

Desperate Outrage.—The St. Louis papers give an account of an extraordinary outrage in the Illinois penitentiary, by a convict named Crabbe, who was conducting a man to his cell, the latter knocked the convict down, dragged him into the cell with him, and then with a dirk took Buckmaster, the warden, and other officers who came to see what the matter was, that unless they immediately procured a pardon for him from the Governor, he would kill the poor turnkey. A deputation was, in consequence, sent to the Governor to procure a pardon, and that functionary had agreed to give it.—In the meantime, however, Mr. Rutherford, the State superintendent, and Col. Buckmaster, the warden, undertook to get into the cell of the prisoner by stratagem.—Breakfast was set at the door in vessels of larger size than ordinary, but the convict refused to open the door until the hall was cleared, which, after a brief consultation, was done. The warden, superintendent and 500 wardens were on each side of the cell, but Crabbe was not to be frightened by sight and noiseless. The convict slowly opened the door nearly enough to admit the food, when a crow bar was instantly inserted. The warden cried out to Crabbe, the imprisoned guard, to fight for his life.—He accordingly sprang to the opening of the door, and at length dragged himself through, but not before he was stabbed by the convict seven times in the back and twice on the arms. When the poor victim was dragged out, the convict barred the door again, and refused to yield. He was then given a few minutes for reflection, and then a crowd of men dodging and effort to get out of the reach of the fire, shot by the warden. The ball struck his skull just below the left ear, and glancing around lodged under the skull. He fell instantly and was dragged out of the cell, and was thought to be dead, but soon recovered and talked as sensible as any man could under the circumstances. After the convict was taken out of his cell, his knife about eight inches long with a double edge, was found in the cell, and on his person was found also another larger knife, with a blade four inches long. Crabbe, the wounded guard is thought to be mortally injured.

The office of Commissioner of the Revenue of Clarke county most certainly be a very important or lucrative one, if we are to judge from the number of aspirants for the place. Although the election does not take place until the fourth Thursday in May, there are not less than thirteen candidates already in the field!

JOHN AVIS, a worthy and highly respectable citizen of Charlottesville, departed this suddenly on Friday week. In the Senate on Saturday, there were several private memorials and resolutions submitted and disposed of. Mr. Houston submitted a joint resolution providing for the payment to Texas, of what ever balance of the moneys appropriated to pay private claimants against that State, which may not have been claimed by the private claimants; referred to the Committee of Finance, and ordered to be printed.

Several other unimportant matters were disposed of, when, the hour having arrived, the Kansas bill was again taken up, and Mr. Wade proceeded to speak against the admission of Kansas and against slavery.

The Proper Way to Heat a Car.—The Cincinnati Commercial furnishes the following directions to gentlemen in search of the typical fever: "Take a seat with fifty-nine and a half human bipeds in a railroad car, which the managers of the road have carefully and judiciously closed against the admission of fresh air, or the escape of four or five ride a few miles, and the symptoms of the approach of the disease will soon manifest themselves by a burning heat, freezing feet, aching bones and a disordered stomach. If you escape the disease under this treatment, it's no use for you to hope to get it."

The above is not an exaggeration of the effects of the badly ventilated cars in general use. The best arrangement for warming and for ventilating is now in use in one of more of the cars on the morning and evening trains on the Little Miami Railroad.

Land Sold for Taxes.—Mr. Heath, in the House of Delegates, has brought this subject up by resolution. He inquires into the expediency of providing that by the sale of the land, unless he shall be duly informed of its liability to sell for non-payment of taxes. Would it not be as well to make all land delinquent for a term of years, the property of the State? So that instead of hoisting it up without description and sacrificing it to some person who may alone know something about it, that it shall be fully described and sold, not ostensibly for the payment of taxes, but as the bona fide property of the State, and with a clear title to the purchaser. But there is one way of avoiding difficulty and confusion that seems to be presented by the sheriff to execute the tax bill presented by the sheriff to execute all the taxes due on land. Let the arrears of tax on land be transferred along with the land to all new owners. The owners then could never be ignorant of delinquencies of their land, and the sale or forfeiture of the same would be just.—Richmond Dispatch.

