BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME. MANUFACTURED FROM UNBURNED BONES, BY BAUGH & SONS, Wholesale office and store, No. 20, South Wharves, PHILADELPHIA. Cash price $45 per 2000 lbs. (21 cts. per lb.)

"The preparation of this valuable Manure, or BONES are used, that RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE, has never been boiled or calcined. They are taken as nature has made them, crushed with powerful Machinery, and subjected to a process, by which, while all the virtue of the Bone is retained, a Ferriolizer is produced, furnishing in a concentrated and soluble form the two indispensable ingredients for the growth of Plants and enriching the soil, viz: PHOSPHORIC ACID AND AMMONIA. These two ingredients, by the use of 'BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE,' are given to the soil in all their original strength and purity. They assimilate at once with the soil, furnish all the needed Ammonia for the growing crop, giving it ample luxuriance, and leave the land permanently benefited so that its presence can be traced for years to come."

"Baugh's Highly Improved Super-Phosphate of Lime," being made by a process which was contrived in my Laboratory, I am acquainted with its qualities, in regard to its superiority as a super-phosphate made from bones, or of burned bones, because the more valuable portion of organic matter is not destroyed in Baugh's Super-Phosphate. J. S. COOPER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, at their recent State fair, awarded 'Baugh's Raw Bone Phosphate,' a diploma of first class, which it is truly worthy. Circulars sent free on application, containing full details, &c., &c. We recommend Farmers and Planters to purchase of our Agents, nearest them. BAUGH & SONS, No. 20, South Wharves, Philadelphia. For sale by W. M. H. FOWLE & SON, Alexandria, Va. feb 8-45m

SOLUBLE AMMONIATED PHOSPHATIC GUANO. MADE OF GUANOS OF OUR OWN DIRECT IMPORTATION, and under the personal supervision and direction of DR. R. H. STABLER, Chemist, of this city. This fertilizer we confidently recommend, as the most permanent and cheapest yet offered to the public. Being composed of No. 1 PERUVIAN and SOMBRERO GUANOS, of our own direct importation, we WARRANT it in every respect. The Sombrero Guano, before being mixed, is rendered immediately soluble, by the addition of Sulphuric acid. This treatment is universally recommended by the most eminent Agricultural Chemists. Without it, the action of the two Guanos when mixed is not simultaneous, and consequently comparatively inefficient.

This is the only mixture of the Ammoniated and Phosphatic GUANOS we know of yet offered to the Agricultural community, in a REALLY SOLUBLE FORM. Price per ton of 2000 lbs. MISCELLANEOUS READING. [COMMUNICATED.] The Shower of Stars and the Philosopher. Long time ago—'twas thirty-three, As well as I remember, There was a great phenomenon— He says it was in September. Now 'bout that great phenomenon, Which at that time occurred, So wonderful to all gazing eyes, I wish to say a word. He says he was puzzled mightily, The mystery to unravel; Some said the Moon had sprung a leak, Some said 'twas of the D.... Some said it was an omen dire Of coming blood and fire; To me, I'm glad, I recollect, Just like a Shower of Stars. But all agreed 'twas awfully Terrible to behold; A finer sight could that night, Had indeed passed for bold. Deities now droop'd their stolen lens Along the secret way; And on and up to their villany Before it was day. 'Nay, half who saw that night declared It indeed was passed for bold. More awful than when cuttle eels Made chime 'em Tam O'Shanter! But old John Corder stood the test— Like a true philosopher— He says he saw no signs, No matter what they were. His good wife, Polly, woke that night— She saw—but was not dumb; She cried—'Lord Johnny! do get up! This day of Judgment's come!' O Polly! come to bed, said he, You're always being a sight; Whoever heard the Judgment Day Was coming in the night! February 14 OLD FOOT.

THE PERU ELECTRICAL.—The wisecracks of the telegraph, after long practice on the trembling wires, have undertaken musical criticism. Thus the accomplished Boston operator, on the night of the 17th of January, informed the New York journals that Adeline Patti was, at that moment, in the Barber of Seville, "electrifying" the Bostonians—a despatch aromatic of the shop. We would suggest the establishment of a regular operatic line between the two cities, which we know like the following may be transmitted to an anxious public during the fascinating Adeline's next Boston campaign. Boston, Monday, 8 o'clock, p. m.—The lovely Adeline has just come on as Adeline in La Sonnambula. At her utterance Care, campaign, e rio, the editor of our Journal of Music burst into tears. He said he could not bear the thrilling tenderness of her portamento. Sh. 30m.—The youthful Adeline has given the Duetto Del di che i nostri cori. The encore was tempestuous. The editor of our Musical Journal said to his nearest friend: "My Don! what scherzando! what cantabile!"

8h. 40m.—Rodolfo has just entered with two postillions, whose jack-boots are admitted to be much finer than those worn at the New York Academy. 9h. 10m.—The Son mio bene was exquisite. Upon the words perche Conda te da, the fascinating Adeline executed a run in hemidemisquavers, including three hundred and twenty-eight broken octaves in briso style. 9h. 30m.—The first act is over. The triumph of the bewitching Adeline is complete. When she fell into the arms of Teresa, young Spoon, of Bacon street, was seen to leave the theatre, con agitazione.

10h. 10m.—Spoon has returned with two baskets of flowers and his grandmother's best chow. 10h. 25m.—The slumbering Adeline has just taken her perilous walk. The chorus gave the "Ah!" magnificently. The excitement was intense. 10h. 45m.—The exquisite Adeline has finished Ah non giungo in an unsurpassed leggerissimo style. Spoon completely empties his flower-baskets. When he threw the brooch, as it fell heavily on the stage, he was mistaken for an assassin and led away by a policeman. His cries of Viva Anna! were effecting in the extreme. Buena notte!—Fauly Fair.
