PERSONAL.—The friends of Mr. Terry will be pleased to hear that he is doing well in Los Angeles, Southern California, where he has permanently located and is practicing his profession. In the Doctor's departure this community lost one of its best eltisons, and he was loth to leave us, but his wife's failing health rendered it imperative that they should seek a more genial climate. We have known the doctor intimately for a number of years, and can most heartily commend him to the generous consideration of the people of any section in which he him to the generous consideration of the people of any section in which he may pitch his tent, both as a genial gentleman and skillful physician. Coroner's Inquest. Yesterday the Coroner was called to Low Nietos to field an inquest upon the body of a new-born child which was found dead with a string around his neck, on the grounds of Don Autonio Alvarado. The inquest elicited the following facts: Lest Monday evening a woman, named Anselsa, came to the house of Jose Carlos Tapia and asked for a hed to slean in which for a bed to sleep in, which was given her. She was, according to the state-ment of the witnesses, evidently far advanced in pregnancy. In the night she was heard to walk about, and the next morning the bed was found covered with blood. The woman's appearance was so much changed, that it aroused the suspicion of the hosts, that she had given birth to sehild and killed ft. They asked the woman, but could get nothing out of her. After she had left the house, a careful search that the house is a search was instituted, but without avail. On Wednesday noon, however, when Mrs. Tapia called her husband from the field to dinner, she found a part of the dress of the woman Anzelsa, cov-ered with blood. She and her husband immediately searched and found the body of a new born child strangled by a string around the neck, buried in the open field. They made the matter the open field. They made the matter known, which led to a Coroner's inquest. The verdict of the jury was that that the child was killed by her own mother. Dr. Kurtz also held an autopsy upon the body of the child to ascertain whether it had been born alive or still-born. He found that the child was well developed, and had evidently breathed, from the State of the lings.
