COMMERCIAL. The market continues quiet, with very light receipts. There is a better demand for Wheat, and new white may be quoted at 130c., at which figures we learn a considerable quantity has been engaged.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET, July 13. Beef cattle.—The offerings this week were about 800 head, and sales at $7.50 to $9.00. As to quality—a decline of 50 cts. to 100 lbs. since last week. Cows and calves, with a few calves, were sold at $2.00 to $3.00. Offerings at $2.00 to $3.00. Hogs at $6.00; and sales at $6.00 to $9.00. Offerings about 900 head, and sales were made at $3.25 to $4.00 per lb. net.

EARLY IN MAY last, the Banks of five of the leading cities of the United States had accumulated in their vaults an amount of specie equal to $1,000,000. The decrease since that time may be estimated at something like $2,000,000. The Boston Advertiser, alluding to these facts, says that the present plethora of gold is a phenomenon which, to its actual extent, was not possible twenty years ago, for the plain and sufficient reason that there was not a sufficient amount of gold in the country.

THE MONEY MARKET in Baltimore is still in a very easy condition. The supply of capital is abundant, and money is very easily obtainable on the street at 4 1/2 per cent. with prime endorser, and at 5 per cent. with good single name paper. On call with approved securities it can be had at 4 1/2 per cent. The banks are discounting quite freely, and comparatively little paper finds its way into the street.

THERE HAS BEEN NO wheat brought forward as yet for sale in the Fredericksburg market. Various samples have been offered, but we believe few or no purchases have been made, our millers preferring to wait delivery. Prime white wheat would bring $1.25 to-day, but the value will doubtless decline by this week.

THE STOCK MARKET in Richmond remains without material change since our last report. Some little wheat is arriving—Millers offer at $1.10 to $1.15 for prime red—and $1.20 to $1.25 for prime white—but the Enquirer says these prices will not be maintained.

FUGITIVES FROM VIRGINIA. The Rochester (N. Y.) Union, of Friday, contains the following item, which it gives with as much coolness as if the transaction was honest: Yesterday a colored man and woman called at the office of Frederick Douglas, and stated that they were fugitives from Greenbrier county, Va., and wanted money to go to Canada. Mr. Douglas told them to leave their baggage at the office and call in the evening and he would give them the funds. They called in the evening as requested, but the woman was heavily drunk and made considerable disturbance when policemen were sent for, and the woman and man (the last morning request) were locked up till this morning, when they were discharged and sent off by Underground Railroad to Canada.

IT IS REALLY refreshing to one who has to endure the heat and dust of the city, during the scorching days of summer, to escape, if it be but a short time, from the monotonous routine that daily awaits him, to breathe a purer air, and to enjoy that communion with nature which acts so soothingly on our mental, as well as on our physical condition. Such were our thoughts as we found ourselves on board the steamer Thomas Collyer, Capt. Baker, (who, by the way, is the very model of a gentleman), on a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon, the resting place of the immortal Washington. The day was one of those quiet, beautiful days, peculiar to our climate at this season—scarcely a ripple disturbed the bosom of the bright Potomac, as we were waded over its glassy surface towards our destination. And O! what a host of thrilling reflections arose in our mind, as we stood upon the soil so often trodden by him, who was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen. We thought of Washington as a boy, in all the truthfulness of his character—and then as a general, the officer, advising the great British, as we were waded over its glassy surface towards our destination. And O! what a host of thrilling reflections arose in our mind, as we stood upon the soil so often trodden by him, who was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen.

VALUABLE FAUQUIER LAND FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers at private sale, the FARM—MOUNT STERLING, of which Mrs. Charlotte M. Mitchell, widow, and her son, John Mitchell, of the county of Fauquier, Va., are the owners, and is situated at an intermediate point between Gainesville, a station on the Manassas Gap Railroad, and Catlett, a station on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad.

