WAR NEWS.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 13th says: "About the first of the present month, Sheridan, with between six and ten thousand men, started on a raid up the Valley, visited Staunton unopposed, and crossed the Blue Ridge at Rockfish Gap, opposed by Early and some fifteen hundred men. The opposition was fruitless, however, our forces being almost surrounded by overwhelming numbers, and over a thousand captured. The enemy then entered Charlottesville unopposed."

We have advices from Newbern up to the 12th inst. After crossing the Neuse River during the night of the 10th, the Confederates are said to have burned the bridge behind them. It was also rumored that they had destroyed, at the same time, the ram which was guarding the river at that point. Timber for rebuilding the bridge was in the act of being forwarded from Newbern on the 12th.

A dispatch from Fortress Monroe, dated on Tuesday last, states that scouts who reached Wilmington on the morning of the 11th inst. reported the arrival of Sherman at Fayetteville, North Carolina, and that his army was quietly resting in the vicinity of the town, preparatory to another movement northward.

An official dispatch received at the U. S. Navy Department yesterday, from Fortress Monroe says: "Kinston is in our possession," but gives no further particulars, the news having been brought to Fortress Monroe by a vessel from Newbern.

Information from the Army of the Potomac says that General Sheridan, after inflicting much damage, is on his way to the White House.

Sherman, it is said, has opened communication with Wilmington from Fayetteville.

Commercial Panic in New York.

NEW YORK, March 15.—There was considerable panic to-day in all our markets and business circles. The Express says: There was a general feeling of depression and uneasiness at the Produce Exchange, which was increased at the announcement of failures among Philadelphia dealers. Flour declined 10 to 15 cents, wheat 5 to 10 cts., corn 2-3 cts., lard 1 ct., and butter 1-2 cts. Pork declined $1.25 per barrel. Cotton fell 3 cts. In general merchandise there is a heavy feeling, and dry goods, especially cotton fabrics, are lower. In petroleum stocks there is a general disposition to sell, and large amounts of stocks are offered without a single bid.

Gold operators, are in trouble, and eight or ten firms, are mentioned as having failed; among them Thos. Warren, Canazi & Cummar, and J. F. Meymen. Two large firms in the butter trade have also "gone up."

Gold closed at 177a178, weak.

The Indiana Legislature, at Indianapolis, was suddenly broken up in confusion. Four appropriation bills caused the contest, one of which was the Morgan raid bill. An extra session will not be called, at least until fall.

The cause of high rents in New York is the want of laborers to build new houses.

The reported movements against Mobile are still going on.
