

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 7, 1886.

THE AGED PASTOR. He stands in the desk, that grave old man; With an eye still bright, though his cheek is wan.

And his long white locks are backward rolled From his noble brow of classic mould.

He opens the page of the Sacred Word— Not a whisper, nor low nor loud, is heard; Even fully assumes a serious look.

As he reads the words of the Holy Book; And the thoughtless and gay grow reverent there.

As he opens his lips in fervent prayer. He stands as the grave old prophet stood, Proclaiming the Truth and the living God—

Pouring reproof on the ears of men Whose hearts are at ease in their folly and sin, With a challenge of guilt still ringing true, To the soul unfitted, unmeet for Heaven.

O, who can but honor the good old man, As he nears his three score years and ten— Who hath made the work of his life to bless Our world in its we and wickedness;

Still guiding the few who were wont to stray In paths of sin to the narrow way, With a kindly heart through the lapsing years, He hath shared your joys, he hath wiped your tears;

He hath bound the wreath on the brow of the bride, He hath stood by the couch when loved ones died;

Pointing the soul to a glorious Heaven, As the ties which bound it to earth were riven, Methinks ye'll weep another day, When the good old man has passed away;

When the last of his ebbling years have run— When his labor is o'er and his work is done— Who'll care, though of guilt still ringing true, When his pulse is still and his heart is cold?

We'll miss him then! every look and tone, So familiar now, forever gone, Will thrill the heart with inward pain, And you'll long and listen for his voice again;

When a stranger form and a stranger face Shall stand in your honored Pastor's place.

ARE YOU AFFLICTED WITH A COUGH OR COLD? ARE YOU PREDISPOSED TO CONSUMPTION?

Are the lives of your children in jeopardy from sudden and repeated attacks of Croup? If so purchase a box of BLADES' EUPHONIAL LUBRICATORS!

The people's most sure and effectual remedy for Croup, Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all pulmonary diseases.

The LUBRICATOR is a medicinal preparation in the form of Lozenges, which of all modes is the most pleasant and convenient. They contain no deleterious ingredients, and are warranted to be always safe, even for the weakest and most sensitive stomach. In Croup they give immediate relief. For Coughs and Colds they are invaluable.

For Catarrh, Asthma, and Bronchitis they have no equal in the market, (vide Certificates accompanying each box.) Diphtheria, that dreaded and desolating disease, they control wonderfully and almost immediately.

No Public Speaker, Singer or Teacher, should be without them, as they remove hoarseness and strengthen and clear the voice.

A ways use them in time, and if the symptoms are severe use very freely.

Land Agencies.

AGENCY FOR THE PURCHASE AND SALE OF REAL ESTATE IN VIRGINIA. We have in our hands for sale a large number of VALUABLE FARMS in Loudoun, Fauquier and other counties in "the Piedmont region" of Virginia—a section of the State which is justly celebrated for its wealth, fertility, soil, fine grass and peculiar adaptation to stock raising.

Many of these farms are equal to any in the State; some of them are priced VERY LOW, and none of them higher than they would have been before the War.

Among them we name the following: 1. A farm of 600 acres, four miles north of Middleburg, enclosed and divided with stone and rail fences, in fair order, a large frame dwelling-house, and all necessary out-buildings, in good repair, with fruit orchard, and abundance of wood and water. This is a remarkably fine grazing farm, and also produces good crops of grain.

2. A farm of 245 acres, adjoining the town of Middleburg, well fenced, generally with stone, finely watered, and with plenty of wood. The dwelling is of brick, handsomely finished, and all necessary out-buildings, except the barn and stables, which were burned. The land is of fine quality, and the farm a most desirable one.

3. A farm of 370 acres, on the turnpike 3 1/2 miles east of Snickersville, with fine three story dwelling, and all necessary out-buildings, except the barn, which was burned; a large orchard, of the best choice variety of fruit. Eighty acres of timber, and fine running water in every field. This is a first class Loudoun farm.

4. A farm of 404 acres, five miles N. W. of Middleburg, near the Snickersville turnpike, fenced with stone, 160 acres of fine timber, except a large and good orchard. The dwelling is large, and built of brick. This farm has been somewhat neglected of late, but has been long celebrated for the large crops of grain, and the splendid beef made upon it. It is naturally first class land.

5. A farm of 350 acres, on the Snickersville turnpike, 5 1/2 miles above Aldie. A fine well-watered, with all necessary out-buildings, except barn; the fences of stone and rail, in fair order. Wood and water and fruit in abundance. The land is in good condition, and is of superior quality.

