THE FASHION IN DRESSES.

Books a la... This style is the newest and the most costly and splendid of the dresses imported for the fall season.

A very rich purple, embellished with black, and having three flounces—was marked at sixty-dollars.

VELVET ROBES.—Another new style is of "velvet robes,"—that is, of rich pink silk, with deep embossed patterns of velvet inwoven.

VELVET ROBES.—This favorite style is reproduced for the coming season in a variety of patterns.

PLAINS.—Of no particular class, but "flancy," and of various colors, rich inclining to dark, will be much worn.

STUPIDITIES.—Walking along the streets with the point of an umbrella sticking out behind, under the arm or over the shoulder.

Stepping into a church aisle, after dismission, and standing to converse with others, or to allow occupants of the pew to pass, out before, for the courtesy of precedence.

To carry a long pencil in vest or outside coat pocket, not being since a clerk in New York, and the long cedar pencil so pierced an important article, that it had to be cut down upon from the top of the shoulder to prevent his bleeding to death, with three months' illness.

To take exercise or walk for the health, when every step is a drag, and instant relief to repose.

To guzzle down glass after glass of cold water, on getting up in the morning, without any feeling of thirst, under the impression of the health-giving nature of its washing out qualities.

To sit down to a table and "force" yourself to eat when there is not only no appetite but a positive aversion to food.

To take a glass of soda, or toddy, or sangria, or mint drops, on a summer day, under the belief that it is safer and better than a glass of cold water.

To economize time, by robbing yourself of necessary sleep, on the ground that an hour saved from sleep is an hour gained for life—when in reality it is two hours actually spoiled.—Journal of Health.
