TELEGRAPHED FOR THE STANDARD.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 19th, 1850.
NASHVILLE CONVENTION. Intelligence from the Nashville Convention up to the 19th instant. The Reports and Resolutions of the Committee re-committed, and new Resolutions substituted, declaring the attachment of the Convention to the Union, and that the States are independent sovereigns. They also recommended to the South not to go into a Convention of the States, but to leave it to Congress to restore and secure Southern rights. The Tennessee Delegation pronounced strongly against the proceedings as unworthy of Southern men. Much confusion prevailed, amid which the Convention adjourned sine die.
NEW YORK, November 19th, 1850.
NEW YORK MARKETS. Sales of 1,600 bales of Cotton at the following prices: Fair uplands 14 1/2 and Orleans 15 1/2 cents.
A good demand for Naval Stores, and a light supply.
Twenty thousand barrels of Flour sold at one-eighth advance.
TIE MARKETS.
FAYETTEVILLE, November 16. Bacon 9 cents; cotton 12 to 12 1/2 cents, and brisk; corn 75 to 80 cents, and in demand; flour $6 25 to $6 75, and but little coming in; and 9 cents; molasses 27 to 30 cents; coffee 14 to 15 cents.
WILMINGTON, November 14. Corn selling at from 65 to 70 cents per bushel; parcel pork at from 5 to 6 1/2 cents per pound; flour, Northern, $6 50 to $6 per barrel; molasses 21 to 22 cents; bacon 4 to 4 1/2 cents, according to the quality. The Journal says of Naval Stores: Since Friday last, Naval Stores have taken an upward tendency. The amount of Turpentine sold during the past week, foots up to about 1100 bbls., ranging from $2 25, 2 30, 2 40, to $2 50 per bbl. for dip; and $1 25 to $1 50 per bbl. for hard; market closing at $2 25 for soft, and $1 50 for hard, for a lot brought by a vessel. Some 350 bbls. Tar, were sold at $1 55 per bbl. Some 850 to 1000 bbls. Spirits Turpentine changed hands at from 26, 25 to 28 cents per gallon, market closing at the latter price. Other parcels on market, for which 40 is asked.
PETERSBURG, November 16. Tobacco at from $8 to $20, according to quality, and market very firm; cotton selling at 13 cents; wheat at from 70 to 112 cents; bacon, hog round, at 8 cents, with a light supply; lard at from 7 1/2 to 9 1/2 cents; flour held at $5 for superfine.

NEW STORE.
THE Undersigned most respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have associated themselves together, in the Tailoring and Clothing business, under the firm of J. J. Biggs & Co. They have opened a New Store, a few doors below the North Carolina Bookstore, where they will be happy to see all of their old Friends and Patrons, and pledge themselves to sell cheaper than ever. They can at all times warrant a good fitting Suit of Clothes.
Call and examine their fine Stock of Ready Made Clothes. Also, their Stock of fine Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings.
To the Members of the approaching Legislature, they would say, it shall be to their advantage to patronize the new firm of J. J. Biggs & Co. Call next door to Mr. Root's Jewelry Store.
J. J. BIGGS,
SYLVESTER SMITH.
Raleigh, Oct. 16, 1850. 837-6t.
TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS,
And the Public Generally.
HAVING associated with me in the Clothing business, Mr. Sylvester Smith, it will henceforward be conducted under the firm of J. J. Biggs & Co. Mr. Smith has been long known as a Merchant Tailor, but is now turning his attention to the Ready Made business, and it is the design of the New firm, to keep up a large assortment of all kinds of Ready Made Clothing.
Our Stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, will also be kept up, a beautiful assortment of which, is now being opened, embracing all the latest styles.
Mr. PEACH will attend to the Cutting Department, as heretofore.
J. J. BIGGS,
Raleigh, Oct. 16, 1850. 837-6t.
UNION HOUSE.
THE Subscriber respectfully informs the Members of the approaching Legislature, and the public generally, that he is prepared to furnish for or receive of them with lodgings and board, at the UNION HOUSE, but a short distance from the Capitol.
The Subscriber will provide comfortable rooms, and good fare, at such prices as the times and market will afford. He pledges himself that no pains or expense will be spared to render the accommodations comfortable.
Travellers are also invited to call, and transient boarders will be taken. The Subscriber keeps a constant supply of corn and fodder on hand, and will have horses led with him, or the horses of such as may stop at his house, well taken care of.
The Subscriber's House is about one hundred yards from the Capitol, and one door to the east of the Baptist Church.

