

Special Notices.

A Card.

As I will shortly remove from the well known Cigar Store, next to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, I take this opportunity to offer my entire stock of cigars, tobacco, pipes and smokers' articles, contained at the stand, at cost price. Any one buying a box of cigars will get them at manufacturer's price, as the stock must be closed out in a very short time. I do not wish to remove any of it to the store, identical, at 33, Main street, as the stock of cigars, tobacco, pipes, and smokers' articles is already large enough to supply all the wants of the public. The business, after the removal, will be carried on at 33, Main street, under the Backman House, where I hope that all those who have so far patronized me with their custom, will put up with the inconvenience of walking a block further, as the quality of the goods will amply reward them for the trouble. J. GOLDSMITH, 33 and 107 Main St.

$500 Reward.

S. Nordlinger, the Jeweler, on Commercial street, offers the above reward to any parties who can prove that he does not keep the finest and largest stock of Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry in this town. He would also inform the public at large that he does not keep any plated or Cheap John Jewelry in his house. He also will fill further notice 4 oz. silver Bartlett Waltham Watches at $30; 14 karat gold Gents' Chains at $1.10 a pennyweight; Watch Crystals at 25 cts. each. In fact, he will sell 25 per cent. cheaper than any other house in this town. For further information call at his store, No. 3 Commercial street, and examine his fine stock of goods. J. J. J.

Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small monthly amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term the loan is paid without any great inconvenience to the borrower; the rate of interest is generally lower; the expenses of obtaining the money are not in the ordinary loans, and it is borrowed upon good property; the monthly payments are made in time and pay the debt. For further particulars enquire of W. H. J. BROOKS, Agent for Savings and Loan Society, 101 1/2 St. 12 Spring street.

Educational.

On Monday, June 7th, at the Spring street school house, Mrs. F. A. Parker will open a school for a term of seven weeks; term to close one week before the re-opening of the public schools. Tuition for the term—For Third reader and all below, $4; $5 for all above the Third reader. For further particulars enquire of Dr. Lucky, City Superintendent of Schools. J. J. J.

Selling Out.

Selling out our entire stock of Dry Goods below cost. Intend in future to keep only Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes, and all that pertains to gentlemen's wear. We therefore offer to our patrons and the public in general the greatest bargain in Dry Goods ever offered in this city. For further information, call at the Bazaar, corner of Main & Bequina streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel. J. J. J.

Now is Your Time.

Now is your time! No such chance again in one hundred years! The Bazaar is selling out their entire stock of Dry Goods per cent below cost, as they intend to give up the dry goods business and keep only Gents' Furnishing Goods. They are selling out their entire stock of Dry Goods, as you will find out by calling at the Bazaar, corner of Main & Bequina streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel. J. J. J.

Wm. Farrell, at No. 19 Court street, attends to all business in the way of plumbing and gas and steam pipe fitting. He guarantees satisfaction in all cases and charges reasonable prices. He also refinishes old gas fixtures, making them as good as new. Also, agent for the "Empire" gas burner and "Economic" gas-governor—both valuable acquisitions to fixtures of a house and great savings over the old style apparatus. Remember the place, No. 19 Court street. J. J. J.

Insurance Agency—Commercial of California, Fire and Marine, assets $600,000; California Insurance Co., assets $500,000; Fire Association of Philadelphia, incorporated 1820, assets $2,000,000. These companies transact their business at the lowest paying rates, charging for each risk according to the hazard assumed, without reference to any insurance combination or arbitrary terms. All losses promptly adjusted. R. McLELLAN, Agent, Office of G. N. & P. S. Co., Los Angeles.

Silver and gold plating; electroplating; ivory and metal turning; glass and metal drilling. Locks, keys, seals and key-chests, stencils and door-plates made to order. Knives and surgical instruments ground and sawed and set; paraffin and canvas mended; musical instruments repaired; watch-cases cleaned and mounted; model making and repairs on all fancy work and machinery. Sewing machines bought, sold and repaired. Come and see the new sewing machine engine. Sewing Machine Exchange, 30 Spring St. J. J. J.

Moore's Restaurant, on Commercial street, is the proper place to go for a good meal, with a good cup of coffee or tea to drink with it. There is probably no restaurant on the Pacific coast where so many of the substantial and so many of the luxuries may be had for so little. Don't forget the place—Moore's Restaurant, Commercial street. Private dining rooms have been newly fitted up for the accommodation of ladies. J. J. J.

