

The DAILY HERALD has nearly DOUBLE the Circulation of either contemporary paper published in Los Angeles. As an advertising medium it is consequently DOUBLE their value.

The Herald and the Fair. Our contemporaries are wild at the course pursued by the HERALD, concerning the Fair. It is so unusual for them to find in their midst a journal advocating that which they believe, that they are amazed, and the morning paper's amazement is only exceeded by its vituperation.

It is with no spirit of caviling that the cudgel has been taken up against what we deem the mismanagement in the Fair. To every editor, and especially to those of the HERALD, it is pleasant to approve than to condemn. Especially is this the case concerning an institution, which numbers among its stockholders our best friends and the best citizens of Los Angeles. We are actuated by no animosity, and no personality shall be forced into the columns of the HERALD. Our record is honorable; we shall not blush if it be published from the house tops.

We have said the directors of the Fair number some of our best friends, and the most worthy citizens of Los Angeles. But they are not responsible for the faults that exist; they decried them, but feel powerless to remedy them. A large majority of the stockholders, to-day, would prefer to see it managed in a manner radically different from the present. Some of the many letters we have published, some that have awakened the fiercest opposition, have been from the brains of stockholders.

The editors of the HERALD have no antipathy to horse racing. It matters little to them if the citizens of Los Angeles choose to spend a few hours or days in trying the mettle of the reoers, and if perchance they shall develop remarkable feetness, the HERALD will rejoice with them, just as when a fine building is erected or a public park laid out. But it may not be amiss to state that anything above 2:50, or perhaps 2:40, is not good speed. Perhaps, though, our ignorance of the turf has led us into error. But what is demanded now is an agricultural fair, an industrial fair; a fair that will exhibit the products and industries of Southern California. With a series of races we have no fight; let those who enjoy them have all they want. But we do think an agricultural fair, one that will educate and stimulate the farmer, will be of untold more value to the community than all the races which can be run. Let not the association or its self-appointed managers usurp the place, and the resources, and the name of an agricultural fair, and then give us nothing but races. Let them not go before the Legislature with a plea of assisting industry in their mouths, and devote the proceeds which a generous State bestows upon them, in pursuits which do not benefit the people, directly.

We hear that the society meets to-day. Whether the advice and the course of the HERALD be approved by them, we know not; but we do feel assured, from the depth of our conviction, that they will weigh well the complaints which have been made. That the demands of the industrious classes will be considered and their complaints adjusted, we have every reason to hope. If this be not done, Los Angeles and the association will be the losers.

ONE of the wants of our city is a good boarding-house, where plain, but comfortable board can be had at a reasonable price. Hundreds of people are coming here every week, either to spend the winter for their health, or to look around and examine the resources of the country; and the question of a temporary home within their means is an important one. We know of one eastern family, that after stopping here a few days returned to San Francisco, and there are doubtless very many others who would stop, and become permanent citizens here, if they did not experience so much difficulty in finding a place to stay.

THE Morning Harangue, in a bitter and personal article, yesterday, stated that all but four exhibitors received prizes or medals. As the sum total of all the prizes at the Rink was less than $400, and all the exhibitors received prizes, a "telling tale" is told concerning the exhibit, which may be all the fancy of our enemies painted. A simple problem in mathematics is presented. How large a number can go a large number of times in 400. The schoolmaster offers this as a problem.

THE New York Times of November 7th, makes the annexed honest confession, in commending upon the result of the late election in that State: In the State the Democrats have not materially increased their strength—it is our own strength that has declined. This means, to tell the plain truth, that party and administration are both under a cloud. We hope that none of the Republican leaders will deny this; because if they do, it may prevent them applying themselves to the discovery of those remedies for the present evil which can alone prevent the overthrow of their party.

Late Telegrams.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Edwin K. Wendship, government claims broker in this city, is announced a defaulter to the extent of $400,000. He is believed to be out of the country.

