet people claim that the stench arising from the river caused by the excess of Chicago sewerage can be smelled two miles distant.

On Saturday night a kerosene lamp exploded in John Cedy's building, on First street, LaSalle, occupied by Mrs. Stuart, which was burned. Loss, $2,000; insurance, $1,000.

Frank Koenig, who a few weeks ago stumbled over a telephone wire left on the sidewalk at LaSalle by an employe and broke his leg, has begun suit against the corporation for damages, placed at $10,000.

Thomas Doyle, Chief of Police, sold in Lestart, the other day, A. J. O'Connor purchasing the warehouse, which brought $500, the corn for 25 cents per bushel, the oats 15 cents, and the rye 20 cents.

Timothy Corbett, an old and respected resident of Ransom, died at his home near that place on Sunday afternoon, aged seventy-six years. His remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery at Ottawa.

Prospects are good for additional coke works, near Streator. The new plant will be built on the river, just at the east end of the I. V. & N. railway bridge where there is plenty of water. This will be another important addition to Streator's industrial enterprises.

David Richey thinks his corn will average 25 bushels to the acre notwithstanding the records in the poorest for a large field in the town of Eden. Others report a fair yield—better than last year. The outcome of a dry year is apt to be surprising even to good judges.—Tonica News.

Owing to continued ill health, John M. Welch of LaSalle has been compelled to sell out his half interest in the Gault House, Chicago, H. W. Fall, for the past 10 years the proprietor of the exchange of that house, purchasing the interest. The new firm name will be Rogers & Fall, and went into effect Oct. 1.

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the Mendota Union Fair last week, it was decided to make an effort to raise a subscription from the stockholders and citizens generally of funds sufficient to pay off the past indebtedness of the association, about $1,000, which is secured by a mortgage on the buildings and improvements and the grounds, and is due Nov. 10th, prox.

We were greatly surprised last week upon receiving an order to print some large cards to put up in one of the churches in Kendall County forbidding the spitting of tobacco juice on the floor of the church; smoking in and about the church, and disorder during services. We did not believe that any such thing was ever done in any community in "Little Kendall."—Yorkville Record.

Arrangements have been made for a day of horse racing at Marseilles on Tuesday next, Oct. 11th. The following races and purses have been provided for: First race, 2:45 class, purse, $100. Second race, three year old class, purse $50. A special running race has also been provided for, and all lovers of fast horses should make it a point to be present. Mr. R. Robinson has been elected president, and R. W. Miller, secretary.

The Streator Free Press says: "Now that the gaunt specter of diphtheria, has stalked into the very heart of the city, breathing an atmosphere of death, and carrying away our loved little ones in its relentless embrace it is time vigorous measures were being taken to stop its further progress. The schools should be closed and the utmost precautions taken to save the children. Better a living ignorant than a coffin prodigy. Stop the schools until all danger is past. At the same time let us caution heads of families to boil what water they use. Perhaps not one well in the city has escaped pollution. Germs of this terrible disease are not destroyed by infiltration. Wells situated even a long distance from vaults, filth and garbage are affected. Boiling water kills all these germs, and makes the cooling draught healthy and beneficial. The clearest, most sparkling water is often that which contains the most of these death-dealing germs. But the schools should be closed at once, so the infection will not spread from that source."

On Sunday evening, between 6 and 7 o'clock, during the first downfall of the storm, three prisoners escaped from the Kanakake county jail by means of a tunnel which they had been secretly engaged on for a couple of days. Sheriff O'Brien fed the prisoners, of whom there were five in the jail, at 6 o'clock, and had just finished his own supper when he was called to the grated door which separates the jail from the sheriff's apartments and informed by Suprenant, one of his prisoners, that three of his jail mates had gone. Investigation showed that pieces of the board flooring had been sawed through and taken up, and a tunnel dug under the foundation. They left their tools behind, with the exception of the saw or the implement which served the purpose of a saw. Two or three pieces of hoop iron obtained from their beds, a tin cup and a couple of wash basins were taken away in the wash basins and either emptied into the manhole of the sewer or thrown into a corner of one of the dark unused cells, under a mattress. The soil is clay which cut easily and did not cave in to hinder them in the least. The foundation walls of the court house are only two feet deep!