Said Farm contains about FIVE HUNDRED ACRES, with an abundance of timber upon it, and is divided into ten fields, with one or more Springs of excellent water on each, and most of the arable land which is not in cultivation, is well set in grass, thereby rendering this a very desirable farm for grazing purposes. The soil is of excellent original quality, and is now in a good state of improvement. DWELLING HOUSE, with all necessary out buildings, and a well, will take pleasure in showing the premises to any one desirous of purchasing, and reply promptly to any communications addressed to me, respecting particular inquiries as to terms, &c., for which purpose application may also be made to JOHN W. HILLMAN, Esq., Warrenton, Va., or to either of Mrs. M. C. Mitchell, de'd. Fauquier Co., Va., July 15—601.

THE WEATHER.—OATS CROP.—There has not been rain enough to be of any advantage to the growing crops, in this vicinity, for more than a month—the mercury, in the meantime ranging from 80 to 92 deg. In the shade. Indeed, we have not had a more oppressive season for several years. Most of the gardens are burnt up, past recovery. The most serious effect of the drought, however, has been upon the growing crops of oats. A more cheering prospect for an unusually large yield of this useful crop, than was presented a month ago, we never witnessed in this vicinity. But the dry weather came upon it when it was in full bloom, and the consequence is, that, while there will be an unprecedented yield of straw, the grain is imperfectly matured and exceedingly light. The crop will therefore be comparatively of little value as food for stock.

THE DRY WEATHER, however, it has proved so destructive to the oats and garden vegetables generally, has enabled the farmer to secure his hay and grain crops in good time and without damage. It is a "bad wind that blows nobody good." But, we take pleasure in saying in this connection, while such are the facts in regard to this portion of the county, other sections have been visited with copious rains.—Woodstock Telegraph.

KILLED.—A negro boy, belonging to Dr. H. J. Churchman, was killed by a kick from the Doctor's horse yesterday evening. He had started to lead the horse to water, by a long halter, and it is supposed that the horse was rearing and kicking in a playful mood, as there was nothing vicious about him. The boy was kicked in the stomach and died in three-quarters of an hour.—Staunton Spectator.

GOOD SALE.—The Aylor farm in this county, which contains 208 acres, was sold last week, by Messrs. Watts and Trout, Trustees, at $22 99 per acre. Mr. George Sherman of Rockingham, was the purchaser.—Staunton Spectator.

ANTHONY W. Southall of Amelia county, committed suicide by drowning himself in Charles W. Tanner's mill pond, on Friday night, 25th June, and was found on the following Tuesday, with his hands tied together with his cravat, and supposed to have been done by himself.

THE CROPS.—The farmers in this neighborhood have completed their wheat harvest, and we are sorry to learn that the yield will fall far below their expectations. There was a good growth of straw and the head looked well, but upon examination it has been found that there is very little grain, and that of an inferior quality. The oat crop has, we are informed, been seriously injured, and in many places not more than half a crop will be made. The corn has been greatly improved by the rains, and the prospect for a fine crop is again good.

THE COTTON FACTORY.—The report in circulation that the Cotton Factory in this city would go into operation in a few days, is we are requested to state, not correct, and we are sorry for it. Negotiations are on foot for the sale of the factory to some parties in Philadelphia, but as yet no definite arrangements have been made. We hope this establishment will again go into operation, as it would give employment to a large number of persons, and would benefit our whole community.

TRAVEL.—The travel over the Orange and Alexandria and Manassas Gap Railroad, is now very great. The trains leave daily, crowded with passengers, for the various watering places, and the through travel, north-east and southwest is steadily increasing.

FEATHERS.—A letter from a respectable gentleman, living near Gump Spring, Loudoun County, Va., (to a friend in this place) says, that some two horse wagons, "with four men and two dogs," are traversing that part of the country, the men "persuading people to sell their old feathers at from 10 to 25 cts. per pound, and trying to bargain for new feathers at 20 cts.—which is less than feathers sell for in the west, although these men profess to be buying for a L. W. Smith company—where feathers are selling now at from 35 to 40 cts." The letter referred to, desires that the public should be put on their guard against these feather dealers, and that farmers should not suffer themselves to be imposed upon.