Mr. Ed. Dupuy has established a stable and feed yard at Santa Monica for the accommodation of the visiting public to that popular resort. An ample stable and corral have already been completed, and teams will be well cared for at moderate prices. Mr. Dupuy also has a livery connected with his establishment, and will keep some fine rigs to let. J. J. J.

If you want a good comfortable bed to sleep on and which adapts itself to a person's body, you should get one of the new kind of spring beds. They are superior for wear, resistant to mites and give more room than any other spring bed made. Go and see it for yourself at their furniture warehouses, Main street, corner Commercial, up stairs. J. J. J.

Johannson & Grosser do the best and neatest upholstering and cabinet work in Southern California. If you have any kind of furniture in their line, give them a call. They are reasonable in their charges, and keep all kinds of Furniture and Upholstery in their warehouses. Ducommun's building, Main street, corner Commercial. J. J. J.

125 gents' cheviot suits, in frocks and socks, at $14, with $100 pairs heavy quality of Western Walnut Furniture, worth $8, at the Bazaar, corner Main and Bequina streets, opposite the U. S. Hotel. J. J. J.

500 gents' cloth Summer hats, at 50 cts. apiece; extra heavy gents' satinette pants from $1.50 up to $3, at Isaac Norton & Co.'s, corner Main and Bequina street, opposite the U. S. Hotel. J. J. J.

If you want a good suit of clothes for a little money, go to the Bazaar, corner of Main and Bequina streets, and get one of those $12 suits, worth $17. J. J. J.

Los Angeles Herald.

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1875.

THE San Francisco Post is after W. A. PIPER, the Democratic nominee for Congress. The Post went for FINDLEY in the same way. It always goes for candidates that have money, until they put up, or it is satisfied they will not.

THE Sacramento Bee says that the Chairman of the Democratic State Convention, like the Chairman of the Republican and Independent Conventions, was a proxy. This is a mistake. Governor DOWNEY held two proxies, but he was himself a regularly elected delegate, and held credentials signed by the Chairman and Secretary of the Democratic County Committee.

THERE has been a great falling off in the number of proposed purchasers of Santa Monica lots since the disclosure that the title to the property is clouded and that those who purchase the property will also purchase years of litigation. It is rumored that a number of parties are preparing to locate on the two-and-a-half leagues which have heretofore been claimed as part of the San Vicente Ranch, and we presume that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will also take steps for securing the alternate sections of the same tract, which as government land rightfully belongs to them. Verily, the prospects of the coming city are enmeshing.

THE Express has placed us right in putting and locating the coming city on the San Vicente Rancho. If they have found an accommodating Deputy U. S. Surveyor to measure them out four leagues for one and one-half leagues, the Government has an interest within these boundaries of eleven thousand one hundred and ten acres. The settlers who are guaranteed homesteads on the public domain have an interest there, and as we do not propose to edit a "real estate circular" in the interest of speculators, it is our duty to make these facts known. It is not the first time the HERALD performed this service to the people.

It is well known in this city and valley that the HERALD has always advocated the building of the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad; yet, because we have exposed a scheme, which has all the appearance of an attempt to sell people town lots to which no title can be given, the Express, which is paid to advertise this land speculation, adds to the length of its ears by asserting that the HERALD is opposed to the railroad. Go it, little organ. We shall not hesitate to warn the people of the trap that is laid for them. It is your business to lime the bush, and we will do you the credit to say that you are doing all in your power to earn your money.

The Popular Ticket.