The statement of the condition of the Pacific Mail Company shows the receipts from May 1st to October 1st, 1873, to be $3,012,300; expenditures, $2,950,555; leaving a balance of $61,745 as the earnings for five months. It is said no account is taken in this statement of insurance, or wear and tear. It is said that the recent investigation into the disposition of $1,000,000 earned annually by the company showed fraud and a necessity for reorganizing the concern.

Trade is hard and dealers find it difficult to make expenses and meet demands upon them. Castello, commander of the Tornado, says the crew and men on the Virginus were treated with such consideration as his character and necessity of safe keeping would allow. He says the capture made the people of Santiago de Cuba wild with enthusiasm.

Testimony in the Tweed case concluded yesterday. Robert Partin, one of the jurors in the Stokes case, was arrested to-day for bribery in that trial. A Washington special says orders were issued for opening recruiting offices throughout the country, and the navy to be recruited to its utmost capacity.

The United States steamer Worcester, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, sailed from Fortress Monroe to-day for Santiago de Cuba. PENNSYLVANIA. PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18. The National Trust Company suspended payment to-day. The Directors say all liabilities will be speedily paid.

Secretary Robeson, now in New York, has summoned Chief Clark, his deputy, to that city in connection with fitting out vessels for Cuba. FOREIGN NEWS. LONDON, Nov. 18.—A cotton mill, near Manchester, was burned to-day. Loss $500,000.

The Telegraph says England ought to view with favor the annexation of Cuba to the United States. MADRID, Nov. 18.—The Spanish cabinet unanimously favor an honorable settlement of the Virginus difficulty, but say the integrity of Spanish territory must be maintained.

MATAMORAS, Nov. 17.—The mail from Monterey brings news that the Federal troops are occupying Monterey and Saltillo to maintain order. Gen. Zepeda, the deposed Governor of the State of Coahuila, is at Saltillo, and has organized several hundred State troops. Another conflict between Zepeda and the friends of the State is anticipated.

Five hundred Federal troops have been despatched to escort a large consignment of silver from Lectalcos to Monterey, and prevent its falling into the hands of either of the opposing parties. THE QUESTION STATED. They (the Chinese) are encroaching upon our mechanics by making shoes, cigars, etc.—Marysville Appeal.

Not encroaching upon our mechanics, but upon the mechanics of other countries—and localities who have hitherto supplied us with these articles, draining our State of its own coin to pay for the same. Charity should begin at home. If California does not look out for herself and take care of her own interests, it is quite certain that nobody else will. The question is simply whether we shall continue to pay tribute to Cuba and Lowell for our cigars and shoes, or utilize the cheap labor at hand and keep our money at home. Which course would common sense teach us to pursue?—[San Jose Mercury.]

Ask your shoemakers, and the women in San Francisco, who found profitable employment at slipper-sewing before the Chinese opened their shops, whether there has been an encroachment or not? As to cigar-making by Chinese, we know that Americans can not carry on the business and compete with the price of Chinese wages. The Mercury says we had better give our money to Chinamen than to pay it to Yankee cigar-makers in the east and shoemakers in Lowell. We say no. It is best to encourage white mechanics at home, and prevent our money from going to China or Connecticut. But if the question comes down between the mechanics in the east and Mongolians who soon depart to China, or remain here and eat rice sold by Chinese merchants, we vote to send our money to Connecticut.—[Marysville Appeal.]

AN Eastern dispatch says that Secretary Robeson has been "nursing the navy, and thinks it efficient." etc. We are afraid the Secretary has been nursing his own interests and those of his friends far more; a surmise that is more than justified by the fact that only a few old, rotten, third-class vessels can be scoured up for service in Cuban waters. Hotel Arrivals. CLARENDON.—P. G. Yorba, La Puente; F. Pizar, San Jose; S. J. J. San Francisco; John Galgado, La Mesa; J. Tibbet, El Monte; J. Thompson, P. Halpin, La Brea; Wm. Wichelson, C. Rakey, Arizona; H. S. Thistlethwaite, Los Nietos.

The body of an unknown man was found floating in the Bay at Yellow Bluff, near Saucelito, to-night. There were wounds upon his face and head, and a copy of the Bulletin of yesterday was found in his pocket. From appearances he had not been in the water long. Thus far it has been found impossible to arrange a running match between Thad. Stevens and Joe Daniels for $20,000.