The "Bugg" also at Home Again!
H. R. R. R.
I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, New York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by myself, and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be veridant enough to question my capacity for the elegant tribute paid to my "artistic skill" in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.
Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our Goods. Who is there, in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Badger, the Hon. William H. Haywood, Jr., and "Big Oliver"? Why? Their fame is no more to be humbled by State lines than their talents are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits.
We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, they may—with no Northern House—but are Tailors ourselves—by our own goods, and import quite as many of what we purchase in respect to our business, as any House in this State or out of it. There is no Establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantages over us. We buy where everybody else buys, and we think we understand our business and buy as cheaply. We say that CLOTHING is equal to any ever offered for sale in North Carolina, and we think superior, being judicious ourselves of clothing. Of that, though, we will leave the public to decide, when they examine for themselves. One thing is certain—without intending to reflect upon any one—we will sell our clothing cheaper than any other articles can be bought for in any of the Northern cities; and as cheap as any body that comes here, who does not steal his clothing ready made.
Our stock embraces Drab, Black, Blue, Green, Gray, and other OVERCOATS from $5 to $20 and upwards. CLOAKS, full circle, $18 and above. Frock, dress, and sack COATS from $7 to $12 and upwards. PANTALOONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8—VESTS, all kinds and sizes, at all prices from $1 25 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.
We are North Carolinians. We are permanently located here, and if we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at as small a price, we will not ask your patronage. Call! call! before your purchase, at

On the 6th inst., at his residence in Sampson county, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Edward C. Gavin, Esq., aged 67 years.
Mr. Gavin was one of the best and most highly respected citizens of Sampson County. Many years previous to his decease, he embraced the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ, and proved himself a most worthy and acceptable member of the Baptist Church until his death. About the year 1825 or 26 he entered public life, and from that time, with few intermissions, he continued to be a worthy Member of the Senate or House of Commons of North Carolina. He also labored zealously for the interests of the Church of which he was a shining and exemplary member—the Missionary Baptist. But he is gone—his body is consigned to the narrow limits of the cold and silent tomb, and his immortal spirit has taken its flight to the God who gave it—there to reap the reward of its labors—there to bask in the sunshine of eternal glory. He has left a wife and children, and a large circle of friends and connexions to lament their irreparable loss. But they mourn not as those without hope—for they are cheered by the sweet consciousness that their departed friend and relative died in the triumph of his faith and the full hope of a blessed immortality. May God be a husband to the widow, and father to the fatherless.
The deceased was long and intimately known to the humble writer of this imperfect sketch who can bear testimony to his sterling worth and unspotted integrity—plain and unaffected manners—and unostentatious piety. An affectionate husband, and a doting parent, his death was no doubt, in some degree accelerated by domestic afflictions. His character as a public man, and the confidence reposed in him by his fellow-citizens, can be better understood from the fact already stated, that he represented Sampson county in the Senate and House of Commons of North Carolina, with the exception of a few years, ever since the year 1825 or '23.
As this is the last time that it was in my power to make it worthy of his character, and as enduring as his virtues. But it needs not this. The sincere regrets of this community are his best eulogium, and his most fitting monument that is engraven on the hearts of his friends. The old Ten Mile Church, in which he had his membership, will long continue to mourn his loss, and in after days men will point to the seat which he occupied in his life-time, as a spot hallowed by the recollections of a good man.