From Ophir.

OPHIR, Oct. 5, '87.—Your reporter, after an absence of three months, returns much pleased with his holiday.

The long drought in this vicinity has at least one good result: The dog-fennel, or May weed, as it is sometimes called, which for years has been a great nuisance, has entirely disappeared, and it is hoped will not return.

Corn is ripening fast and it is said that the yield will be far better than expected.

A baseball tournament is one of the possibilities of the near future. It is a good scheme, and we hope to see it carried out. There are a number of good amateur clubs in this and adjoining towns, and if properly conducted a very creditable exhibition might be given, which would no doubt prove profitable to the management.

James Garland and sister spent a few days the past week among friends in DeKalb county.

The time for putting up stoves draws near, and the luckless head of the family needs to brace up and possess himself of an extra supply of patience ere he tackles the frisky stovepipe.

Fred F. Lawrence has erected a new stock barn—one of the finest in this locality.

J. Hastings, of Galesburg, Ill., was the guest of his uncle, Dwight Lawrence, the past week.

James Bagley and Frank O'Neill, of Wallace, have returned from their sight-seeing to this vicinity. The boys seem somewhat loth to enlighten their friends on the sights they saw while away, but as we understand that they will write a book of their travels, we will learn of their adventures if we will wait long enough.

Quite a number from here went to Chicago Wednesday to catch a glimpse of President Cleveland and lady.

Andrew McManus makes the usual Sunday trips westward. Andrew says when the snow flies his craft will wait him steadily southward into Waltham.

Edward Sweeney is repairing his house for a winter campaign. Ed says teaching is a victory of old.

From Marseilles.

MARSEILLES, Oct. 5, 1887.—Mr. Herman Renfrew, of Hastings, Neb., was in town the other day.

Mr. Thomas Tucker has purchased the brick house near the West Marseilles school house, formerly owned by Mrs. A. J. Hobart.

Mr. Robert Brent has sold to Dr. R. N. Baughman his house and lot on Clark st.

Several children will be confirmed at the Catholic church a week from next Sunday. A lawn fete was given by the M'oses Bruce this afternoon. Friends from Chicago are in attendance, as well as a large number from Marseilles.

Rev. L. W. Brigham will hold a series of meetings at the Universalist church, beginning on Oct. 30th and continuing one week. All the friends of the faith in the vicinity are invited to be present.

The prospect is now very fair that we shall have a mill here, operated by Mr. Dawell of Ottawa. We are informed that he is thoroughly sustained financially, having all that is needed to make a success of the business. Marseilles has been cursed by a crowd of sponges, who came here to locate provided they can get a bonus of anywhere from $10,000 to $100,000. What is wanted is men of enterprise—enough to see the desirableness of our water power and the healthfulness of our town to locate here and do business in their own interest, and so promote the town's interest. The manufacturing firms here have done all they could to help.

John Loring, E. Barber, G. L. Clark and lady, Dr. M. E. Blanchard, P. M. McArthur, Sam E. Parr and Frank Brundage went to Chicago yesterday, to see the President. They report the largest crowd ever seen in Chicago.

R. P. Annin, who has for many years been in the employ of the Marseilles Manufacturing Co. as book-keeper, will soon leave here to take up his residence in California. Mr. Annin is one of the very best young men of our town, and we sincerely wish him health and prosperity in his new home.

David Samuels is attending the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. held at Chicago this week.

From Farm Ridge.

FARM RIDGE, Oct. 1, 1887.—Mr. Southgate our worthy mail carrier doesn't seem to object to a change in the weather as he continues to "get there" on time as ever, and to say the least we consider ourselves among the fortunate in the matter of our exchanges.

Mr. A. W. Griffith has at last come to the front with a new fence on the west end of his residence, and by the way it is a creditable affair.

School matters are looking up as they generally do, with Mr. Smith our present teacher.