The success of the Democratic ticket at the approaching election is generally conceded by all parties. No one presumes to claim perfection for the candidates, and it is possible that in one or two instances more eligible men might have been nominated; yet the popular verdict is that taking the ticket as a whole it is one of the best ever submitted to the people for their endorsement. The head of the Republican ticket, TIMOTHY GUY PHELPS, has a long and objectionable record which can neither be whitewashed nor covered up. He has been engaged in many schemes for making money at the expense of the people and has many sides and characters as a kaladestes is capable of producing figures. It is unnecessary to say to Californians that nearly all of these sides and characters are the reverse of popular and many of them of questionable color. The remainder of the ticket is weak and vulnerable, but if it were as pure as an angel and as strong as a giant it could not win with so lame, so impotent and so universally unpopular a leader. The standard-bearer of the Independent party is a curious combination of ignorance, pomposity and egotism. Mr. BRIDWELL is a well meaning but narrow-minded old gentleman who has fallen into the habit of mistaking his inordinate self-conceit for wisdom. Without the culture and refinement of the Huguenot, he apes the manners and customs of the Puritan. Professing extreme anti-liquor sentiments, he preaches his principles by pulling up his grape vines. While boasting himself a plain tiller of the soil he practices to a ludicrous degree the aristocratic manners of a three-tailed Basel. A self-basting anti-monopolist, he is one of the largest land monopolists on the Pacific Coast. The weak, vain old man is as full of contradictions and idiosyncrasies as the Republican platform of meaningless platitudes. He is a dead weight to his ticket and would sink it though filled with better and more competent men. Against such nominations the Democratic ticket, made up as it is of objectionable material, will win a victory with a majority high up in the thousands.

The Boys.

The first crop of hoodlums in this city is now maturing. These must be dealt with as circumstances require; perhaps the strong hand of the law may prevent many evil consequences. We cannot expect to reform the present matured crop, but there are several Junior crops growing up, from six to twelve years old, which may be reformed by the cooperation of parents and police. If parents will make their homes pleasant for their children, many little fellows that are now running through the streets will gladly remain at home and become good boys. But parents must remember that children require and must have recreation and amusement, and it is the parents' duty to furnish this at home. Give them toys to play with, furnish musical instruments of some kind, and, as far as you can, enter into their little childish games with them. Show them that you love them and are interested in all they do. You will soon find that your boy would rather be in your company than anywhere else. Then you can control him by a word or a look much easier than you can now control him by the rod. Many parents imagine they have done their duty in controlling their boys when they flog them well for every little offense and make them sit still in the house, and make no noise when the parents are in sight. Such a discipline will make any boy hate his home, and in nine cases out of ten such boys will run on the street, or to their neighbor's house, to find the amusement which their childish natures demand; and such boys make the very worst hoodlums we have. It is strange that parents so soon forget their own youthful days. If a father would control his son well, let him, when his boy needs control, stop and ask himself, "What kind of treatment would have had the best influence on me when I was a boy of his age?" The answer will be: "If my father had taken me on his knee and reasoned kindly with me and showed me that he loved me, I would have done anything he desired; but he whipped me like a brute for every little offense and my nature became brutal and sordid. I avoided his presence as much as possible, fell into bad company and was guilty of many bad acts, which I now regret." Parents, remember that your sons have the same feelings now that you had when of their age. We have much sympathy for bad boys, for in nine cases out of ten, their badness is caused by irritable, ill-natured fathers and mothers, who make home a hell for their children. Parents, keep your children at home; but make home pleasant for them.

That interview.

The careful reader of the Express editor's interview with Senator JONES, published a few days ago, cannot avoid the conclusion that though the result of a joint effort and prepared with great caution and concern, it is a lame and impotent production—the mouse result of the mountain's labor. We pass the inelegant senatorial expression represented by "covering a blind," to examine the intent and purpose of the article. We are assured that he never saw the pamphlet entitled "The Coming City," until after it was printed. The authorship of that grandiloquent lie-impregnated production is imputed to TOM FITCH, the most eloquent and most irresponsible biped on the Pacific Coast, and though TOM is in the Senators employ and wrote his Munchausen volume about and for the sole purpose of selling his employers land, the Senator disclaims all knowledge of what he wrote. This is hardly business. If this is a specimen of the way in which the Senator conducts, or rather permits others to conduct his affairs, we are not surprised that he realizes the necessity of feeling his way in the business of railroad building, and we shall be more than surprised if he does not feel the necessity of going out of that line of speculation at an early day. The fact that TOM FITCH has been selected to conduct a part of the Senator's business and that he so conducts it that his employer knows nothing about it, will add nothing to the Senator's reputation for shrewdness. The interview embodies a quiet admission that the work of railroad building will proceed slowly in order to avoid the incurring of debts. What the Senator knows about farming is told with a rustic simplicity that cannot fail to wreath with smiles the faces of our hardy grangers. The Senator is a pleasant talker, and we have no doubt will make a successful farmer. When he turns loose on the San Vicente Rancho, look out for deep plowing and wonderful products. He promises to teach our soil tillers things they never dreamed of. Give us another interview Mr. Express. They are refreshing to read.

