The high price asked for vegetables, in this market, of course makes purchasers buy as few as possible; and many of these vegetables left over each day, on the hands of the hucksters (some of whom would rather lose them altogether, than abate a penny in the price,) are reproduced stale and unhealthy, freshened up with cold water, and palmed off upon ignorant people as fresh. The market here, appears to be pretty much controlled by a few, and the citizens suffer in health and pocket.

CAMPBELL STREET.

[COMMUNICATED.]

I think the experience of Wednesday last, has satisfied all our respectable citizens, that this is not the time for steamboat excursions, picnics, and junkettings. The fewer we have of such things the better. Experience shows this. Enough said. Z.

Several dead bodies of persons drowned in the Potomac river, have recently been found along the shores, in Charles county, Md., and buried on the beach. On the 27th ult., the body of a man floated ashore at "Waverly," near Cedar Point. Upon this body was found a belt containing some money, and a certificate, and signed by Jackson Orr, 45 Nassua st., stating that he had forwarded to Washington the discharge of Jos. L. Percival, Seaman, of the U. S. ship Powhattan, for the purpose of procuring his (Percival's prize money.

The Port Tobacco, Md., Times says: "The direct mail facilities from Port Tobacco to Bryantown have been discontinued, the mail now being carried by way of Piscataway and T. B. Persons who travel by the land route from Port Tobacco to Washington will be glad to hear that the stages now take passengers directedly on, when they reach Piscataway, instead of being obliged, as heretofore, to go five or six miles out of the way by the post office at T. B.

Cornelius Tuell was hung in Washington, yesterday, for the murder of his wife. Gooden (a negro) convicted of murder, who was to have been hung at the same time, had his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life.

Treadwell, the bank defaulter, has escaped from jail, at Adrien, Michigan.