There was a slight shock of earthquake at Oakland yesterday. Geo. Ensign, the safe agent and accomplished locksmith, arrested for burglary, attempted to escape from the city prison. He opened the lock of the cell door, got into the jail yard, and knocked down the trusty with a key. The trusty grappled with and held Ensign till assistance came.

Attempted Rescue—Sentenced to San Quentin. MERCED, Nov. 18. This morning two men, Taylor and Seroggin, procured pickaxes and attempted to liberate Wm. McClung from jail, by prying off some boards from the rear of the building, which is a small wooden structure. As they were in the act of commencing operations, deputy sheriff John A. Kendrick surprised and placed them under arrest. They were then lodged in jail on the charge of attempting the escape of a prisoner.

This afternoon, after two postponements, Judge Robertson sentenced McClung to two years in the State Prison. The lightness of the sentence is partly attributable to the exertions his wife, whom he shot, used in his behalf. Pursuant to the order of our fire department, four cisterns are now being constructed in the business part of the town.

Mr. David Henderson came in last week from Death Valley and brought with him a lot of the old relics belonging to the party that perished in the valley in 1849. He exhibited some wagon tire, springs, fellos, bolts, etc. over town, and excited the curiosity of all with regard to the unfortunate party. The wood, though exposed to the weather for more than twenty years, is yet in a good state of preservation.

THE Pescadero Trouble.

Indignation Meeting at Redwood City, etc. REDWOOD CITY, Nov. 18. The preliminary examination of the parties who killed H. H. Green at Pescadero, on the night of November 7th, was concluded to-day, after a hearing of four days. The prisoners were discharged on the ground that they were in possession of the ranch about which the riot occurred and were justified in putting Green off. Great indignation is felt throughout this portion of the county at their release by the Judge. The two McLeans, Wm. W. Dow and Mrs. Kinsey, returned to Pescadero to-day, and Mr. Kinsey left for San Francisco. Wm. Ream, one of the prisoners, was discharged during the examination on motion of the prosecution.

The citizens of Redwood City and vicinity held a meeting at the court house, to express indignation at the discharge of prisoners in the case of the People vs. Chas. Kinsey and others who have been examined in relation to their connection with the affair resulting in the affray at Green's ranch last week. The following dispatch from that place upon the return of certain of the prisoners after their discharge, was read: The citizens of Redwood City and vicinity held a meeting at the court house, to express indignation at the discharge of prisoners in the case of the People vs. Chas. Kinsey and others who have been examined in relation to their connection with the affair resulting in the affray at Green's ranch last week. The following dispatch from that place upon the return of certain of the prisoners after their discharge, was read:

To District Attorney—William Dow, McLean Brothers, and Mrs. Kinsey arrived here, we give them until 12 o'clock to leave town forever. The meeting adopted the following resolutions: Resolved, By the people of Redwood City, in public meeting assembled, that it is with astonishment and indignation that we have learned of the action of Justice Walsh in discharging the prisoners, Charles Kinsey and wife, W. W. Dow, A. W. and Michael McLean, in the case of the People vs. Kinsey, and others. The case has attracted public notice and attention to a large degree, and we have watched the testimony and proceedings with no interest other than a desire that justice should be done, and from the evidence in the case we feel confident that so far as the action of the magistrate could accomplish that result, the ends of justice have been defeated by the discharge of the prisoners without putting them on trial.

Resolved, That such a result could only have been reached through gross ignorance, stupidity or undue influence of others. Resolved, That a magistrate, who for any cause commits so great an outrage against justice and good government, is unworthy of position, and we now request him to resign the office of Justice of the Peace of this township. Resolved, That the parties should be re-arrested, and brought to a fair and impartial trial.

ANDREW TEAGUE, M. G. KELLY, CURTIS BAKER, SAMUEL BEAN, Committee.

We are just in receipt of information from Pescadero stating that the prisoners who returned there have been re-arrested.