Grasshoppers.

A staff correspondent of the New York Tribune, who recently made the trip to Denver over the Kansas Pacific Railroad, writes thus: "The stories of the infuriated grasshoppers, which sound like Eastern folks, are heard on every hand, and the fact cannot be concealed that the farmers in the infested district of Kansas are more apprehensive than ever. The pest is not so severe along the line of the railroad, but extends far into the interior. Still, I saw enough grasshoppers while passing through Kansas to blunt my curiosity. They were not so thick as the sands of the desert, nor so impenetrable to the visitor as the Missouri River, but they were enough, even in their youth, to obscure the light of day as they frolicked about the train. The stories in some of the Eastern papers, that they have born up the railroad track in some portions of Kansas and eaten a number of the green freight-cars, are, I am inclined to think, overdrawn." Recent private dispatches advise us that these melancholy statements are but too true.

Wisconsin Republicans.

MADISON, July 7th.—The Republican State Convention assembled to-day and nominated for Governor, Harrison Luddington. The platform advocated the gradual resumption of specie payment, and approves Grant's letter discarding a third term.

Foreign News.

LONDON, July 8th.—The pigeon-shooting match between Bogardus, of Illinois, and Rimmed, the champion of England, took place to-day at Hendon, and was easily won by the former. Bogardus killed thirty-six to his opponent's thirty. Bogardus challenged the whole England to shoot against him. BELFAST, July 7th.—The contest for the Mayor and Citizen's cup was held on the range on Lord Dufferin's grounds. The distance was 1,000 yards; five shots allowed each man; highest possible score, 20. Several thousand persons witnessed the shooting. All the members of the American team and their reserves took part in the contest, which was very exciting, especially toward the close. Colonel Gildersleeve won the cup over twenty-four competitors.

LETTER FROM ORANGE.

Orange and Santa Ana—Dramatic Performances—Furlong's School—The New Hotel—Druggist Wanted—Laguna Landing.

Quite a delegation from Orange attended the recent presentation of "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," given at Santa Ana. The Dramatic Association had given faithful work to the preparation of this celebrated drama, and did themselves credit in its rendering, though laboring under many unfavorable circumstances. The talent employed was entirely local, under the management of a young San Francisco Journalist. Our people all expressed themselves pleased with the performance, selecting Switchell (represented by Mr. Birch) as the best "sample" of acting they have seen for a long time.

MR. FURLONG'S SCHOOL.

Last Wednesday Mr. Furlong's school closed with the expected picnic in the Santiago Cañon. It proved a success, as all of our picnics do. Music, croquet, grace hoops, and games of all kinds made the day pleasant. Speeches were made by Dr. Lucky, Professor Silliman and Will D. Gould. In the course of his speech, Dr. Lucky proposed the following sentiment: "The pupils of the Orange school, the most favored of any pupils in the county—because they are kept in the path of duty by the best of teachers, protected by the finest armor, and their progress is measured, not by steps, as in other schools, but by the Furlong." I should say that this sentiment was as lucky as it well could be, only I think it abominable to make puns on people's names. The picnic day closed with a very pleasant little dance in the evening.

THE NEW HOTEL.

The new hotel is crowded with visitors, and is growing more and more into favor. If Major Larkin does not make some additions to his house, some one will be wide awake enough to build another.

DRUGGIST WANTED.

We want a druggist in Orange, for, though we do not often get very sick here, yet we sometimes have measles, whooping cough, and such comparatively harmless maladies among the children, and a few drugs are necessary sometimes; and then the stores keep no tonics, except Hostetter's Bitters, and when the visiting consumptive comes to the city, the druggist has to go clear over to wicked Anaheim after it.

LAGUNA LANDING.

Several Orange families have been spending the Independence holidays at Laguna Landing. This is a delightful place of resort, considered superior to Santa Monica by many visitors of both localities. It deserves a further notice in future. The bathing is fine, the fishing and hunting good. One party of strangers captured five deer in the neighborhood in a two hours' trip. The inevitable croquet followed this party to the camp. The party was a jolly one, and all are satisfied that Laguna Landing is a fine place to spend the Fourth of July. A party standing on the cliff were somewhat surprised at the arrival of a large pelican, which allowed itself to be caught by the wing by one of the gentlemen. His wing was promptly clipped, and a string secured him to a chapparal bush. It was supposed that he was the rival bird of liberty, but all opportunity of ascertaining this was cut short by his untimely death next morning.