DOGS.—Several dogs, about the Market Square, were poisoned yesterday morning. Several were killed the night before. The "canine population" has been thinned considerably, in the last two weeks.

A CHARIOT alarmed some of the residents of the First Ward on Tuesday night—but the watch coming up, the crowd dispersed, and "order reigned."

THE RAIN on Monday night and Tuesday morning was a god send to the country in this vicinity. Notwithstanding the rains of the spring, the ground had become parched and vegetation suffered under the excessive heat of the last month. We have heard of no damage done.

IT IS REPORTED that Rev. Henry A. Wise, jr., lately ordained to the ministry, will receive a call to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Cummins, of Trinity (Episcopal) Church, in Washington city. We believe that the Vestry have really invited Dr. Nicholson, of Cincinnati, to succeed Dr. Cummins, and he has accepted the invitation.

ON THE trial of Barrett and Williams, for killing Mr. Reeve Lewis, in Washington, the police officer, Carrico, swears positively to the fact, that the prisoners shot at and wounded Messrs. BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH. Another Arrival from Havana. New York, July 14.—The steamship Philadelphia, from Havana on the 5th, arrived here this morning. The brig C. Perkins, of New York, was sunk in the harbor of Havana, having been detected of bringing a cargo of slaves. M. De Embil is in prison for having insulted Gen. Concha. He will probably be banished.

EIGHT THOUSAND persons had left California for Frazer River. Owing to a scarcity of laborers in California, prices had advanced 30 per cent., and six steamers and ten sailing vessels had been detained in San Francisco. The Hudson's Bay Company had stationed armed vessels at the mouth of the river to prevent the emigrants from carrying goods into the interior, but an American vessel is reported to have entered in spite of the blockade.

THE DEFEAT of Col. Steptoe is confirmed.—His command fell into an ambush, and was attacked by a large number of Indians. He was forced to retreat with a loss of seven killed and fifteen wounded. The troops were not sufficiently supplied with ammunition.

A GENERAL Indian war was expected.—General Clarke had dispatched troops from San Francisco and Los Angeles to assist Col. Steptoe in case of necessity.

STILL FURTHER from California. NEW YORK, July 14.—The Star of the West has arrived with $1,400,000 in treasure, and about 400 passengers. She reports that business at San Francisco, during the past fortnight had been quite active, with large sales of provisions, mining implements, clothing and fire-arms, at advanced rates. Haxall flour had sold, at auction, at a heavy decline; and last quotations were $11 1/2 for superfine. Small lots brought $14.

THE CASS-HEARAN treaty is still under consideration in the New Granadian Legislature. A joint committee of the two houses had been appointed to make some compromise. M. Bally's contract with the Central American Government had reached Panama, via Europe, and created great astonishment.

THE WEATHER in the South. AUGUSTA, July 14.—Heavy rains had fallen here and throughout the Southern country during the past few days. The damage, however, has been comparatively trifling as far as heard from.

MEMPHIS Meeting. AUGUSTA, July 14.—A barbecue was held near Montgomery, on Saturday last, at which Gen. Walker and Mr. Yancey made strong speeches on the subject of Central America.

THE LATE PROFESSOR LUCIAN MINOR. In the death of Lucian Minor, which sad event occurred in Williamsburg on the 6th instant, the State has lost one of its most useful citizens and accomplished scholars. This lamented gentleman had been for some time past in declining health, so much so as not to have been able to discharge the duties of his chair in William and Mary College, in which institution he was Professor of Law. Mr. Minor was conspicuous for his ardent advocacy of the Temperance cause, and next to Gen. John H. Cooke, of Fairfax, was perhaps the most zealous adherent of Total Abstinence in Virginia.—Petersburg Express.

This farm is divided into nine fields, besides a meadow and two or three lots. The whole is well watered, there being no difficulty in watering stock from every field in the driest seasons.
