In the North Carolina Convention while B.
 F. Moore was speaking against the telegram of President Johnson forbidding the assump-with a thundering shock. Mr. Moore exclaimed "Yes, Mr. Chairman, when North Carolina submits to dictation, that flag-staff ought to fall."

Letters from Texas say directly after the war the people of that State were willing to agree to almost anything for the sake of pacification; but now owing to the dilatory movements of Governor Hamilton, much dissatisfaction begins to be manifested, and the State has made but little progress in restoring her relations to the Union, nor are the proper facilities yet afforded throughout Texas for taking the amnesty oath.

NATIONAL EXPRESS COMPANY.
 COMMISSIONERS OF STOCK FOR VIRGINIA.

ROBT. A. LANCASTER, of Richmond.
JAMES R. BRANCH, " WM. B. ISAACS, "

An opportunity is offered to the citizens of Alexandria to subscribe to the stock of a company which is to be National in its character, and whose main object is to furnish officers and soldiers of the late opposing armies with employment.

The National Express Company is to be organized under a charter from the Legislature of Virginia, with a capital of five millions of dollars, in shares of one hundred dollars each.— This capital is to guarantee against loss, and to give confidence and security to the trade and commerce of the country. It is believed that five per cent. will be ample to put the company in successful operation all over the United States.

Two hundred and forty-five thousand dollars have already been subscribed in the city of Richmond, by citizens of all classes of society and occupations, and more would have been taken, but the design of the originators of the company being to make it entirely National it was ordered that opportunity be offered to every State to subscribe to the stock. The amount of the capital is to be apportioned among the States in the ratio of their representation in Congress.

Books of SUBSCRIPTION are opened at the Custom House by Andrew Jamieson, and at the Banking House of J. W. Burke by A. Herbert.