About Beecher.

NEW YORK, July 7th.—At a meeting of the pew holders of Plymouth Church this afternoon, a resolution to increase Beecher's salary for the ensuing year to $100,000 was unanimously adopted. It is understood that the increase is for this year only, to help defray the expenses of the trial. Beecher was before the Grand Jury to-day, to testify in the Loeder-Price case. Another affidavit from Price is published in which he states that Loeder instructed him what to say and Morris paid him at different times small sums of money to spend in liquor, cigars, etc. He declares that the affidavit signed by him in Morris' office, is false in every particular. It is asserted by the Brooklyn Argus that Moulton will endeavor to procure the indictment of Beecher by the Grand Jury now in session for perjury and will summon the following named persons as witnesses: Mrs. Stanton, Miss Anthony, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Moulton, Theodore Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowen, Mrs. Tilton and others.

Minnesota Democrats.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 7th.—The Democratic State Convention to-day nominated D. L. Buell for Governor, and adopted resolutions holding that the Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth Amendments have been accepted in good faith by the people and all parties must stand on them. Politics must turn on questions of the present and the future. The resolutions advocated a return to specie payments.

Wisconsin Republicans.

MADISON, July 7th.—The Republican State Convention assembled to-day and nominated for Governor, Harrison Luddington. The platform advocated the gradual resumption of specie payment, and approves Grant's letter discarding a third term.

Disappointed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8th.—The Democracy of the city expressed much dissatisfaction at the nomination of Piper for Congress by the Convention on Tuesday evening. A meeting is talked of to repudiate the nomination.

Democratic Meeting—Murder Case.

FRESNO, July 7th.—An enthusiastic Democratic meeting this evening was addressed by Jo Hamilton, P. D. Wigginton, nominee for Congress from that district, and others. Wigginton stated his intention of challenging his opponent, Houghton, to stump the district with them. The Granite murder trial was opened to-day. After opening the case by counsel the Court adjourned until 8 A. M. to-morrow. Counsel for defense stated that they would prove that Madder was the aggressor.

The Bazaar, corner of Main and Bequina streets, has just received an immense stock of new goods, consisting of clothing, dry goods, books, shoes, hats, etc., which they will sell at bottom prices. Call and examine their stock. ml

DIED.

MEYER.—In this city, July 8th, Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Constant Meyer, aged 20 months. The funeral will take place to-day at ten o'clock A. M., from the residence of the parents, corner of Fort and Second streets.

NEW TO-DAY.

Special Notice—No Blowing.

I have received a large stock of genuine Imported Pomeranias and other brands of Hosiery to sell at 25 cents. Also the very finest brands at 25 cents each, for $1 and $3 for 50 cents. THE TENTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE MECHANICS' INSTITUTE OF SAN FRANCISCO

Will be opened in San Francisco at 11 o'clock A. M. on Tuesday, the 17th day of August next, continuing open at least one month in the immense Pavilion specially erected for the purpose of Eighth street, running from Market to Mission, having a floor area of 200,000 square feet, and lighted by over 6,000 gasjets supplemented by improved reflectors. Manufacturers, mechanics, inventors and others desiring to exhibit, will please send in their applications for space without delay, to Mr. J. H. Oliver, Secretary, or to Mr. J. H. Gilmore, Supt., both at 27 Post street, who will answer all inquiries.

No charge is made for space and steam-power and a reasonable amount of water will be provided free for machinery desired to be exhibited in actual operation. A liberal premium list, consisting of gold medals, diplomas, and certificates of merit, will be awarded. Articles intended for competition must be entered and placed on exhibition on or before Saturday, August 23rd.

All the lines of street cars pass in close proximity to the Pavilion, running extra cars during the Exhibition. During the Fair of 1874, 700,000 visitors attended the Exhibition; and, as heretofore, the Exhibition will be complete in all its details. A Band of 50 pieces, under an eminent Director, engaged for the period of the Fair, and every attention will be paid to the comfort and convenience of visitors. Jy 11