6. A farm near the last named, of 350 acres with a commodious stone dwelling-house, kitchen-smoke-house, barn, &c. The land is of fine quality, is well watered, and is now all in grass. The fencing has been generally injured, but is now being renewed, and is an abundant source of stone and timber upon the land to renew it.

7. A farm of 224 acres of first rate land, 2 1/2 miles below Philmont on the Snickers Gap Turnpike. The dwelling is plain but comfortable, the out-buildings good. A hundred acres of fine timber and pasture, and good fencing. A nice orchard, 50 acres in wheat and the balance in grass.

8. A farm of 400 acres near Middleburg, with comfortable improvements, good fencing, fine land plenty of wood, water, fruit, &c. A beautiful and productive farm.

9. A farm of 175 acres, with 40 acres adjoining, which can be added to it, 4 miles N. W. of Middleburg. The house is small, and the out-buildings but ordinary. The land is of unequal quality, well enclosed with stone, and with an abundance of wood and water.

10. A farm of 800 acres, near the turnpike, 5 1/2 miles below Aldie. The land is grass, and is of superior quality. The buildings are indifferent. Two hundred acres of fine timber. This land will graze 100 sheep, a small tract of 100 acres of wood, and a hand-some pasture for the farm. It can be bought for $20,000 in Virginia bank paper.

11. A tract of land at Aldie, Va., of 700 acres, well enclosed, a large and handsome dwelling, two large barns, and shelving for stock, two tenant houses, and every necessary for the farm. The land is of the best quality, and there is no better estate offered for sale in Virginia.

12. A farm of 500 acres, 3 1/2 miles from Aldie, on the Prince William and Loudoun line, well enclosed, 150 acres of splendid timber, and the land taken in grass, and a fine dwelling house on the estate, and a good barn, stables, &c.

13. A beautiful and most desirable farm of 750 acres 2 miles North of Upperville. The land is of fine quality and generally in grass, fencing in good condition, timber and water abundant, located on the edge of the mountain the out-buildings in good repair and sufficient for the purposes of the farm.

14. A farm of 550 acres 4 miles east of Aldie with comfortable dwelling and good out-buildings, well fenced, good timber and water and well watered in grass.

15. A farm of 414 acres, near Long Branch Church, with good dwelling-house, barn and other out-buildings. The land is good and well taken in grass, and there is upon it a fine orchard, and an abundance of wood and water.

16. A farm of 800 acres, near Middleburg, with comfortable improvements, except barn, which was burned; a valuable mill site, the mill having been burned down, and a large tract of 100 acres of wood, and a hand-some pasture in Upper Fauquier, and no particular description is necessary. It is in perfect order, and is sold because the owner is advanced in life, and has no children, and has lost all his labor.

17. A farm of 200 acres, adjoining No. 16, with neat cottage house, and all necessary out-buildings. The land is good, is fenced with stone, and has wood and water in abundance.

18. A farm of 222 acres adjoining No. 16 with large stone house, kitchen, stable, &c. This is fine land, well enclosed, and most desirable property.

19. A farm containing 400 acres, 5 miles S. W. from Salem, Fauquier Co., with comfortable dwelling (10 rooms) and all necessary out-buildings in good order. The land is of fine quality, has abundance of timber and water, and is well taken in blue grass. It will be divided if desired, the 200 acres with the dwelling house, and 200 acres in Fairfax county, containing 82 acres, adjoining the famous battle-field of Manassas. The land is good, but the buildings and fencing have been nearly all destroyed. This land can be bought very low, as the owner is unable to improve it.

20. A farm on Ivy Creek, in Albemarle Co., of 740 acres, of which 70 acres are low grounds. The improvements are good in every particular, and the land of fine quality. The farm can readily be divided, if desired.

21. A valuable tract of land, containing 85 acres, 1 1/2 miles from Alexandria, on the road to the Episcopal Seminary. This land was handsomely improved before the war, but the buildings and enclosures have been entirely destroyed. It has upon it several handsome buildings, and can be readily divided, and may be sold in such terms as to insure a handsome profit to any one who can divide and improve it.

22. Also, a lot of 40 acres, at Bailey's Cross Roads, in Fairfax county, 4 miles from Alexandria in timber and unimproved.

Also a large stone hotel in Middleburg, having the only one in the town. This is a valuable property and with good management would be a source of large income.

A handsome dwelling house in Charlottesville, &c. Persons wishing to purchase Real Estate in Virginia or having any for sale will find it to their interest to call upon us. Address, TUCKER & NOLAND, Attorneys at Law, Middleburg, Loudoun Co., Va. mh 10-1m Or R. W. NOLAND, Charlottesville, Va.
