Notice of the Press. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.

The character which this magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with it has not led the times, still, it is a conductor to regard it with justifiable complacency. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Some of the most popular of modern novels have first appeared as serials in this magazine. In all respects it is a collector's magazine, and fully deserves its great success.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure, and Instruction." Harper's Bazar. ILLUSTRATED.

Notice of the Press. The Bazar is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to children by droll and pretty pictures, to ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the artist by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly complete and excellent. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fresh enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.