Shenandoah and Rockingham.—We take great pleasure in honoring the representatives in the Legislature of Rockingham, and of the centre of the Valley, generally. They have been active, faithful and liberal; and in every honorable way have done their utmost to secure the passage of those bills which would increase the wealth and power of the State, and add new lustre to her glory.

Our neighbors of Shenandoah have done well in sending John Gatewood to the Virginia House of Delegates. Although he has been there but ninety days, he has already won for himself the name of being one of the most able, industrious, intelligent, indefatigable and liberal members of the House.—He has, by his votes, evinced a commendable degree of liberality towards the great improvements of the State.—Rockingham Reg.

A Legislative Prayer.—The following laudable prayer was delivered in the Iowa Legislature by representatives, the other members by Rev. Mr. Shine: "Great God! Bless the young and growing State of Iowa, her Senators and Representatives, her Governor and State officers! Give us a sound currency, pure water, and undivided religion, for Christ's sake. Amen."

In the Senate, on Friday, a bill was reported of incorporating the Citizen's Savings Bank of Alexandria.

The following Senate bills, which had passed last session, were taken up and passed: To ascertain and fix the boundary lines of the States of Virginia and Maryland. For the relief of certain holders of Internal Improvement Company and holders of debts on account of the construction of the State Works by an issue of certificates of State stock.

This bill was offered by Mr. Brannon, as a substitute for the bill entitled, "A Bill for the relief of certain companies by an issue of certain certificates of State stocks in payment of claims on the Internal Improvement fund," and is as follows: 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That the Second Auditor be, and he is hereby authorized to issue certificates of the 6 per cent. stock of the registered debt of the Commonwealth in the manner prescribed by law, and to deliver the same in payment of the amounts due on account of the State account, or of internal improvements on the State account, and on account of the State's subscription to the capital stock of internal improvement companies, which may have been certified and presented to the Board of Public Works on or before the 1st day of March, 1858; provided, that said certificates of stock shall be received at their par value, and provided further, that said companies shall in no event use or dispose of said certificates at less than par.

The bill for the conversion of the debt of the James River and Kanawha Canal, due the State, came up on its second reading, and after debate, was laid on the table.

In the H. of Delegates, a resolution was adopted, that hereafter no member be allowed to make a speech of more than fifteen minutes duration, on any one question, unless by special consent of the House. The resolution offered by Mr. McKenzie, on Monday, relative to the reports of Railroad Companies, was taken up and agreed to. On motion of Mr. McKenzie, a bill authorizing the commissioners in chancery of the Alexandria city and county to take the same of $1 per hour for their services, was taken up and passed—yeas 64, nays 13.

On motion of Mr. Chapman, the bill to amend an act to incorporate the Mount Vernon Ladies Association of the Union, and to authorize the purchase of a part of Mount Vernon, passed in '56, and for other purposes, was taken up.

The question on the passage of the bill was put, and determined in the negative. On the motion of Mr. Tappin the vote rejecting the bill was reconsidered, whereupon, Mr. Chapman stated that he would offer as a substitute to-morrow, a mere act of incorporation, to which there would be no objection.—The bill was then laid on the table.

THE CONCERT, to-night, at Liberty Hall, if we may judge of the concert given by Miss May in other cities, by the notices we see in our exchanges, will be such a musical treat as has seldom enjoyed by our citizens. Wherever she has sung, Miss M. has made a most favorable impression, and we have no doubt, Liberty Hall will be well filled on this occasion. Miss May is assisted by several distinguished artists.

The National Intelligencer, speaking of Miss May's Concert in Washington, says: "From the first rich tones of 'Tacecia la Notta,' through the joyous 'Non Giugno,' which was rendered with ringing gladness and brilliancy, and a wonderful beauty of voice; in the sweet tenderness of 'The Last Rose of Summer;' and to the final note of the sparkling and vivid 'Brindisi,' the audience were taken captive, and their delight culminated in a favor of enthusiasm. 'Roberto lo que jama,' however, in our estimate, is not such a sum, then such person or company may receive said certificates of registered debt upon paying into the treasury the difference between the amount due on such debt and the par value of such certificates.
