LETTERS FROM LOS NIETOS.

We learn that Michael Howles, an old man, and, we believe, a Southern Methodist Minister from Sonoma county, while passing through a cañon about 50 miles west of Los Angeles, last Friday, was stopped by four highwaymen, one American and three Mexicans, and robbed of $385 and a good horse, and then left in the brush, where he remained for three hours before relief came. The old man is now destitute, and his swollen wrists bear a testimony of being tortured by the cords of the cruel fiends.

Hurray for the city of Nietos! Mr. Crowell, the enterprising merchant at the college, is moving his store-house and goods to the new city of Nietos. Mr. Crowell is entitled to the belt and a good run of custom for being the Alpha of this future great city. Who will be next? Don't all come at once! Mr. Beubrooke, the popular saloon man of Los Angeles county, is making arrangements to start a first-class saloon at the new city.

Mr. James Smith erect a large and comfortable hotel. Who speaks first? We want a lively and feed stable, and we must have it. Speak quick, or the chance will be taken.

Drs. Smith and Fulton will be there in a few days with the drug store, and will set the broken limbs, if any should be run over and maimed by the locomotive.

Weather pleasant, days just warm enough to be delightful, and nights just the right temperature to sleep the full twelve hours without feeling in the least fatigued.

Health good, no cholera, no yellow fever, no small-pox or measles, no chills or fevers; but all have an appetite for four square meals a day.

We are waiting with anxious expectations to hear from the Conference of the Methodist Church South, now in session at San Bernardino. Their college will be located at the present session. The magnificent donation by Mr. B. D. Wilson, of a fine frame building at Wilmington for a college, is truly liberal, but it looks to us as useless to the church for a college. A saw-mill is not very remunerative property without timber to saw; neither is a college, where there are no children to educate. If we are forced to board our children away from home to educate them, why not send them to the college already built and endowed? Locate the college at Nietos, and we can stock it with pupils and board them at home. OBSERVER.

REST AFTER EATING.—Every man who owns a horse, and most men are fond of driving, know that the horse cannot safely take its food immediately after work; but how many men apply the same rule to themselves? The New York merchant or financier who takes pride in the fine team which steps before him in the park, would angrily dismiss as a culpable ignoramus the best hostler, who would allow the inmates of the stable to take their midday oats as he takes his lunch in the dining room restaurant. The professor, in the midst of preparing his learned and exhaustive treatise, hears the dinner bell, and begs to be excused for a moment while he spurs up his brain to do just a bit more important work, and rushes with the ink on his fingers and the deep thought-lines still set on his brow, to partake of food which must produce discomfort unless he has the stomach of an ostrich. Remember the rules by which the teamster or the jockey preserves the horse for his labors; rest before eating, quiet during eating, rest after eating.

THE RIGHT TO LIGHT AND AIR.—Chancellor Bates, of Delaware, has delivered a decision of interest to real estate owners and holders. J. H. Primrose, of Smyrna, began over two years ago to build a shed in the rear of his storehouse. The adjoining property is occupied by Dr. J. E. Clawson, and the shed, when finished, would have closed up the window of the doctor's storehouse. He thereupon obtained a preliminary injunction restraining Primrose from work on the shed, and the Chancellor has made the injunction perpetual. He declares, in his opinion, that the right to light and air, enjoyed without interruption for over 20 years, rests on the same grounds as all other corporeal rights; that the common law of England, adopted by Delaware in 1776, provided that where light and air had been admitted to a dwelling, from any quarter, uninterruptedly for a period of twenty years, and that it could not be shut off, and as there was no statute covering the case, the common law must guide him in his decision.

TORNADO.—On Friday morning of last week, as E. M. Day, proprietor of the Cambria stage line, was driving leisurely along the coast between Rafael and Villa creek and the Cayucos, he was overtaken and nearly annihilated by a whirlwind. He informs us that for a time his prospect for making a trip to Europe against the Graphic balloon was very good. His wagon was raised from the ground several times, the cushions and everything in the vehicle was carried away. The air was filled with debris and the howling of the wind so terrified his horses that they stopped and screamed aloud with fright. On coming further south he found that the sand hills lying between the lake and the old creek and the ocean had been raised to a level with the sea. The citizens of Morro can congratulate themselves upon the narrow escape. Had the tornado struck it, it would probably have leveled the town.—(San Luis Obispo Tribune, October 18th.)

PROSPECTUS

THE LOS ANGELES HERALD.

The first of October, THE LOS ANGELES HERALD, a daily and weekly newspaper, will make its appearance. The Daily will be a neat and tastily printed seven-column newspaper, never thicker than Henry's character. The Weekly will be a six-column, eight-page paper, and will contain the most important matter that has previously appeared in THE DAILY HERALD.

It is proposed that the HERALD shall be an unbiassed advocate of every interest pertaining to Southern California and Arizona, and a zealous worker in all things that shall tend to the advancement of the West. It will be in close communication with the People. Its columns, from time to time will be found marvellous in the California Farmer, Merchant, Laborer, and all classes of Producers; and it will also contain reading matter suited to the Home Circle.

The HERALD will be an independent Democratic journal, and its efforts directed to sweeping from power and place those now mismanaging the affairs of the Nation. For the accomplishment of this end, it will hail with satisfaction the co-operation of the members of all Parties, believing that the prosperity, perhaps safety, of the Nation depends upon the success of this movement. It is "no success or no revolution hereafter."

The HERALD will advocate State Rights and oppose Centralization; it will encourage White and oppose Colored Immigration. It will favor Free Trade, and oppose Protective Tariff; it will advocate a Greenback Currency for California, and oppose the present currency and devaluing policy which upholds the present ruinous rates of interest and shuts out Eastern capital. It will advocate the People and oppose Monopolies, no matter what guise they may assume.

While the HERALD will treat Slavery as a dead issue, it will earnestly advocate the right of man to man, in Northern and Southern States—Massachusetts or South Carolina—to govern itself in accordance with the wishes of its people, and the dictates of the Federal Constitution, without national interference.

The HERALD will oppose the sale of land to any man who owns a dollar and he who takes this money is a thief. Believing this, the HERALD opposes the sale of land to any man who has a dollar and he who takes this money is a thief. Believing this, the HERALD opposes the sale of land to any man who has a dollar and he who takes this money is a thief.

The HERALD will publish the fullest Foreign and Domestic Telegrams not published elsewhere. The aim will be to supply, in this part of the State, the demand for news, and to furnish the public with a full review of the Local and Foreign Markets, and the Trades generally, honestly and carefully compiled.

SUBSCRIPTION: DAILY HERALD, Delivered by Carriers, per month, $1 00 By Mail or Express, per month, $1 00 WEEKLY HERALD, By Mail or Express, per year, $4 00 per quarter, $1 00
